ON THE COVER:

The 2021 Houston Astros, coming off their fourth consecutive trip to the American League Championship Series, will look to make a return trip in 2021 behind a star-studded offensive group and an up-and-coming pitching staff. The 2021 Media Guide cover features four from the club's powerful lineup, predominantly featuring shortstop Carlos Correa.

Correa, who is making his fourth appearance on the team's media guide cover (also, 2016, 2017, 2019), starred for the Astros in the 2020 Postseason, hitting a blistering .362 (17x47) with six home runs and 17 RBI in 13 games. His cover image was taken after a three-run home run in Game 4 of the 2020 ALDS vs. the A's.

Correa's double play partner, second baseman Jose Altuve, returns to the Astros media guide cover for the seventh time in his career (also, 2013, 2015-19) after a one-year hiatus. Like Correa, Altuve returned to form in the 2020 Postseason, posting a .375 (18x48) average with a 1.229 OPS in his 13 contests.

Perennial MVP contender and the Astros third baseman Alex Bregman is making his second appearance on the cover (also, 2019), while outfielder Kyle Tucker is making his first. Tucker is coming off a breakout season in which he led the club in extra-base hits (27) and RBI (42).

ASTROS COMMUNITY AFFAIRS

OVERVIEW

The Astros Foundation and Community Relations team manage a wide variety of community and charitable programs that focus on supporting youth baseball and softball, honoring members of our nation's military and veterans, aiding in the fight against childhood cancer, and helping address pervasive issues in our society such as homelessness and domestic violence. These efforts are an investment in the Houston community and speak to a culture of giving back that touches every facet of the Astros organization.

In 2020, the Astros Foundation continued to emphasize its commitment to volunteerism in the Houston community. Despite dealing with the challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Astros Foundation Volunteer Corps. logged over 10,000 hours of work in the Houston community to help those in need. The Volunteer Corps., which was launched in 2014 and consists primarily of Astros fans and volunteers from outside the organization, gives the Astros a constant presence in the Houston community.

A cornerstone of the Astros Foundation is the Astros Youth Academy, which offers local youth an opportunity to learn about and experience the game of baseball and softball. In 2019, the Astros Youth Academy softball team won its second-consecutive MLB Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities World Series Championship.

Each year, the Astros Foundation continues to grow the Community Leaders program, which provides young baseball and softball players with the environment and resources they need to develop mentally and physically.

Through fundraising and volunteer efforts, the Astros Foundation supports many local non-profits, dedicating thousands of volunteer hours each year.

In 2017, the Astros Foundation was awarded the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, Major League Baseball's highest recognition of the charitable efforts of its clubs, for the Astros Community Leaders program.

To learn more about the Astros Foundation and community programs, please visit www.astros.com/community or www.astros.com/foundation.

ASTROS COMMUNITY AFFAIRS

ASTROS ITEMS

The Astros' commitment to our community includes assisting qualified local 501(c)(3) nonprofits with their fundraising efforts through in-kind donations, including promotional or autographed items, tickets or ballpark related in-kind experiences. All requests must be made online. Information is available at Astros.com/community.

ASTROS PLAYER, ALUMNI AND FRONT OFFICE APPEARANCES

Astros players, alumni, owners and executives make a select number of appearances throughout the year. Businesses and groups who wish to request an appearance by an Astros player, alumnus or front office member should complete and submit an appearance application at least four to six weeks prior to the proposed event. The application should include detailed information on the event including specific date, time, exact location of the appearance, how many people will be in attendance and the purpose of the event. The Astros online appearance request forms are available at www.astros.com/community.

THE ASTROS FOUNDATION

The Astros Foundation is the official 501(c)(3) team charity of the Houston Astros. We seek to harness the passion of our fans to support youth sports and education programs, the recognition/honor of our nation's military, childhood cancer and domestic violence awareness and efforts to reduce homelessness. Our cornerstone initiatives include the Community Leaders program, the Astros MLB Youth Academy and the Astros RBI Program (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities).

The Astros Foundation hosts several marquee events throughout the year, including the Diamond Dreams Gala, Share2Care 50/50 Raffle, Safe At Home Luncheon & Style show, Badges & Bases H-Town Rundown, The MVP Coffee Series and the Astros Foundation /AT&T SportsNet Charity Broadcast.

ASTROS COMMUNITY LEADERS

MLB Commissioner Rob Manfred and Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane with the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, which was awarded to the Astros Community Leaders program in 2017.

Developed by Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane, the Community Leaders program seeks to provide the next generation of young athletes with the environment and resources they need to develop physically and mentally. Baseball and softball teach young players the importance of teamwork, perseverance and commitment, principles that will serve them not only on the field, but throughout their lives.

The Community Leaders program has grown significantly since its inception in 2013. Through the help of its generous corporate partners, the program now impacts thousands of children and their youth baseball and softball leagues throughout the city, providing additional resources, instructional player and coaching clinics, infrastructure enhancements, uniforms and equipment. The Community Leaders program has expanded its footprint and scope to include established community centers and youth programs throughout Greater Houston, and provides tens of thousands of uniforms and equipment to children at no cost.

For its efforts, the Community Leaders program received the 2017 Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, Major League Baseball's highest honor for the charitable efforts of its clubs.

ASTROS YOUTH ACADEMY
2801 VICTORY DRIVE, HOUSTON, TX 77088

A cornerstone of the Astros youth baseball and softball initiative is the Houston Astros Youth Academy, which provides free baseball and softball instruction, life-skills training and academic support to young athletes in the Greater Houston Area. The Academy's experienced staff members serve over 10,000 participants, year-round.

The Academy is also home to the Houston Astros RBI program, JrRBI program, summer camps and year-round clinics. Astros RBI, in it's sixth year as an Astros Foundation-run program, has already established a legacy of success, particularly the Astros RBI Softball Team, which has won consecutive national titles (2018-19). Additionally, the Astros RBI Senior Boys (2014-17) and Junior Boys (2015-18) each have four appearances in the RBI World Series.

Since 2014, over 150 RBI members have received baseball or softball opportunities to continue playing at the collegiate level. Since 2015, six RBI members have been drafted by Major League Baseball teams.

ASTROS FOUNDATION IN 2020

The COVID-19 pandemic presented the city of Houston with challenges that have not been seen in over a century. With thousands of people struggling, the Astros Foundation and its Volunteer Corps. stepped up to help when the community needed it most.

In 2020 alone, the Astros Foundation Volunteer Corps. logged over 10,000 hours of work in the community at various events.

From August through December, the Astros Foundation helped provide the Houston Food Bank with over 1 million pounds of food. Additionally, the Astros Foundation supported the Houston Food Bank and its efforts with a $100,000 donation to Alex Bregman's FEEDHOU campaign in April.

In April, the Astros Foundation made a $400,000 donation to support the hospitals within the Texas Medical Center to provide medical supplies and PPE (Personal Protective Equipment) to frontline healthcare workers. Additionally, the Astros Foundation and its volunteers partnered with the City of Houston, Project C.U.R.E. and Cheniere Energy to hold a PPE collection drive at Minute Maid Park to give back to the hospital system in Houston. All of the PPE collected supported first responders and municipal employees in Houston working in essential functions.

Later in the year, the Astros Foundation and Cheniere teamed up to host another supply drive, this time benefitting the communtiies in Louisiana impacted by Hurricane Laura. Over 60 pallets of supplies were donated, which filled two semi trucks and an additional box truck.

The Astros Foundation utilized the Bob Watson Education Center located at the Astros Youth Academy to provide free, socially-distanced support sessions for at-home technology to help adults and parents assist their children with the "new normal" of student learning. These sessions helped support participants from eight school districts in Houston.

ORBIT

MASCOT

Height: Can you really put a measurement on FUN?
Weight: A lot less in outer space
Species: Homerunus Spectacularus
Birthplace: Foul Territory of the Grand Slam Galaxy
Age: How long is a light-year?

Since rejoining the team in 2012 as the official mascot of the Houston Astros, Orbit has quickly become one of the most popular mascots in baseball and all of sports! During pregame, you can often find him giving a fun Astros "welcome" to some of baseball's top athletes such as Mike Trout, Aaron Judge, and Albert Pujols. During the game itself, be on the lookout for some of Orbit's signature shenanigans which can happen on the field or even right next to you in the stands.

Whether it's on the dugout, in the stands or on the field, Orbit's hilarious hijinks have garnered attention from some of the world's top media outlets, including ESPN, MLB Network, FOX Sports, CBS Sports, SB Nation, Yahoo! Sports, The Huffington Post, USA Today, E! Online, MTV, and GQ Magazine to name a few! Many of these performances can be found online, where their respective videos have collectively garnered nearly two billion views.

NOTES

- He's a World Series Champion!
- Starred in an ESPN "This Is SportsCenter" commercial
- Named the "Best Mascot in Houston" by the Houston Press three years running
- Three-time nominee of MLB.com's "Greatness in Baseball Yearly Awards" (GIBBYs)
- Two-time winner of the GameOps.com "Best Mascot" Award
- Selected as the only mascot to represent Major League Baseball's All-Star team in the 2014 Japan All-Star Series
- Winner of the inaugural "Mascot Madness" contest by Yahoo! Sports
- Voted "Sexiest Alien Alive" by Extraterrestrial Magazine

Orbit's contributions don't stop on the field. In the community, Orbit makes nearly 300 appearances a year! These include everything from public appearances such as community festivals and parades, to private events such as corporate events and birthday parties. Orbit also has been known to participate in a number of promotional stunts throughout the year, including taking on the BP MS 150 bike ride from Houston to Austin, rappelling down the side of the Four Seasons hotel, and tag-teaming events such as the Houston Marathon and the Cypress Triathlon with other Houston-area mascots. Additionally, Orbit offers a series of educational assembly shows, both in-person and virtually via Zoom video, geared toward elementary schools that cover topics such as literacy, anti-bullying, saying no to drugs, STEM and preparing for the STARR test.

In 2019, Orbit joined the team on their trip to Monterrey, Mexico, as they played the Los Angeles Angels as a part of MLB's International Series. This was Orbit's fourth international trip, including a trip to Japan (2014) and Mexico (2016) and Taiwan (2018).

In 2017, Orbit released his very first children's book, Orbit's First Day of School! The book covers topics such as making new friends, how to handle bullies, embracing differences, celebrating strengths and practicing respect. They are available for purchase exclusively at the Astros Team Store at Minute Maid Park.

ORBIT APPEARANCES

JIM CRANE

OWNER & CHAIRMAN

On Nov. 17, 2011, Major League Baseball unanimously approved the purchase of the Houston Astros by a group headed by Houston businessman Jim Crane, marking the beginning of an era of Astros baseball.

As Owner and Chairman, Jim Crane hit the ground running upon taking control of the Astros in 2011 by immediately putting his plan to rebuild the franchise into action. As a highly successful businessman in Houston and former standout college pitcher, Jim's credentials made him the perfect choice to build a winning team both on and off the field in Houston.

From the start, Jim was clear about his goals: to make the Astros a ballclub that can have sustained success at the Major League level by building a top-notch farm system and to provide Astros fans with an outstanding experience at Minute Maid Park.

In just six years, Jim Crane took the Astros from worst to first in spectacular fashion. Houston's farm system, which was ranked as one of the worst in baseball in 2011, recovered in a three-year span to be ranked as the best in baseball in 2014. Since then, that same farm system has produced multiple Major Leaguers and everyday players and has given the Astros the ability to pull off multiple trades, all signed off on by Crane, including the acquisitions of Justin Verlander in 2017, Gerrit Cole in 2018 and Zack Greinke in 2019.

Buoyed by promotions and acquisitons, the Major League club went from a 111-loss season in 2013 to ultimately winning its first World Series Championship in 2017. The club has continued to produce at the highest level, as the Astros posted 100-plus wins in three consecutive seasons (2017-19). In 2019, the Astros set a franchise record with 107 regular season wins and won the American League pennant, their second in a three-year span.

In order to make the experience at Minute Maid Park one of the best in baseball, the Astros have made several large-scale renovations to the ballpark under Jim's leadership. The multi-million-dollar investment in center field, the addition of the Astros Hall of Fame Alley and the renovations and enhancements to the ballpark's suites were the most recent innovative updates that showcase Jim's commitment to making Minute Maid Park a great destination for fans of all ages.

Jim recognized the need for a new Astros Spring Training facility and successfully moved the team to West Palm Beach in 2017, where players and fans now enjoy a first-class, state-of-the-art facility, FITTEAM Ballpark of the Palm Beaches. Through a partnership, Jim also purchased an office building five miles from the Spring Training facility and had it re-developed into a Hilton Garden Inn branded hotel which serves the public as well as Astros players, staff and families.

He also successfully brokered the purchase of the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks in 2015 and was closely involved with the acquisition of a Class A Advanced affiliate in the Carolina League in 2017. In 2019, that team had a new stadium built in Fayetteville, N.C., and a new nickname, Fayetteville Woodpeckers. Ballpark Digest recognized the Woodpeckers' brand with the 209 Logo/Branding of the Year Award in 2019. Additionally, Jim continued to add to the Astros minor league system this offseason, acquiring the Sugar Land Skeeters franchise to serve as the Astros Triple A affiliate. The deal is scheduled to be finalized prior to the start of the Triple A season.

Under Jim's leadership, the Astros have supported several of MLB's diversity initiatives, including MLB's eighth annual Civil Rights Game and ancillary activities as well as MLB's Diversity Summit, a sports employment and business opportunity career and trade fair. Houston has twice hosted the Urban Invitational, a nationally-televised collegiate baseball tournament designed to give HBCUs and their baseball programs national exposure, as well as the Breakthrough Series, a collegiate and professional scouting showcase featuring a diverse group of top high school players in the country.

Passion for the Game

Jim hails from St. Louis, Mo. where he became a loyal, spirited fan of the St. Louis Cardinals. As a teenager, he caddied for members of the Cardinals team at local golf clubs and parked cars for patrons at Cardinals games. Jim was impressed by the Cardinals' caring, family atmosphere and the team's close ties with the local community. He has carried these values forward throughout his life in business, philanthropic and personal relationships.

As a young man, Jim put his innate passion for baseball into action at Central Missouri State University (now the University of Central Missouri), where he was a standout pitcher for the Mules from 1973-76 under the late, revered coach, Robert Tompkins. Jim still holds the Mules' single-game strikeout record with 18, and in 1997, was inducted into the Central Missouri State University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Jim was the primary underwriter of a $1.2 million renovation in 1998 of the old Mules Field on the University of Central Missouri campus. On Jan. 21, 1998, the facility was renamed the James R. Crane Stadium/Robert N. Tompkins Field in honor of Jim and his beloved coach. Jim continues to contribute to the college annually to provide athletic scholarships for Mules baseball. On Jan. 29, 2017, Jim was enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame for his outstanding pitching career at the University of Central Missouri, his generous donations to UCM baseball and his successful efforts in rebuilding the Houston Astros franchise.

Whitney and Jim Crane

Jim earned a Bachelor of Science degree in industrial safety from Central Missouri State University in 1976. This led to a loss-control job evaluating commercial risks for an insurance company and then a move to Houston in 1982, where he entered the freight forwarding business.

Success in the Business World

In March of 1984, at the age of 30 and with $10,000 borrowed from his sister, Jim founded Eagle USA Airfreight (EGL, Inc.). In his first office located in Houston with a sole employee, Jim handled the loading and trucking himself. The company made money in its first month, and Jim ultimately built it into an organization of more than 10,000 employees with 400-plus facilities in 139 countries. EGL was named one of Houston's "Best Places to Work," and reached No. 599 on the Fortune 1000 list during Jim's tenure. Jim has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. The company was acquired in an LBO transaction in August 2007.

In August of 2008, Crane formed Crane Worldwide Logistics (CWL), a premier global provider of customized transportation and logistics services. CWL continues to grow rapidly with experienced members of Crane's management team and sales force at the helm.

Jim's love of baseball is unabated, and he has added the game of golf to his athletic endeavors. He acquired the Floridian, a private golf resort in Palm City, Fla., in 2010. In 2017, Jim ventured into the restaurant business and opened Osso & Kristalla and Potente named after his children. In 2018, he also took ownership of the Houston Open, the PGA TOUR tournament that was in danger of leaving the city. The tournament is operated under the Astros Golf Foundation and will transition to the Memorial Park Golf Course in 2020.

Jim also acquired Davaco, a leader in high-volume remodels and technology deployments for global brands. He then started a software company, Modiant, as well as Crane Safety, a commercial safety supply company.

Stepping Up and Giving Back

As Astros Owner and Chairman, Jim has embraced the opportunity to give back to the City of Houston and beyond.Since he took ownership of the club, the Astros Foundation has donated and invested over $50 million into the Houston community and beyond.

Jim Crane at the 2020 Houston Open

In April of 2020, during the early stages of the pandemic, Jim stepped up to connect the Astros Foundation with Crane Worldwide Logistics, which resulted in millions of medical supplies being delivered to Houston hospitals within the Texas Medical Center. The goal of the partnership was to provide funding, logistics and transportation support for much-needed medical supplies and Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) being used by healthcare professionals to treat COVID-19 patients.

Jim also connected the Astros Foundation and Crane Worldwide with Astros players Carlos Correa and Martin Maldonado plus other MLB players from Puerto Rico to assist with delivering medical supplies to the island. In that endeavor, the Astros Foundation and Crane Worldwide covered 100% of the freight and transportation costs and also coordinated the logistics to get those much-needed medical supplies to Puerto Rico.

Additionally, the Astros Foundation has partnered with the City of Houston to use Minute Maid Park as both a COVID-19 testing site and as a vaccination site.

In the immediate aftermath of Hurricane Harvey, Jim and the Astros ownership group were among the first to pledge $4 million to relief efforts. Jim also facilitated the shipment of more than 240,000 pounds of disaster relief supplies to Puerto Rico, where he was instrumental in transporting families of Astros and other MLB players, as well as hospitalized patients in critical condition, to safety.

In 2018, when the City of Houston was in danger of losing the Houston Open golf tournament, Jim helped establish the Astros Golf Foundation to ensure that the historic, PGA Tour tournament would remain in Houston. As a result, since 2019, the Houston Open has been presented by the Astros Golf Foundation and has had a tremendous impact on the Houston community. The Astros Golf Foundation spearheaded a $34 million renovation to Memorial Park Golf Course, which now plays host to the Houston Open. One of the key goals of the Astros Golf Foundation is to provide much-needed resources and funds to the citizens and community of Houston through park improvements, charitable fundraising and investing in youth programs.

Jim is committed to providing local children the opportunities he feels baseball afforded him in his youth. One of his first initiatives after purchasing the Astros was the creation of the Astros Community Leaders program, which won MLB's prestigious Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence in 2017. As part of the program, a multi-million-dollar partnership was formed with the City of Houston's Parks and Recreation Department and included participation from several corporate partners, whose financial donations supported the field refurbishments, year-round maintenance, league programming and uniforms. Now, tens of thousands of young athletes receive free uniforms, equipment, tickets to Astros games and professional instruction through the Community Leaders program. The parents, coaches and league participants also benefit from different types of clinics through the Community Leaders program, attending clinics on coaching, groundskeeping, nutrition, education, and much more.

"Baseball was very important to my development," Jim said. "Playing baseball made me a lot more confident and comfortable in my ability to achieve things. I'd like to be able to help more kids get the opportunities that I had through baseball."

Jim has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. In 2019, Jim was recognized as the MD Anderson "Living Legend" and was also presented with the Ben Taub Humanitarian Award at their Jubilee of Caring event. He also won the 2019 Houston Sports Award Executive of the Year award. In May of 2018, he received the Public Service Award from the American Leadership Forum and was also inducted into the St. Louis Sports Hall of Fame where he received the August A. Busch, Jr. Award. On November 1, 2018, Jim was inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame and in December 2018 received the Jack Buck Award from the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis, Missouri.

JAMES CLICK

GENERAL MANAGER

James Click was named the 13th General Manager in Astros franchise history on Feb. 3, 2020. In his role, he oversees all aspects of the baseball operations department.

The 2020 season was a memorable one for the first-year General Manager Click. Despite many challenges, the Astros success on the field continued under him as the club advanced to within one win of a return to the World Series. The 2020 Astros became just the third AL team ever to appear in four consecutive League Championship Series.

In addition to joining the organization late in the offseason, Click navigated through several other challenges in his first season in Houston, including dealing with a rash of injuries to key players as well as the unprecedented responsibility of running baseball operations during a pandemic.

Shuffling the roster became a daily occurrence for Click and his staff as the club was forced to place 20 different players on the Injured List to due injuries or COVID-related issues. As a result, the Astros used a club-record and MLB-high 15 rookie pitchers during the season, 10 of whom made their Major League debuts in 2020. Despite the roster obstacles, the Astros perservered, qualifying for the postseason and earning series victories in the Wild Card round vs. Minnesota and the ALDS vs. Oakland before falling to the Rays, Click's former club, in a dramatic, seven-game ALCS.

Prior to being named Astros General Manager, Click, 43, was with the Tampa Bay Rays, where he most recently served as the club's Vice President of Baseball Operations for three seasons (2017-19). Overall, Click's career with Tampa Bay spanned 14 years, originally joining the club as a Coordinator of Baseball Operations in 2006. He would later serve as the Rays Director of Baseball Research and Development and then as Director of Baseball Operations.

In his role as the Rays VP of Baseball Operations, Click was involved in guiding and overseeing all aspects of the baseball operations department. His areas of focus were research and development, strategic planning, and innovation, with particular attention on the Rays' efforts to create and maintain department-wide initiatives on player evaluation, player assessment, roster configuration, trade and contract negotiation, league relations, and staff management.

In his 14 years with the Rays, Click worked alongside several current decision-makers across the baseball landscape, including Dodgers President of Baseball Operations Andrew Freidman, Red Sox Chief Baseball Officer Chaim Bloom and current Rays Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager Erik Neander.

A Durham, N.C. native and graduate of Yale University (B.A., History), Click wrote for Baseball Prospectus for several years before joining the Rays. He and his wife, Ace, reside in Houston and have two sons, Sam and Nate.

PETE PUTILA

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Pete Putila (pronounced puh-TELL-uh) enters his 11th season with the Astros and his second as assistant general manager. In his role, Pete is involved with all aspects of baseball operations with a focus on player development, sports medicine and performance.

Pete joined the Astros organization in 2011 as a baseball operations intern. His responsibilities included assisting with administration across baseball operations, amateur scouting, pro scouting and player development. He was hired full-time to the position of baseball operations assistant in September of 2011 where his duties were expanded to include Major League advance scouting support.

In 2013, he was promoted to baseball operations coordinator where he began working in conjunction with decision sciences to integrate data, research and technology into player development processes across the Major and minor league levels. He also traveled with the Major League team in 2014 and 2015, conducting replay review.

In 2015, he was promoted to assistant director of minor league operations where he assisted in all aspects of Major and minor league player development and minor league operations. A year later in 2016 he was promoted to director of player development where he oversaw Major and minor league player development while assisting with the integration of scouting technology.

Pete is a graduate of West Virginia University where he received his bachelor's degree in sport management and served as the baseball team's student manager. A native of Carmichaels, PA, Pete and his fiancé Amethyst currently reside in Houston.

CRAIG BIGGIO

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GM

Hall of Famer and longtime Astros icon Craig Biggio is in his 14th season as a special assistant to the General Manager. In this role, Craig works in several areas, including with the baseball operations staff in its Major and minor league player development programs with special emphasis on instruction, the amateur draft and scouting, and Major and minor league talent evaluation. Additionally, Craig participates in the club's community development program.

On Jan. 6, 2015, Craig Biggio became the first player in Astros history to be voted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame after receiving 82.7 percent of the total votes from the Baseball Writers' Association of America. He was officially inducted into the HOF during the annual ceremony in Cooperstown on July 26, 2015. Craig was also inducted to the Astros Hall of Fame on August 3, 2019, as a part of the inaugural class.

The franchise career leader in hits, games played, runs scored, and at-bats, Craig retired at the end of the 2007 season following a stellar, 20-year career, all with the Astros. His No. 7 was retired by the ballclub on Aug. 17, 2008.

He finished his career with 3,060 hits, 668 doubles, 291 homers, 1,175 RBI, and a .281 career average in 2,850 games. He remains the franchise leader in several categories, including hits, doubles, games played and runs (1844).

A first-round selection by Houston in the June 1987 draft, Craig became the first Astro to reach the 3,000-hit plateau with a seventh-inning single against Colorado's Aaron Cook on June 28, 2007 at Minute Maid Park. His 3,060 hits rank 25th all-time, and his 668 career doubles are the 2nd-most of any right-handed hitter in Major League history (sixth all-time overall).

Craig's 20 seasons with Houston are a franchise record, and he also made a club-best 19 consecutive Opening Day starts. He is also the only player in Major League history to reach all of the following milestones: 600 doubles (668), 250 home runs (291), 2,700 hits (3,060), and 400 stolen bases (414). Craig and Cal Ripken Jr. are the only middle infielders (only 13 players all-time) to collect 3,000 hits and 1,000 extra-base hits.

Craig was named to a franchise-record seven National League All-Star teams, received five Silver Slugger Awards, four Rawlings Gold Glove Awards and was a member of six Astros playoff teams. Craig holds National League records for leadoff home runs with 53 (ranks second all-time) and for hits in interleague play with 201. He also led all players during the 2005 postseason with 18 hits.

Additionally, Craig was the 2007 recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award, a prestigious honor bestowed upon one Major League player each season by Major League Baseball and the Clemente family recognizing community service. Craig has been actively involved with the Sunshine Kids throughout his career, a support organization for children with cancer and their families.

Craig and wife Patty reside in Houston and have two sons, Conor and Cavan, and one daughter, Quinn. In 2010, Craig coached his sons' St. Thomas High School baseball team to the Texas Class 5A state championship. Both Conor (graduate '15) and Cavan (drafted '16) played baseball for the University of Notre Dame. Cavan was drafted by the Blue Jays and made his Major League debut for Toronto in 2019. On Sept. 17, 2019 in Baltimore, Cavan hit for the cycle, making he and his father just the second father-son duo to each hit for the cycle in an MLB game; Quinn is a member of the Notre Dame softball team.

ENOS CABELL

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GM

Enos Cabell is in his 17th season as a special assistant to the General Manager after being named to the post on Nov. 17, 2004. He had been serving as a consultant since joining the Astros front office on July 29, 2004. Enos assists General Manager Jeff Luhnow and the Astros scouting department in evaluating the Astros Major and minor league players, along with other projects and assignments within the scouting area.

During his 15-year Major League playing career, Enos played for the Astros from 1975-80 and 1984-85 and is in the top 10 in franchise history in several categories. In 1978, he was named the team's MVP after setting club records in at-bats (660) and games (162) and tallying a then-record 195 hits, which ranked third in the National League. He currently ranks tied for eighth on the club's all-time list in stolen bases (191) and tied for sixth in career batting average (.281).

Enos stole more than 30 bases for four straight seasons (1976-1979) while with Houston. In 1,688 career big league games from 1972-86, he hit .277 (1647x5952) with 60 home runs and 596 RBI. He started 149 games at third base for the 1980 National League West Champion Astros and played on two other division-winning clubs, the 1974 Baltimore Orioles and the 1985 Los Angeles Dodgers.

From 1991-94, Enos was an analyst on Home Sports Entertainment telecasts of Astros home games and from 1991-96, he hosted the weekly call-in show, Astros Report, on KCOH Radio. He was a member of the Texas Southern University's Board of Regents from 1995-2001 and served as interim athletic director for the school in 2000.

Enos is a graduate of L.A. Harbor Junior College in San Pedro, Calif., where he was an all-conference selection in baseball. He is a cousin of former Major Leaguers Dick Davis and Ken Landreaux. He and his wife, Ruby, make their home in Missouri City, Texas. Enos has three sons, Marcus, Stephen and Cordell.

EHSAN BOKHARI

SENIOR DIRECTOR, PLAYER EVALUATION

Ehsan Bokhari (first name pronounced Es-sen; last name Bo-kar-ree) joined the Houston Astros as Director of Research and Development in November 2018. A year later, Ehsan was promoted to his current role as Senior Director, Player Evaluation.

In his current role, Ehsan contributes to amateur, professional and international player evaluation. He previously oversaw all projects coming out of R&D, ensuring their quality and making certain that all baseball operations' consumer needs were met. Prior to joining the Astros, Ehsan previously spent four seasons (2015—2018) with the Los Angeles Dodgers' R&D team as a Senior Analyst---he was one of the original members of the Dodgers' R&D staff.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Ehsan was a Visiting Assistant Professor in the Department of Statistics at the University of Illinois for the 2014-2015 academic year. Also at the University of Illinois, in 2014 Ehsan completed a PhD in quantitative psychology and in 2011, an MS in statistics.

Ehsan earned his undergraduate degree in psychology and mathematics at the University of Arizona, graduating in 2009.

BILL FIRKUS

SENIOR DIRECTOR, BASEBALL STRATEGY

Bill Firkus joined the Astros in July 2013 and was named Senior Director of Baseball Strategy in 2019. Prior to his current role, Bill served as the Astros' Director of Sports Medicine and Performance for four years. Bill now oversees the team that advises Baseball Operations leadership on Major League roster management and in-game strategy. Prior to joining the Astros, Bill's work in the healthcare field included nearly three years in healthcare investment banking with Piper Jaffray and nearly four years in marketing and strategy with Medtronic, the largest medical device manufacturer in the world.

Bill received his bachelor's degree in finance from the University of Wisconsin, Madison and his MBA from the University of California, Berkeley. He resides in Houston.

CARIDAD CABRERA

DIRECTOR, LATIN AMERICAN OPERATIONS

Caridad Cabrera joined the Astros in January 2010 as the DR Academy administrator. She is now in her 12th season with the organization and third as Director, Latin American Operations. Caridad oversees all aspects of the Astros Latin American development and operations in addition to overseeing the administrative aspects of the Astros Academy in the DR. In addition to administrator, Caridad also served in the positions of Supervisor, Latin American Operations and Manager, Latin American operations.

Prior to joining the Astros, Caridad served as Analyst in the pledge's unit of the Dominican Ministry of Agriculture. Before that, she served as administrative assistant in EMC Abogados, handling all aspects related to human resources and payroll.

Caridad graduated, cum laude, from O&M with an engineering degree in computer systems and holds a master's degree in business administration (senior management) from INTEC.

CHARLES COOK

DIRECTOR, PLAYER EVALUATION

Charles Cook enters his fifth year with the Astros, and his second as Director of Player Evaluation. Charles previously held the roles of Baseball Operations Coordinator and Manager of Amateur Scouting Analysis for the Astros. In his current role, Charles plays a critical role in the amateur draft and drives the evaluation process for amateur players across both the domestic and international markets.

Charles is a 2015 graduate of Yale University, where he was a member of the baseball and football teams. As a student, he held a summer internship with the Astros business strategy & analytics department.

DERRICK FONG

DIRECTOR, MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

Derrick Fong joined the Astros in 2019 as the Director of Minor League Operations. Prior to joining the Astros in 2019, Derrick interned for the Minnesota Twins in 2005 and 2006, and hen spent more than 10 years with the Chicago Cubs, starting as a Community Affairs intern in 2008. From 2009 – 2013, he served as the Accounts Receivable/ Accounts Payable Administrative Assistant for the Cubs before transitioning to baseball operations as Minor League Administration Coordinator and Manager. In that role, he oversaw all transactions, budgeting and daily administrative operations.

Derrick, a native of Wilmette, Illinois, is a 2007 graduate of the University of Minnesota with a degree in Business, Marketing Education and Communications Studies.

SARAH GELLES

DIRECTOR, RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

Sarah Gelles, who joined the Houston Astros in November 2018, was promoted last year to her current role as Director of Research and Development. In this role, Sarah leads an R&D team that is central to the Astros' data-driven approach.

Prior to joining the Astros, Sarah served for three years as the Director of Analytics & Major League Contracts for the Baltimore Orioles. In that role, she oversaw the club's analytics department, led development of internal baseball operations systems, handled Major League roster management and rules compliance, and assisted the General Manager with player acquisitions, negotiations and other aspects of baseball operations.

Sarah began her career with the Orioles as a Baseball Operations intern in 2011 and served as Coordinator of Baseball Analytics from 2012-14. During that time, she built out the club's internal database infrastructure and oversaw an expansion of the use of data and analytics across baseball operations. She was promoted to Director of Baseball Analytics in 2014. Before arriving at the Orioles, Sarah worked for the Philadelphia Phillies, Pittsburgh Pirates, and Major League Baseball's Labor Relations Department.

A 2010 summa cum laude graduate of Amherst College, Sarah currently resides in Houston with her husband, Jonathan.

KRIS GROSS

DIRECTOR, AMATEUR SCOUTING

Kris Gross enters his ninth season with the Astros organization since joining the club as the team's West Coast Supervisor in 2012. Since he joined the Astros scouting staff, the club has produced more players (38) via the draft than any other Major League organization.

Promoted to the club's Director of Amateur Scouting role in 2020, Gross oversees the Astros Domestic Scouting operation. He works heavily on the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, but also spends time assisting in the International and Professional Scouting landscapes.

Prior to his current role, Gross has also served as the club's West Coast Supervisor (2013-15), National Supervisor (2016-17) and Domestic Scouting Supervisor (2018-19). In those roles, Gross assisted in the scouting of several high draft picks (RHP J.B. Bukauskas (1st round), RHP Corbin Martin (2nd), 3B J.D.Davis (3rd)) and several later-round picks to eventually make the Astros Major League roster (C Garrett Stubbs (8th), RHP Brandon Bielak (11th), IF Taylor Jones (19th)).

Gross played three seasons in the Cubs minor league system (2003-05), making 70 relief appearances in the rookie level and Class A levels. Following his playing career, he joined the Cardinals front office in 2008 and eventually served as the club's Upper Midwest Area Supervisor for three seasons (2010-12).

Gross holds a B.A. in Business from The University of New Mexico where he was a four-year varsity letter winner for the Lobos baseball team. A native of Lee's Summit, MO, Gross currently resides in with his wife Blair in Houston.

DEREK VIGOA

DIRECTOR, TEAM OPERATIONS

The 2021 season will be Derek Vigoa's sixth with the Astros organization. As the Director of Team Operations, Derek is responsible for Major League team operations, including travel and team services.

Derrick joined the Astros in 2016 as the club's translator, assisting Spanish-speaking players with media interviews. He was promoted to his current position in 2017.

Previously, Derek spent four years at Wasserman, working on sponsorship and business operations consulting with top brands and properties in the sports and entertainment space.

Derek holds a B.A. in Communication from The University of Pennsylvania. He was a four-year varsity letter winner for the Quakers baseball team as a shortstop and was named Big 5 Rookie of the Year in 2009.

MARCEL BRAITHWAITE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Marcel Braithwaite joined the Astros in 2012 and enters his ninth full season with the ballclub. As the Senior Vice President of Business Operations, Marcel runs the operational side of the organization. He oversees various departments and projects, including Stadium Operations and Engineering, Safety and Security, Guest Services, Facilities, and Food and Beverage provided by Aramark. As an operator that likes to roll up his sleeves, Marcel is involved in the daily meetings and coordination of each department and manages the club's Aramark contract and partnership in a similar, hands-on fashion. Since joining the Astros, Marcel has played a pivotal role in the many renovations and improvements to Minute Maid Park.

Marcel began his career in the logistics industry with Aeronet Worldwide in 1993 and then joined Eagle Global Logistics in 1995. Over the course of his career, Marcel worked his way up to senior leadership positions, finally serving in the role of Vice President of the Program Management Office, Americas for CEVA Logistics. In that position, he managed the shared services group responsible for third party vendor services to the company, as well as large scale strategic and transformational projects throughout the Americas driving shareholder value. Marcel was featured this year in American Builders Magazine, which highlighted his professional career.

Born in Rotterdam, The Netherlands, Marcel is fluent in Dutch and has lived in a number of locations throughout North America and Europe, including Canada, Seattle, southern California and now Texas.

MATT BRAND

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, REVENUE

Matt Brand joined the Houston Astros organization in 2011 and now enters his 10th full season with the ballclub. In his role as Senior Vice President Revenue, Matt oversees Ticket Sales, Corporate Partnerships and Special Events.

Prior to coming on board with the Astros, Matt spent 25 years in the supply chain industry, holding various executive sales leadership positions specializing in the retail, automotive, and energy sectors. While with Eagle Global Logistics, he served as Vice President of Sales for Asia-Pacific, living in both Hong Kong and Singapore.

Matt has served on the board of the Make-A-Wish Foundation for the Texas and Gulf Coast Region, the Baylor Sports Management Advisory Board, the General Motors (GM) Supplier's Council and was a member of the Petroleum Equipment Suppliers Association (PESA).

Matt was raised in Selah, Wash., and played baseball at Lewis & Clark State College. He and his wife, Casey, have two sons, Josh and Jake, and make their home in Houston.

TWILA CARTER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNITY AFFAIRS & EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, ASTROS FOUNDATION

Twila Carter enters her eighth season as Senior Vice President of Community Affairs and Executive Director of the Astros Foundation. She made the transition to baseball in 2011 after Jim Crane's purchase of the Astros franchise, but has worked with The Crane Group in various capacities since 1998. The Astros Foundation has received numerous awards and recognition during her tenure. In 2017, the foundation received the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, Major League Baseball's highest honor and recognition of the charitable efforts of its clubs. The award recognized the Community Leaders program, a cornerstone initiative that supports youth baseball and softball throughout Greater Houston. In 2020, Twila spearheaded several club initiatives that provided relief and support for those affected by the pandemic.

Prior to her current role, Twila served as the project manager for many of the recent Minute Maid Park renovations, including the Diamond Club, Union Station, Astros team stores, Astros Clubhouse and the Community Leaders Program. Twila has overseen the development of numerous projects for Crane Capital Group, including the building of the Crane Worldwide headquarters, which opened in April of 2012.

Twila has held numerous elected and appointed positions with several service and community organizations. She currently serves on the boards of Family Time Crisis and Counseling Center, AVDA-Aid to Victims of Domestic Abuse and the Texas Council on Family Violence. She was named one of the 2017 Top 30 Influential Women of Houston, the 2016 Inspire Women's Business Woman of the Year, 2014 Kingwood Women of Achievement for Community Service and received the 2013 State Community Service Award from the Texas Daughters of the American Revolution.

GILES KIBBE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, GENERAL COUNSEL & PRESIDENT, ASTROS GOLF FOUNDATION

Giles Kibbe serves as Senior Vice President and General Counsel for the Houston Astros, LLC. Giles has been General Counsel for all of Jim Crane's companies since February of 2010. His responsibilities for the Crane companies range from mergers and acquisitions, litigation, employment matters, contracts, real estate acquisitions and real estate developments to human resources.

In 2018, after Jim Crane took over control of the Houston Open, Giles was named President of the newly-formed Astros Golf Foundation and oversees all operations for the Houston Open. That included the $33 million dollar renovation of Memorial Park Golf Course to make it PGA Tour ready. In November of 2020, the Houston Open made a triumphant return to Memorial Park to positive reviews.

Giles is a graduate of Louisiana State University Law School (1993) and Lamar University (1990).

ANITA SEHGAL

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, MARKETING & COMMUNICATIONS

Prior to joining the ballclub, Vito held various tax management positions with companies such as KBR and Waste Management and public accounting positions with KPMG.

Vito received his undergraduate degree from Brown University and his Masters in Management from Northwestern University. He resides in League City, Texas.

GENE DIAS

VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS

Gene Dias joined the Astros in February of 2009 and now enters his 13th season with the ballclub. Prior to joining the Houston organization, he spent close to 20 years with the Philadelphia Phillies in both Media and Community Relations.

Following the 2017 season, Gene was named the recipient of the 2017 Robert O. Fishel Award for Public Relations Excellence. The Fishel Award goes to the "active, non-uniformed representative of Major League Baseball whose ethics, character, dedication, service, professionalism and humanitarianism best represent the standards propounded by Robert O. Fishel."

Gene plays a major role in baseball and business communications for the Astros and supports initiatives throughout the organization. He has guided his staff through five of the last six postseasons, including Houston's first World Series Championship in franchise history in 2017 and it's AL Pennant-winning run in 2019. Since 2017, the Astros have played more postseason games (57) and have the most postseason wins (33) of any club in baseball.

In 2017, the Astros also received the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence in recognition of the Houston Astros Community Leaders program. Additionally, Gene and his staff oversaw the Hall of Fame inductions of Craig Biggio (2015) and Jeff Bagwell (2017), who were the first two Astros ever to reach Cooperstown. The Astros' Communications team assembled far-reaching media campaigns for each player.

From 1989 to 2008, Gene worked for the Phillies, first as an intern in the ticket sales office before joining the Media Relations staff full-time. After serving as Media Relations Manager, he was promoted to Director of Community Relations in 2000, where he was instrumental in creating a number of community-based programs and events, many of which are still in place today. Gene also helped to grow the club's footprint in the community through increased media coverage and by increasing the dollars raised for the club's charity. He was also successful in increasing the player's community involvement and was a member of the Phillies Charities, Inc. Board of Directors. In 2003, the Phillies received the prestigious Philadelphia Sports Congress Community Service Award for the first time. Prior to joining the Phillies, Gene worked as a sports editor for Associated Newspapers in Stoughton, Mass.

Throughout his career in baseball, Gene has worked with Major League Baseball, assisting with the media relations duties at several World Series, League Championship Series and All-Star Games. Gene is also currently a board member of the Houston Chapter of the NAACP and volunteers his time to assist with the charitable efforts of the Astros Foundation.

Gene received his Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism from the University of Massachusetts where he was a member of the varsity baseball team. He and his wife Kandee live in Kingwood, Texas, with their two children, son Maxwell (20) and daughter Sydney (15). Maxwell is a sophomore on the University of New Orleans baseball team.

VICE PRESIDENT, FOUNDATION DEVELOPMENT

The 2021 season marks Marian Harper's 31st with the Astros. As Vice President of Foundation Development, Player Engagement and Family Relations, she helps manage programs and fundraising for the Astros Foundation, the official team charity of the Astros. She was instrumental in the development of the Astros MLB Youth Academy, a cornerstone program of the Astros Foundation.

Marian assists with the team's community relations efforts, which includes organizing the Astros players and wives programs as well as utilizing her extensive knowledge of local non-profit organizations and her dedication to the Houston community. Marian also works to further develop the Astros Alumni Association.

Marian serves on the board of directors for the Downtown Management District Board, the Ensemble Theatre and the Texas Southern University Foundation. She is also a member of the Astros Hall of Fame Selection Committee. She is a graduate of Leadership Houston and was honored with the prestigious Jimmy Wynn Toy Cannon Award for exceptional community service at the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame induction ceremony in 2007.

A native of Pittsburg, Texas, Marian started with the Astros in 1992 and rose through the ranks, starting as a promotions coordinator for the Marketing and Sponsorship departments, then as Director of Community Relations, working with players, alumni, fans, businesses and non-profit leaders. Over the past two decades, Marian has been a key executive for all of the team charities, fundraising efforts and outreach initiatives.

TOM JENNINGS

VICE PRESIDENT, MERCHANDISING & RETAIL OPERATIONS

Tom Jennings, the Astros Vice President of Merchandising and Retail Operations, is entering his ninth season with the organization.

In his role, Tom manages all aspects of the Astros Team Stores at Minute Maid Park. Over the course of his tenure with the club, Tom has led the Astros retail growth from the lowest-ranked in Major League Baseball to one of the top teams, which included winning the 2014 MLBPA Team Retailer Award. Tom's team is also responsible for the merchandising of the three Astros owned Minor League affiliates: Triple A Sugar Land Skeeters, Double A Corpus Christi Hooks and High A Fayetteville Woodpeckers. The work on the Woodpeckers brand and subsequent retail assortment led to the team being awarded the 2019 Best New Logo/Branding Award by Baseball Digest.

His team also oversees merchandising for the Astros Spring Training site in West Palm Beach, Fl, where they are in charge of purchasing product for both the Astros and Washington Nationals, the latter of whom shares the same ballpark.

Tom began his retail career in the buying office of Montgomery Ward in Chicago. He has spent time with May Department Stores, Home Shopping Network and Kohl's on their e-commerce side. He started his sports career by running the retail department for the Milwaukee Brewers with their concessionaire, Sportservice, where he helped the team achieve the MLB Retailer of the Year award in 2008.

Born in Hinsdale, Ill., Tom has lived in Pittsburgh (twice), Cleveland, Detroit, St. Louis, Tampa, Milwaukee, Chicago (twice) and Gary, Ind. where he went to high school and subsequently graduated from Indiana University in Bloomington, Ind.

Tom has two children, son Jack and daughter Quinn.

Jeff Stewart is in his ninth season with the Astros and in his second as the club's Vice President of Corporate Partnerships. Jeff assumed his current role in November of 2019 and now oversees the club's Corporate Partnerships Sales.

Jeff originally joined the Astros in March of 2013 as the club's Director of Sales and was in that role for four seasons (2013-16) before being promoted to Senior Director, which included managing the Astros Special Events sales staff.

Prior to joining the Astros, Jeff spent four and a half years as the Director of Corporate Alliances for Six Flags Fiesta Texas. He also had stops at various minor league affiliates throughout his career, including the San Antonio Missions (2006-08), the El Paso Diablos (2005-06), the Shreveport Sports Professional Baseball Club (2002-04) and the Burlington Indians (2001-02).

Jeff currently serves as board member for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF), having done so for five years.

A native of Moraga, CA, Stewart earned a BA in Sociology from Chico State University. He has one daughter, Lillian (11), and currently resides in West Houston.

JAY VERRILL

VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS STRATEGY & ANALYTICS

Jay joined the Astros in July of 2012 in the analytics department before being promoted to Vice President in August of 2020. In his current role as Vice President, Business Strategy & Analytics, Jay provides data analysis and strategic planning support across business units. His notable projects as a member of the Astros include the financial modeling of the Minute Maid Park $18M center field renovation project, the re-launching of the Houston Open tournament at Memorial Park, and creating a scoring model for ticket sales leads.

Prior to joing the Astros, Jay started his career in strategy consulting at Putnam Associates, Inc., which is located in Burlington, MA.

A native of Maine, Jay studied as an undergraduate at Tufts University, earning a BA in Economics, and then later earned his MBA at the MIT Sloan School of Management. He was co-captain of MIT Sloan Chiefs Hockey Team.

Jay has served as a Big Brother with the Big Brothers, Big Sisters organization since 2007. He lives in Houston with his wife and one-year-old daughter.

JASON WOODEN

VICE PRESIDENT, MARKETING

Jason Wooden joined the Astros in December 2015 and enters his sixth season with the ballclub as Vice President of Marketing. In his role, Jason oversees the marketing and advertising aspects of the organization through the development of core strategic campaign initiatives and media planning as well as creative services and overall content strategy.

Jason started his professional career at Academy Sports + Outdoors and spent 12 years in various roles within the company before joining the Astros. In his most recent role at Academy as Media Director, Jason oversaw the strategic planning and execution of print, TV/radio media buying and commercial production. He also served as Regional Promotions Director and was responsible for developing key sponsorships and partnerships both at the grassroots and professional levels.

Jason is a graduate of Texas Christian University where he earned a BFA in graphic design. He currently resides in West Houston with his wife and two children. Jason is a longtime Houston resident and Astros fan.

JEFF BAGWELL

COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

Jeff Bagwell, who was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2017 and the Astros Hall of Fame in 2019, was one of the greatest sluggers of all-time. In his current role as a community outreach executive, Jeff is an active member of the Houston Community, making public appearances and acting as an ambassador for the organization.

Over his 15 years with the Astros, Bagwell hit .297 with 488 doubles, 32 triples, 449 home runs, 1,529 RBI with a .948 OPS (.408 OBP/.540 SLG) in 2,150 games. The four-time All-Star and three-time Silver Slugger Award winner was the first player in Astros history to be named the MVP of his league (1994), as well as the first player to receive a Rookie of the Year Award (1991). The franchise leader in homers, walks and RBI, Bagwell was also known for his elite defense at first base, winning a Rawlings Gold Glove Award in 1994. He is the only first baseman in MLB history to record a 30-homer, 30-stolen base season, which he accomplished twice (1997, 1999). Under Bagwell's leadership, the Astros won four division titles and made the playoffs six times, reaching the National League Championship Series in 2004 and the World Series in 2005.

Bagwell serves as a guest TV commentator for select Astros games and will join the AT&T SportsNet broadcast crew periodically throughout the 2021 season.

JOSE CRUZ

COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

The 2021 season is the 38th with the Houston Astros organization for Jose Cruz, who is one of the most popular figures in franchise history.

Jose has served in several roles with the Astros during his long, distinguished tenure. In his current role as community outreach executive, Jose makes public appearances on behalf of the club and serves as an ambassador for the organization.

Prior to his current role, he spent five seasons as a special assistant to the general manager (2010-14). Prior to that, he was a Major League coach for 13 seasons (1997-2009).

On the field, Jose spent 13 of his outstanding 18-year Major League playing career as an outfielder with the Astros (1975-87). In that span, he developed into an All-Star and one of the most popular players ever to wear the Astros uniform. Nicknamed "Cheo", Jose held franchise records in games, at-bats, hits, total bases and triples at the time of his retirement. His 80 career triples remain the franchise record. In addition to his Astros career, Jose also played for the St. Louis Cardinals (1970-74) and the New York Yankees (1988).

Jose holds the distinction of being involved with the first nine of the Astros postseason appearances, three as a player (1980, '81 and '86) and six as a coach (1997-99, '01, '04-05). He was the Astros Team MVP four times and hit .300 six times in his career while stealing 317 bases.

Jose's uniform No. 25 was retired by the Astros on Oct. 3, 1992, along with former teammate Mike Scott's No. 33. They were the third and fourth numbers retired by the team. In 1999, Jose was selected by a panel of experts as one of the three outfielders on the franchise's All-Astrodome team. In 2003, he was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame. On August 3, 2019, Jose was inducted into the Astros Hall of Fame as a part of the inaugural class.

Jose and his wife, Zoraida, make their home in Houston and have four children: Jose Javier, Jose Cheito, Shakira and Jose Enrique. His son, Jose Jr., was the first-round selection (third player overall) of the Seattle Mariners in the 1995 June free agent draft. Jose Jr. graduated from Bellaire (TX) High School and attended Rice University. He led Bellaire to the number one national ranking by USA Today and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award while at Rice. Jose Enrique also excelled on the baseball diamond, helping to lead Rice University to a national championship in 2003 before being drafted by the New York Yankees in the 13th round of the 2003 June Draft.

MANAGER

Full Name: Johnnie B. Baker Jr.
Opening Day Age: 70
Bats/Throws: Right/Right
Born: 6/15/49 in Riverside, CA
Resides: Granite Bay, CA

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

First Base Coach, San Francisco Giants (1988); Hitting Coach, San Francisco Giants (1989-92); Manager, San Francisco Giants (1993-2002); Manager, Chicago Cubs (2003-06); Manager, Cincinnati Reds (2008-13); Manager, Washington Nationals (2016-17); Manager, Houston Astros (2020-present)

Dusty Baker was named the Astros 19th field manager in franchise history on Jan. 29, 2020.

Baker's first season in Houston was a memorable one, as his 2020 Astros had an outstanding postseason run, falling just one win shy of a return to the World Series. The Astros were 8-5 in the postseason with series wins in the Wild Card round at Minnesota and the ALDS vs. Oakland. Making the club's performance even more impressive was that the club had to overcome a great deal of injuries to key players. The Astros were forced to use a club-record and MLB-high 15 rookie pitchers, including 10 that made their MLB debuts, in 2020.

When the Astros qualified for the playoffs, Baker once again made history, becming the first manager in MLB history to take five different teams to the postseason. Baker also managed the Giants (1997, 2000, 2002), Cubs (2003), Reds (2010, 2012-13) and Nationals (2016-17) into the playoffs.

In his illustrious career, the future Hall of Famer Baker has amassed 1,892 managerial victories in the regular season, which ranks 15th all time, immediately trailing Hall of Famer Bill McKechnie (1,896) by just four wins. He is also in strking distance of Gene Mauch (1,902) and Casey Stengel (1,905) on the all-time list. In the postseason, Baker is now 31-37 all time, and has guided three teams to the LCS.

A three-time NL Manager of the Year (1993, 1997, 2000), Houston is Baker's fifth managerial stop. His previous four were with San Francisco (1993-2002), Chicago (2003-2006), Cincinnati (2008-2013) and Washington (2016-17).

An All-Star, Gold Glove, Silver Slugger, and World Series winner during his 19-year playing career, Baker has produced 10 Postseason teams during his 23-year managerial career, including seven division championships (San Francisco, 1997 & 2000; Chicago, 2003; Cincinnati, 2010 & 2012; Washington, 2016 & 2017), and three wild card appearances (San Francisco, 2002; Cincinnati, 2013; Houston, 2020).

Baker has World Series experience as a player, coach and manager, having played in the Fall Classic in 1977, 1978 and 1981 with the Dodgers. He later returned to the World Series as a coach for the 1989 Giants and later as their manager in 2002, clinching the National League pennant over the St. Louis Cardinals in five games, before falling in seven games to the Anaheim Angels. Baker also managed the Giants to a 103-win season in 1993, falling one game shy of the postseason in what was MLB's final full season without a Wild Card.

Baker finished his Giants managerial career with 840 victories in San Francisco, which ranks third in club history. Following his stint with the Giants, Baker served as Cubs manager for four seasons (2003-06), where he enjoyed early success as well. Despite inheriting a club that had finished with a 67-95 record the previous season, Baker guided the Cubs to the NL Central Division title in 2003 with an 88-74 mark. That club would ultimately fall just one win shy of reaching the World Series, falling to the Marlins in the NLCS in seven games. His 2003-04 Cubs teams were the first to post back-to-back winning records in Chicago since 1971-72.

A successful six-year stint in Cincinnati would follow, as he guided the Reds to three playoff appearances, including two NL Central Division titles. In his last stint as a manager with the Nationals (2016-17), Baker won back-to-back NL East titles.

Baker is also one of only two in MLB history to produce at least 1,800 hits as a player and win at least 1,800 games as a manager, joining Joe Torre on that list. A six-time All-Star (twice as a player: 1981 & 1982; three times as a member of the coaching staff: 1994, 1997 & 2001; once as manager: 2003), Baker has had success at every managerial stop in his career. His teams have finished first or second 15 times in his 23 years, and Baker is just the 12th manager in MLB history to win 90-plus games on 10-or-more occasions (Elias).

As a player, Baker tallied 242 home runs and 1,031 RBI in his 19-year career (2,039 games) that included stops with the Atlanta Braves (1968-1975), Los Angeles Dodgers (1976-1983), San Francisco Giants (1984) and Oakland Athletics (1985-1986). Baker finished in the top 10 in MVP voting twice (1980 & 1981), and won two Silver Slugger Awards, a Gold Glove, and earned two All-Star selections.

Early in his career, as an everyday player with the Braves in the 1970s, Baker found himself hitting fifth, behind Hank Aaron, during the historic 1973 and 1974 seasons as Aaron closed in on the the all-time HR record.

Baker played in four postseasons (1977, 1978, 1981 & 1983), which included three World Series (1977, 1978, 1981). He earned the NLCS MVP award with the Dodgers in 1977, hitting .357 with a .438 on-base percentage an .837 slugging percentage, two home runs and eight RBI in four games against Philadelphia), and a World Series ring, playing left field for the 1981 Dodgers.

Born Johnnie B. Baker Jr. on June 15, 1949 in Riverside, CA, "Dusty" Baker currently resides in California with his wife, Melissa, and has two children, Natosha and Darren. A 1967 graduate of Del Campo High School in Carmichael, Calif., Baker attended American River College in Sacramento, Calif.

JOE ESPADA

19

BENCH COACH

Full Name: Josue Espada
Opening Day Age: 45
Bats/Throws: Right/Right
Born: 8/30/75 in Santurce, PR
Resides: Jupiter, FL

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Third Base Coach, Miami Marlins (2010-13); Third Base Coach, New York Yankees (2015-17); Bench Coach, Houston Astros (2018-present)

Joe Espada was named the Astros bench coach on Nov. 6, 2017.

The 2021 season is his fourth with the Astros and his 11th overall on a Major League coaching staff. In addition to his bench coach responsibilities, Joe also serves as infield coach and has mentored some of the game's brightest stars, including Jose Altuve, Alex Bregman and Carlos Correa. Additionally, under Espada's tutelage, the Astros have utilized more defensive shifts than any other Major League club. In 2020, the Astros .991 team fielding pct. was tops in the Majors.

Prior to joining the Astros, Espada spent four seasons (2014-17) in the New York Yankees organization, first, as a professional scout in 2014, and then as third base coach from 2015-17. During his Yankees coaching tenure, the Yankees earned two playoff berths (2015 & 2017), advancing to the ALCS in 2017.

A native of Santurce, Puerto Rico, Espada attended the University of Mobile (Ala.), where he still owns the school's top two single-season batting averages (.468 in 1995 and .446 in 1996) and top overall career batting average of .442. Drafted in the second round in the 1996 MLB Amateur Draft by the Oakland Athletics, Espada enjoyed a 10-year playing career, playing in the Oakland (1996-2000), Florida (2001), Colorado (2001), Kansas City (2002), St. Louis (2003), Texas (2003), and Tampa Bay (2004) organizations.

After retiring as a player, Espada his coaching career, which began with the Marlins in 2006. There, he coached from 2006-13, serving as a hitting coach for Class A Greensboro (2006) and Class A Jupiter (2007), the Marlins infield coordinator (2008-09), and the Marlins Major League third base coach from 2010-2013.

Espada is married to Dr. Pamela Espada and the couple has two daughters, Eliana Marie and Viviana Elena. During his off-seasons, Joe has given back to Puerto Rico both on and off the field. He managed in the Puerto Rican Winter League for Carolina (2014-15) and Manati (2012-13) and coached third base for Team Puerto Rico in the 2013 and 2017 World Baseball Classics. Active in the community both in Puerto Rico and in Houston, Espada has given countless clinics to youth baseball groups, including at the Astros Youth Academy. Espada has also been involved in various Houston charities, and enjoys spending time with his family.

BRENT STROM

PITCHING COACH

Full Name: Brent Terry Strom
Bats/Throws: Right/Left
Born: 10/14/48 in San Diego, CA
Resides: Tucson, AZ

Pitching Coach, Houston Astros (1996); Pitching Coach, Kansas City Royals (2000-01); Pitching Coach, Houston Astros (2014-present)

Brent Strom is unquestionably regarded as one of the best pitching coaches in Major League Baseball. He's praised as an expert in pitching mechanics with an ability to relate to pitchers of all ages and improve their performance through rigorous preparation and advanced game plans. Because of Strom, a countless number of pitchers have excelled after arriving in Houston.

The 2020 season may have been Strom's most challenging yet, due to the rash of injuries that hit the Astros staff. In 2020, the Astros were forced to use an MLB-high 15 rookie pitchers, including 10 that made their MLB debuts. Despite their inexperience, the Astros staff helped the club earn a postseason berth. In the playoffs, Strom's young staff shined, going 8-5 with a 3.47 ERA as the club fell just one win shy of a return to the World Series.

Strom guided the Astros pitching staffs to 1,671 strikeouts in 2019 and 1,687 strikeouts in 2018, which are the two highest single-season strikeout totals in MLB history. In 2018, the staff was the best in the Majors, as they led the league in ERA (3.11), strikeouts, opponent average (.217), WHIP (1.10), starter's ERA (3.16) and bullpen ERA (3.03). Additionally, the 2018 Astros allowed just 534 runs, the fewest by an AL team in a 162-game season since the DH debuted in 1973. For his efforts, Strom was named Baseball America's 2018 MLB Coach of the Year.

Prior to rejoining the Astros in 2014, Strom spent six seasons (2008-13) with the Cardinals organization, serving as their minor league pitching coordinator (2012-13) and as a minor league pitching instructor (2008-11).

Strom first joined Houston as a minor league pitching instructor from 1989-95 before being elevated to Major League pitching coach in 1996. Prior to joining Houston, he was a minor league coach with the Dodgers (1981-86). He was also a pitching coordinator with San Diego (1997) and Montreal/Washington (1998-99, 2002-06).

His coaching career followed a pitching career that spanned 12 years (1970-81), including five MLB seasons with New York-NL (1972), Cleveland (1973) and San Diego (1975-77). He also pitched two minor league seasons in the Astros system (1979-80). Strom was the second pitcher to have Tommy John surgery (performed in 1978).

Prior to playing professionally, Strom attended USC, where he helped lead the Trojans baseball team to two NCAA championships. In 1970, he was a First Team All-American in his final season at USC. His professional career began after he was drafted third overall in the secondary phase of the 1970 draft by the New York Mets.

Strom is a member of the International Sports Group (ISG), a non-profit organization founded to grow the game of baseball across the globe, and has been participating in ISG clinics overseas for over 19 years.

Brent and his wife, Carrie, reside in Tucson, Ariz. Carrie was crowned Mrs. America in 1979, representing New Jersey. The couple has three dogs, one English bulldog (Macie Mae) and two French bulldogs (Angus and Virgil).

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Pitching Coach, Houston Astros (2021); Bullpen Coach, Houston Astros (2019-20)

Josh Miller, who served as the Astros bullpen coach the last two seasons (2019-20), has been promoted to Major League Pitching Coach in 2021 to work alongside Brent Strom.

This year marks his 15th season with the Astros and his third at the Major League level. Prior to joining the Major League staff, Josh spent the 2018 season as the organization's pitching coordinator. He also served as the Astros complex pitching coordinator for two seasons from 2016-17, overseeing the Astros pitching programs at their complex in West Palm Beach, Fla.

Josh began his coaching career in 2013 as a pitching coach at Rookie Level Greeneville, which followed a two-year stint as a pro scout for the Astros. He spent three total seasons as Greeneville's pitching coach, helping to lead the club to an Appalachian League Championship title in 2015.

A veteran of seven minor league seasons in the Phillies (2001-2003) and Astros (2005-08) organizations, Josh was originally drafted by Philadelphia in the 32nd round of the June 2001 draft out of North Carolina State University. During his 10 combined seasons in the minors and Independent leagues (2004-05, 2009-10), he posted a 67-55 record and a 4.01 ERA.

Josh makes his offseason home in Debary, FL with his wife, Danielle, and their children, Alexander and Abigail.

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Major League Coach, Houston Astros (2017); First Base Coach, Houston Astros (2018); Hitting Coach, Houston Astros (2019-present)

Alex Cintrón was named an Astros hitting coach on Nov. 21, 2018.

This is his third season in the hitting coach role, but his fifth overall on the Astros Major League staff. He spent the 2018 season as the club's first base coach and assisted in infield positioning.

In 2017, Cintrón worked as the Astros Spanish translator, advance scout and assistant coach. In that role, he assisted the Astros Spanish-speaking players with all matters, while working with the club's advance information department and assisting the Major League coaching staff. Cintrón spent a portion of the 2017 season on the bench as an active coach, first for a three-game stint in July and later in September once rosters expanded.

Cintrón spent two offseasons (2018-19, 2019-20) managing the Gigantes de Carolina in the Puerto Rican Winter League. He led his club to a 17-15 record in 2019-20 and a second-place finish in the four-team league. Additionally, Alex earned the League's Manager of the Year Award in 2018-19.

Cintrón had a professional playing career that lasted 16 years, from 1997-2012, which included parts of nine Major League seasons. He was originally a 36th-round pick by Arizona in 1997 and would make his debut with the Diamondbacks in 2001. He played parts of five seasons with the D-backs (2001-05), before finishing his career in Chicago-AL (2006-07), Baltimore (2008) and Washington (2009). He's a career .275 Major League hitter, including a great 2003 season with Arizona, in which he hit .317 (142x448) with 51 RBI in 117 games.

Born in Humacao, Puerto Rico, Cintrón is a resident of Houston and has run the Cintrón Baseball Youth Organization in the city since retiring from playing in 2012. He has one daughter, Alexandra.

Born: 12/5/88 in Atlanta, GA
Resides: Marietta, GA

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Hitting Coach, Houston Astros (2019-present)

Troy Snitker was named an Astros hitting coach on Nov. 21, 2018.

This will be Snitker's third season on the Major League coaching staff, but his sixth with the Astros organization overall. Prior to joining the Astros big club, he spent his 2018 season as the hitting coach at Double A Corpus Christi, where he was named the Texas League's Inaugural Mike Coolbaugh Memorial Coach of the Year, which is given to a Texas League figure who has shown an outstanding baseball work ethic, knowledge of the game, and skill in mentoring young players on the field.

Snitker originally joined the Astros in 2016 as the organization's rehab hitting coordinator and a coach for the GCL Astros. In 2017, he was the hitting coach at Class A Advanced Buies Creek and the next season, he was promoted to Corpus Christi.

Prior to joining the Astros, Snitker was a graduate assistant on the baseball coaching staff at his alma mater, the University of North Georgia.

The former catcher played two seasons in the Atlanta Braves minor league system (2011-12) before getting traded to Pittsburgh in 2013. He then played one season in the Independent Atlantic League (2013).

Snitker was drafted by the Braves in the 19th round of the 2011 draft after a highly successful two-year run at North Georgia. During his final season at the school in 2011, Snitker was named Peach Belt All-Conference after hitting .340 with a team-best six home runs and 44 RBI, while starting behind the dish in all 54 of the Saints' games.

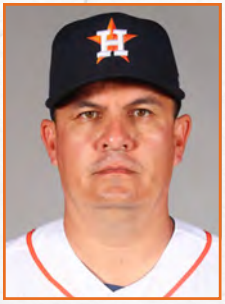

Snitker has a bachelor's degree in exercise science and a master's degree in physical education. He is also a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS).

Troy is the son of Atlanta Braves manager Brian Snitker, and is a graduate of Brookwood High School in Snellville, Ga.

OMAR LÓPEZ

FIRST BASE COACH

Full Name: Omar E. López
Bats/Throws: Right/Right
Born: 1/3/77 in Valencia, VZ
Resides: Orlando, FL

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

First Base Coach, Houston Astros (2020-present)

Omar López was named the Astros first base coach on Dec. 23, 2019.

The 2021 season is López' second on the Astros Major League staff, but his 23rd season in the Astros organization. He joined the Astros Major League staff after a successful two-year stint as manager of the Double-A Corpus Christi Hooks (2018-19). In 2018, López was named the Texas League Manager of the Year after guiding the Hooks to an 82-56 record and a spot in the postseason.

Overall, he spent 12 seasons managing in the Astros farm system. Prior to managing the Hooks, Omar had stints at Buies Creek (2017), Quad Cities (2013-14, 2016), Lancaster (2015), Greeneville (2011-12), the Gulf Coast League (2009-10) and the Venezuelan Summer League (2008). In 2013, López led Quad Cities to a Midwest League Championship title after an 81-57 finish in the regular season. That team featured 16 future Major Leaguers, including two current Astros in shortstop Carlos Correa and right-handed pitcher Lance McCullers Jr.

Additionally, López was named the Manager of the Year in the Venezuelan Professional Baseball League for the 2014-15 season after guiding the Caribes de Anzoategui to a league-best 39-24 regular season record and an LVBP Championship title in what was his first year as the club's manager. As a 38-year-old, López was the youngest manager in the league and became the third manager in the history of the Caribes club to win the prestigious award.

In 2010, López earned the Astros Player Development Man of the Year award, as he was credited with guiding the organization's Spanish-speaking prospects through their first year of professional baseball in the United States. Prior to starting his managerial career in 2008, López served as a hitting and infield instructor in the Astros Venezuelan program and was a full-time scout from 1999-2007. While in Venezuela, López was one of the scouts who recommended that the Astros sign Jose Altuve, who was a little-known, 16-year-old free agent at the time.

A native of Valencia, Venezuela, López played three seasons of minor league baseball with the Chicago White Sox (1996-97) and Arizona Diamondbacks (1998). He played his first professional season with Rookie Level Bristol in 1996, leading the club in walks over 55 games. In 1997 at Bristol, the third baseman hit .276 with 23 RBI while setting career highs in almost every category. He finished his career in 1998 with Arizona's Class A affiliate at South Bend.

López and his wife Helen reside in Orlando, Fla. They have two children, Omar Eduardo and Emily Gabriela.

GARY PETTIS

8

THIRD BASE COACH

Full Name: Gary George Pettis
Bats/Throws: Switch/Right
Born: 4/3/58 in Oakland, CA
Resides: San Clemente, CA

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

First Base Coach, Chicago White Sox (2001-02); First Base Coach, New York Mets (2003-04); First Base Coach, Texas Rangers (2007-12); Third Base Coach, Texas Rangers (2013-14); Third Base Coach, Houston Astros (2015-present)

Gary Pettis was named the Astros third base coach on Oct. 17, 2014. In addition to his third base coach responsibilities, Pettis is the club's outfield and baserunning instructor. Under Pettis' guidance, Astros outfielders have combined to post the highest fielding percentage in the Majors from 2017-20 with a .991 mark.

Prior to joining the Astros, Pettis spent eight seasons (2007-14) on the Major League coaching staff of the Texas Rangers. He spent his last two seasons (2013-14) with the Rangers as their third base coach after spending six seasons (2007-12) as the club's first base coach. Over those eight years, Pettis also served as the club's outfield and baserunning instructor.

Pettis also served on the Major League staffs of the New York Mets (2003-04) and Chicago White Sox (2001-02) as first base and outfield coach. Pettis began his coaching career as a roving minor league instructor for the Angels (1995) and White Sox (1997-2000), and later had a two-year stint as Milwaukee's Triple A hitting instructor (2005-06).

The former outfielder was a five-time Gold Glove winner during his 14-year Major League career with the California Angels (1982-87), Detroit Tigers (1988-89, 1992), Texas Rangers (1990-91) and San Diego Padres (1992). He amassed 354 career steals and stole at least 40 bases five times during his career, which included a pair of 50-steal seasons. His Gold Gloves came in 1985, 1986, 1988, 1989 and 1990, which made him the fifth player in Major League history to win a Gold Glove with three different teams.

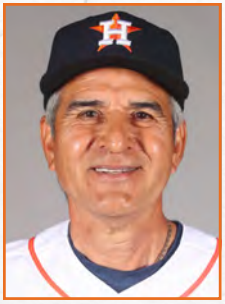

Pettis makes his offseason home in San Clemente, Calif., with his wife Peggy. The couple has two daughters, Paige and Shaye, and two sons, Kyler and Dante. Dante, who currently plays in the NFL for the New York Giants, was a second-round pick of the San Francisco 49ers in 2018 after starring as a consensus All-American wide receiver at the University of Washington. He owns the NCAA record for career punt return touchdowns with nine, including four in 2017. Kyler is a model and actor, who appeared on the television soap opera Days of Our Lives for four years (2015-18) and over 124 episodes.

DAN FIROVA

QUALITY CONTROL COACH

Full Name: Daniel Firova
Bats/Throws: Right/Right
Born: 8/16/56 in Refugio, TX
Resides: Laredo, TX

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Quality Control Coach, Houston Astros (2021); Bullpen Coach, Washington Nationals (2016-17).

Dan Firova was named Astros Quality Control Coach on Jan. 28, 2021.

Prior to being named to the Astros staff, Firova's previous Major League coaching stint was for two seasons (2016-17) as the Washington Nationals bullpen coach, under Dusty Baker, who was the club's manager at that time. The Nationals won the NL East in both 2016-17. In 2016, the Nats pen posted an MLB-best 3.35 ERA.

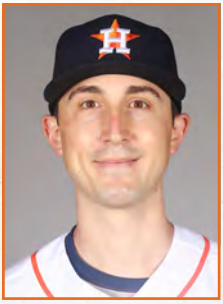

Prior to his stint with the Nationals, Firova enjoyed a long run of success as a manager for 19 seasons in the Mexican League, where he won three championships as skipper of the Mexico City Tigres (1997, 2000-01). His last managerial stop in the Mexican League was for two seasons with the Piratas de Campeche (2014-15). For his career, Firova won more games as a manager in league history than any other non-native of Mexico. He is fourth all-time in victories among all managers in the Mexican League.

A native Texan, Firova was born in Refugio and played several seasons of professional baseball as a catcher after being drafted by the Seattle Mariners in the second round of the 1980 January Draft (secondary phase). He would reach the Major Leagues for two brief stints with the Mariners in 1981-82, and for a one-game stint with the Indians in 1988.

Dan's hobbies include darts and basketball. He and his wife, Esther, reside in Laredo, TX. They have four children, Chanel, DJ, Joeandre and Ishmael.

ASST. PITCHING COACH

Full Name: William Murphy Jr.
Bats/Throws: Right/Right
Born: 11/13/89 in Summit, NJ
Resides: Palos Verdes, CA

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Assistant Pitching Coach, Houston Astros (2021).

Bill Murphy was named Astros assistant pithcing coach on January, 28, 2021.

This will be the first Major League coaching assignment for Murphy, who has been in the Astros organization since 2016. Prior to his current position, Murphy spent the last five seasons as a pitching coach and coordinator in the Astros minor league system.

In that span, he worked with several pitchers now on the Major League roster, including Framber Valdez, Cristian Javier and Brandon Bielak. Most recently, Murphy was the organization's pitching coordinator for the 2019-20 seasons. As a result of the pandemic, Murphy spent the 2020 season working with pitchers at the Astros alternate training sites and then worked with the Instructional Camp in Florida in October.

Murphy began his coaching career with the Astros organization as pitching coach for Rookie Level Greeneville in 2016. He then served as pitching coach for Class A Short Season Tri-City (2017) and Double A Corpus Christi (2018), respectively. He was named pitching coordinator in 2019.

Prior to joining the Astros, Murphy served stints as the pitching coach at Brown University, and co-manager and pitching coach for the Northwoods Collegiate League Battle Creek Bombers.

In 2013, Murphy was a volunteer assistant coach at Georgetown University, and also coached in the Cal Ripken Collegiate League with the Rockville Express. Murphy was a full-time coach at Roselle Catholic High School from 2010-11 and 2012-13, which included stints as the varsity pitching coach. He has also coached at the American Legion level (2011-12), and in 2012 was an assistant coach for the Middlesex Rays of the Atlantic Baseball Confederation Collegiate League.

Murphy graduated from Rutgers University in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in psychology and a minor in history. While at Rutgers, he was a pitcher on the baseball team for three years. Murphy received his MBA in management from Wagner College in Staten Island, N.Y., where he played first base during his final year of eligibility. Murphy graduated from Roselle Catholic High School in 2007.

MICHAEL COLLINS

MAJOR LEAGUE COACH

Full Name: Michael John Donald Collins
Bats/Throws: Right/Right
Born: 7/18/84 in Canberra, AUS
Resides: Phoenix, AZ

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Major League Coach, Houston Astros (2020-present)

Michael Collins is in his fourth season with the Astros, and his second as a Major League coach. He spent his first two seasons the Astros catching coach and bullpen catcher.

Collins joined the Astros in 2018 after a seven-year stint (2011-17) in the San Diego Padres organization, including a six-year run (2012-17) as a minor league manager. He last served as the manager in the Arizona Rookie League, holding that post for three seasons overall (2013, 2016-17). He also managed in the Dominican Summer League (2012), at Class A Fort Wayne (2014) and at Class A Lake Elsinore (2015). While with Fort Wayne, Michael led his club to a division championship and earned the Padres 2014 Jack Krol Award for his contributions to player development.

Additionally, Collins managed his hometown Canberra Cavalry team of the Australian Baseball League for six offseasons from 2012-18. In his six years on the job, he led Canberra to one Australian Baseball League Championship (2012-13) and two second place finishes (2013-14, 2017-18).

Collins is a former player, having played 10 years in minor league baseball with the Los Angeles-AL (2001-08) and San Diego (2009-10) organizations. He topped out at the Triple A level in 2009 and 2010, but had his best minor league season in 2005 at Class A Advanced Cedar Rapids. That season, Collins appeared in 100 games, hitting .320 (116x363) with 32 doubles, seven home runs and 64 RBI with an .894 OPS.

Following his minor league career, Collins played two seasons (2010-11, 2011-12) for Canberra before taking the reigns as the club's manager in for the 2012-13 campaign.

A native of Canberra, Australia, Collins originally signed as a 16-year-old minor league free agent with the Angels in 2001.

JEREMIAH RANDALL

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeremiah Randall was named the Astros Major League Head Athletic Trainer on Nov. 9, 2015. The 2021 season will be his sixth atop the Astros athletic training staff.

Jeremiah and his staff proved invaluable in 2020 as they oversaw much of the Astros COVID-19 safety protocols as the club navigated through a challenging season. Jeremiah oversaw the testing of players and staff, which became a daily occurance during the Astros extended playoff run. Not a single Astros player tested positive while with the Major League club during the regular season or postseason.

Jeremiah and his staff are recognized as one of the best in baseball, as the group was named the Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year in 2017, an award that's given out by PBATS (Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society) and voted on by training staffs from throughout the league.

Prior to joining the Astros, he spent the previous three seasons with the Pittsburgh Pirates serving as the club's Major League Rehab Coordinator and Physical Therapist/Assistant Athletic Trainer.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Jeremiah worked two seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers, serving as their Minor League Rehab Coordinator in 2010 and as their Major League Physical Therapist for the 2011 season. In addition to his time in Major League Baseball, Randall spent time as an intern in the NFL with the Seattle Seahawks and New England Patriots. He has also presented at several national sports medicine conferences and has contributed as an author to various sports medicine and rehabilitation textbooks.

Currently, he is the principal investigator for the testing of several functional upper extremity assessment tools for use in the overhead throwing athlete. In addition to his clinical research, he has co-authored several case studies that are under peer review for publication in the American Journal of Sports Medicine.

Jeremiah received his Doctor of Physical Therapy Degree in 2009 from the University of Miami (FL). While at the University of Miami, he conducted research involving active military members and aided in the development of the Comprehensive High-level Activity Mobility Predictor (CHAMP).

He received his undergraduate degree in biology from Tabor College in Hillsboro, Kan., and went on to the University of Kansas to obtain his athletic training degree. During his time at Tabor College, he was a three-year letterman in basketball and track and received all-conference honors in both sports.

Jeremiah was born in Mound City, Kan. He resides in The Woodlands, Texas, with his wife, Kelly, daughter Aliann and son Declan.

LEE MEYER

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Lee Meyer is in his third season on the Astros Major League staff as an assistant athletic trainer. He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist, a Licensed Athletic Trainer and a Certified Athletic Trainer.

Lee and the rest of the Astros training staff played a significant role in ensuring that the team followed MLB's COVID-19 safety protocols thoughout the 2020 season and postseason.

Prior to joining the Major League staff, Lee spent his last two seasons as the athletic trainer at Triple A Fresno (2017-18), where he was named the 2018 Pacific Coast League Athletic Trainer of the Year, as named by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society.

Lee joined the Astros organization in 2017 from the New York Yankees, where he spent seven seasons working as an athletic trainer in the club's minor league system.

Lee began his career in professional baseball at Class A Short Season Staten Island in 2010. He then went on to Class A Charleston (2011) before moving up to Class A Advanced Tampa for two seasons (2012-13) and Double A Trenton for three seasons (2014-16).

Lee also spent three offseasons as the head athletic trainer for the Cardenales de Lara in the Venezuelan Winter League.

Prior to landing a full-time position with the Yankees, Lee served internships with the Rockies and Pirates, as well as the Indianapolis Colts of the NFL and Walt Disney World.

Lee graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point in 2008, receiving his bachelor's degree in athletic training with a minor in Spanish. He then earned his master's degree in sport management at Minnesota State University, Mankato in 2009. In 2016, he received a Distinguished Alumni award from his alma mater, UW-Stevens Point.

A Beaver, Wis., native, Lee has completed multiple IRONMAN races over the years, raising over $10,000 in charitable donations. He speaks Spanish and now resides in Missouri City with his wife, Claudia, son Larry, and their dog, Lambeau.

JEFF LEWIS

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeff Lewis was named Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Astros Major League club in March of 2021.

This is his second season with the Astros organization. Jeff joined the Astros in January of 2020 as the club's Minor League Rehabilitation Coordinator. As part of his duties, he oversaw all minor league long-term rehabilitations. In 2020, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, he monitored minor league rehabilitations remotely, conducting frequent check-ins throughout the year. Jeff also collaborated with the strength and conditioning staff and with the sports science staff to enhance the rehabilitation process.

Jeff also played a significant role in the Astros health and safety protocol efforts in 2020. He served as the Infection Control Prevention Coordinator for the minor league player development camp held in West Palm Beach, FL in September-October. As part of his duties, Jeff coordinated the COVID-19 PCR testing schedule for the camp. He also ensured that the players and staff were educated on and compliant with heath and safety protocols on a daily basis.

Prior to joining the Astros, Jeff worked for the Cleveland Browns organization as a physical therapy intern for the 2019 NFL season. As part of his duties, he collaborated with the Browns physical therapist to develop and implement rehab plans for injured players.

Jeff earned both his bachelors degree in athletic training and his doctorate in physical therapy from Sacred Heart University in Fairfield, CT.

BRENDAN VERNER

MAJOR LEAGUE STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Brendan Verner is in his fourth season as the Astros Major League strength and conditioning coach.

This is his ninth season overall with the organization, as he spent the previous five years as the Astros strength and conditioning coordinator (2013-17) prior to joining the Major League staff in 2018. In that role, he worked out of the Astros Spring Training complex, while making trips to the Astros minor league affiliates.

Prior to his time with the Astros, Brendan served as the assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at the minor league level for San Diego from 2011-12.

Brendan spent two seasons as Cleveland's assistant strength and conditioning coach at the Major League level from 2007-08, where he assisted in coordinating the strength and conditioning evaluations of all minor league and Major League players. He also spent four years working as a strength and conditioning coach in the Cleveland and Pittsburgh minor league systems.

Brendan graduated from Cleveland State University in 2007 with a Master of Arts in exercise science, and received his Bachelor of Arts degree in P.E. and exercise science in 2004 from John Carroll University. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS), a registered strength and conditioning coach (RSCC) and a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

TAYLOR RHOADES

ASSISTANT STRENGTH COACH

Taylor Rhoades is in his second season with the Astros Major League staff as Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach.

Prior to joining the big club, he spent his last six years in the Astros minor league system, most recently serving as the club's Assistant minor league Strength and Conditioning Coordinator for two seasons (2018-19), working out of the Astros Spring Training complex in West Palm Beach, Fla.

Taylor originally joined the Astros in 2014 as the Strength and Conditioning Coach for the Class A Short Season Tri-City ValleyCats. He then moved up to Class A Advanced Lancaster in 2015, where he was named the Astros Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year. Taylor then served as the Strength and Conditioning Coach for Double A Corpus Christi in 2016 and Triple A Fresno in 2017.

Taylor, who played on the baseball team at Bowling Green State University, spent six months working as a graduate assistant in the university's strength and conditioning department, where he worked mainly with the Olympic sport athletes. Taylor also spent two summers working for the Class A Kane County Cougars of the Midwest League.

ALLY GALLOP

MAJOR LEAGUE DIETITIAN

Ally Gallop joined the Astros as the club's Major League Dietitian in March of 2020.

Ally serves as the nutritional resource for the Astros players, coaches, support staff and medical staff. As part of her duties, she coordinates and executes nutrition programming, which includes includes medical nutrition therapy and performance nutrition. Tracking the player's progress combines individual blood work, body composition, supplement, and hydration plans.

Ally is in charge of organizing home and travel nutrition and catering, which is challenging for all clubs with Major League Baseball health and safety guidelines that are in place. She also develops all educational handouts, social media content and webinars that are available to the players and staff.

Prior to joining the Astros, Ally served in multiple roles for the University of Utah from 2017-20. Most recently, she served as the Assistant Director of Sports Nutrition for her final two years there (March 2018-March 2020). In that position, she coordinated home and travel nutrition for the university's baseball, women's basketball, cross country, track and field, tennis, swimming and diving teams. As part of her duties, Ally also managed a staff and conducted student-athlete nutrition screenings and ongoing assessments.

Before her stint at the University of Utah, Ally served as Manager, Nutrition Communications for the New England Dairy & Food Council in Boston, MA, from June 2016 until October of 2017. Ally's past experience also includes a stint as a Research & Teaching Assistant at Tufts University in Boston and as a Clinical Dietitian at St. Paul's Hospital in Vancouver, BC.

Ally earned her bachelor's degree (Food, Nutrition, Health) from the University of British Columbia, and her masters degree (Nutrition Communication) from Tufts University. She is a Registered Dietitian in both the USA and Canada and is a Certified Specialist in Sports Dietetics (CSSD).

KATSUMI OKA

MASSAGE THERAPIST

Katsumi Oka has been the Astros massage therapist since the 2008 season.

Prior to joining the Astros, he had spent his previous 15 years as the director of the Ichigaya Branch of the Miyagawa Bonesetter's Office in Hyogo, Japan. Before taking over as the director, he spent 10 years with the office as a certified professional massage therapist.

Oka is a graduate of the Meiji School of Oriental Medicine in Osaka, Japan, and is a native of Hyogo, Japan.

JAVIER BRACAMONTE

BULLPEN CATCHER

Javier Bracamonte has spent the last 20 seasons as the Astros bullpen catcher, joining the club in that role in 2001.

In his role, Javier, who wears jersey number 85, travels to Spring Training and on every road trip assisting the coaching staff by catching bullpens, throwing batting practice and hitting infield practice.

During his time with Houston, Javier has taken part in five MLB All-Star Games, including the last two (2018-19) as the batting practice pitcher in the Home Run Derby for Alex Bregman. He also took part in the 2004 All-Star Game in Houston, catching bullpens and working pregame activities. He would pitch batting practice in the next two All-Star Games, throwing to Andruw Jones and Jason Bay in 2005 in Detroit and to Miguel Cabrera in Pittsburgh in 2006.

A former shortstop and second baseman, Bracamonte played at the New York Yankees Venezuelan Academy from 1988-90, which made him just the third Venezuelan to sign a professional contract after serving as a bat boy in the Venezuelan Winter League. He would join the Astros organization in 2001 after five years of giving private baseball lessons.

Born in Caracas, Venezuela, he now resides in Houston, Texas, with his wife, Katie, and his daughters, Jaelyn and Jade. His son Gustavo,currently works in the Miami Marlins ticket office.

CARL SCHNEIDER

CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Carl Schneider, who has been with the Astros organization since 1989, became the Astros clubhouse manager in 2011. While with the Astros, Carl has worked 11 Astros playoff runs, four All-Star Games (1998, 2003-04, 2018) and three World Series (2005, 2017, 2019).

In 2020, Carl was named the winner of the Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service to Baseball Award, named by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Additionally, in 2017, Carl was named the winner the Pete Sheehy Clubhouse Award (Clubhouse Manager of the Year), which is given out annually to a home and visiting clubhouse manager, and voted on by the MLB Clubhouse Manager's Association.

Carl, who is one of the longest-tenured employees in the organization, originally joined the Astros in 1989 as a bat boy and also handled clubhouse duties during the baseball season. He joined the home clubhouse staff full time in 1995 and would work in that role until assuming the clubhouse manager duties in 2011.

A Texas native, Carl currently resides in Houston with his wife, Emilie, and their sons Zachry and Max and daughters Amie and Madyson. Carl's oldest son, Zach, is currently a left-handed pitcher at Truman State University in Missouri.

STEVE PERRY

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Steve Perry has worked for the Astros organization since 1979 and has served as the visiting clubhouse manager since 1989.

Over the years, Steve has developed a fine reputation in Major League Baseball for his work. He is a three-time winner (2000, 2008-09) of the Pete Sheehy Clubhouse Award (Clubhouse Manager of the Year), which is given out annually to a home and visiting clubhouse manager. The award is voted on by his peers within the MLB Clubhouse Manager's Association.

He also earned the Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service to Baseball Award in 2013, named by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Steve joined the Astros as a bat boy at the start of the 1979 season, but by the All-Star Break was promoted to an assistant in the visiting clubhouse. He was named visiting clubhouse manager in 1989, and has filled that role since. During his Astros tenure, Steve has worked five All-Star games and 11 postseason runs.

Steve is fluent in Spanish, having spent several years of his childhood in South America after his father was relocated for work. He and his wife, Jessica, reside in Houston and have two daughters, Nicole and Amanda.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Towering left-handed hitter enters his third Major League season with Houston...is projected to begin the 2021 season fully healthy after undergoing arthroscopic surgery on both of his knees on Aug. 26, 2020.
- In 89 career games in the Majors, spanning the 2019-20 seasons, has hit .312 (100x321) with 26 doubles, 28 homers, 82 RBI and a 1.064 OPS (.410 OBP/.654 SLG).
- Was named the 2019 American League Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year...became the third player in Astros history to win the award, joining first baseman Jeff Bagwell, who won the National League award in 1991, and shortstop Carlos Correa, who won the American League award in 2015.
- Became the fifth Cuban native to win the Rookie of the Year, joining Tony Oliva (1964), José Canseco (1986), José Fernández (2013) and Jose Abreu (2014).
- His 27 home runs during his 2019 rookie season established a new franchise rookie record.
- Established a new Major League record for OPS by a rookie in a single season, with his 1.067 mark in 2019 (min. 350 PA)...bested the previous record of 1.058 that was set by Shoeless Joe Jackson in 1911.
- Set a Major League record for RBI in a player's first 45 career games with 51, surpassing Ted Williams' record of 47 set in 1939...also set a record for RBI within a player's first 30 games (35 RBI), surpassing Albert Pujols (34 in 2001).
- Hit three homers with seven RBI on Aug. 10 at BAL, becoming the youngest player in MLB history (2 years, 44 days old) with three homers and seven RBI in a game, surpassing Pat Seerey (July 13, 1945 at 22 years, 118 days old).
- Went 3x3 with a two-run homer in Game 5 of the 2019 World Series, becoming the youngest Cuban-born player to homer in the World Series, surpassing Jose Canseco...also became the fourth-youngest AL player to homer in a World Series game, behind Mickey Mantle, Jimmie Foxx and Tony Kubek.
- Hit .311 (288x927) with 56 doubles, four triples, 56 homers, 218 RBI and a .956 OPS (.395 OBP/.561 SLG) in 250 minor league games in four years prior to his MLB debut.
- Played in the SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game in 2017 and 2018.
- Was a Midwest League Midseason All-Star in 2017.
- Played for Las Tunas in Cuba's Serie Nacional from 2013-15.

NOTES

- After defecting from Cuba, Alvarez established residency in Haiti before signing with the Dodgers as an international free agent on June 15, 2016... signed by Dodgers scouts Ismael Cruz and Mike Toscar.
- Spent less than two months in the Dodgers organization and did not play in a professional game with them before being acquired by Houston in exchange for hard-throwing reliever Josh Fields... Fields posted a 2.61 ERA in three seasons with Los Angeles while Alvarez blossomed into one of the top prospects in baseball before debuting in 2019.
- The Astros scouts credited with the identification of Alvarez as an amateur include Charlie Gonzalez and Oz Ocampo.
- Shares the same clubhouse with fellow Cubans 1B Yuli Gurriel and IF Aledmys Díaz...grew up idolizing Gurriel, who was a star in the Cuban league during Alvarez's childhood...the two first met in Haiti while both were establishing residency prior to a move to the United States.
- Along with Gurriel, Díaz, Rogelio Armenteros and Cionel Pérez, Alvarez was one of five Cubans to play for the 2019 Astros...that club became the first team to play five Cubans in the same season since the 1969 Reds used IF Mike de la Hoz, RHP Camilo Pascual, IF Tony Perez, RHP Pedro Ramos and IF Chico Ruiz.
- On Sept. 9, 2019, became the first Astro to hit a homer into the third deck at Minute Maid Park, a towering blast off A's RHP Paul Blackburn...that shot landed in section 337, row 1, seat 18, which was commemorated with an orange seat in 2019.
- Enters his third Major League Spring Training...was a non-roster invitee in 2019...is currently signed to a one-year contract for the 2021 season.

2020 SEASON:

- Played in just two Major League games, going 2x8 with a homer and four RBI.
- Had his season delayed due to a positive COVID-19 test...began the year on the Injured List.
- Activated on Aug. 14 vs. SEA and homered in his first PA, a three-run shot into the Crawford Boxes... went back-to-back with Yuli Gurriel.
- Was placed on the Injured List on Aug. 18 with right knee discomfort.
- Underwent arthroscopic surgery on both of his knees on Aug. 26...a slight tear of the patellar tendon was repaired in his right knee, while his left knee received a routine cleanup...missed the remainder of the season.

2019 SEASON:

- 21-year-old was named the 2019 American League Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year, the Sporting News AL Rookie of the Year and was the MLBPA Players Choice Award recipient for the AL Most Outstanding Rookie...also named to the Second-Team All-MLB squad.
- Established a Major League record for OPS by a rookie in a single season with his 1.067 mark (min. 350PA)...surpassed Shoeless Joe Jackson's record of 1.058 set in 1911.
- Set a franchise rookie record for home runs in a single season (27), topping Carlos Correa's record of 22 set during his 2015 rookie season.

- Won AL Player of the Week honors for the week of June 9-15.

2013 SEASON:

- Went the entire season without making an error, breaking Rocky Colavito's club-record 212-game errorless streak that stretched over two tenures with the club from 1959-66.
- Finished tied for fourth in the AL with 11 outfield assists, the most by an Indians left fielder since Albert Belle (11) in 1996.
- Led the team with a .284 batting average and was third on the team with 73 RBI (career-high).
- Ranked third in the AL in batting w/RISP (.375).
- On June 19 vs. KC, had his first career multi-HR game.
- Set new single-game career-highs in total bases (10), extra base hits (3) and RBI (5) on July 7 vs. DET.
- Collected four straight three-hit games from Sept. 22-26, the first Indians batter to do so since Kenny Lofton in June of 1995...also became the first Indians hitter since 1959 (Minnie Minoso) to have four straight games with at least three hits and one RBI.

2012 SEASON:

- Batted .288 with 37 doubles and 60 RBI in 149 games.
- Was the toughest batter to strikeout in the AL (9.2% strikeout rate)...struck out just 56 times in 609 plate appearances.
- Made all of his appearances in the Majors in center field after a Spring Training injury to Grady Sizemore...started 140 games in center field.
- Posted a career-high 22-game hitting streak from from May 20-June 15, the longest by an Indians hitter in 2012...was the second-longest streak in the Majors in 2012 and the longest by an Indians hitter since May of 2007 (Casey Blake, 26 games).
- Started one of the final 9 games of the year due to a strained right groin....underwent surgery to repair a sports hernia on Oct. 11.

2011 SEASON:

- Played in 114 games in the Majors before right wrist and hand problems ended his season on Aug. 22.
- OPENING DAY: Made his second Opening Day roster.
- Placed on the 60-day DL on Aug. 23 and underwent right hand surgery at the Cleveland Clinic (Dr. Thomas Graham) on Aug. 31 to remove a fractured hamate bone in his right hand.

2010 SEASON:

- Was the club's Opening Day left fielder and made three stints in the Majors with Cleveland, playing in 72 games.
- Finished seventh among AL rookies in runs (38), eighth in hits (73), tied for third in triples (3) and tied for second in steals (10).
- OPENING DAY: Made his first-career Opening Day roster
- Hit his first Major League home run on July 8 at TB off Wade Davis to lead off the game.
- Posted a career-best 19 game hitting streak from Aug. 30-Sept. 19...tied for the fourth-longest streak in the AL during the season...was the longest hitting streak by an Indians rookie since Larry Doby (21 games) in 1948 and the longest overall since Casey Blake in 2007 (26 games).

2009 SEASON:

- Debuted in the Majors with Cleveland and played in 28 games as a September call-up.
- Hit .267 (122x457) with 80 runs, 21 doubles, two triples, six homers and 37 RBI in 116 games for the Triple A Columbus Clippers, stealing 46 bases in 51 attempts (90.2%).
- Finished tied for first in the International League in stolen bases (46) and third in the league in runs (80).
- Selected to the Major League roster on Sept. 1 and made his MLB debut that night in Detroit, collecting his first hit off Edwin Jackson in the 5th inning.
- Hit safely in each of his first eight games with the Indians, becoming the second Indians player in a 50-year span to hit safely in his first eight games (also Josh Bard, 2002, first 9 games).
- Went 4x5 with an RBI on Sept. 12 vs. KC, becoming the first Indian since Andy Allanson in April 1986 to have a four-hit game within his first 10 games played...according to Elias, only one Indians player had a four-hit game at a younger age than Brantley (22 years, 120 days old): Carlos Baerga on Sept. 20, 1990 vs. NYY at the age of 21 years, 320 days old.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Was tied for sixth in the Southern League in runs (80) and steals (28) and seventh in batting average (.319) in 2008 despite an ankle injury that limited him to four games in July.
- In 2008, ranked second in the entire minor leagues in strikeout per plate appearance (17.7 (27SO/479PA).
- Was named to the 2008 Southern League Midseason and Postseason All-Star Teams and was tabbed by Baseball America as the Best Baserunner with the Best Strike Zone Judgment in the Southern League.
- After the 2008 season, was named by Baseball America as the ninth-best prospect in the Indians organization according to Baseball America.
- Combined to steal 35 bases and drove in a career-high 53 runs in 115 games in 2007 between Class A West Virginia and Double A Huntsville.
- Ranked fourth in the Class A South Atlantic League in OBP (.402) in 2006.
- Began the 2005 season with the Rookie Level AZL Brewers before an Aug. 28 promotion to Rookie Level Helena.

PERSONAL:

- Michael and his wife, Melissa, reside in Port St. Lucie, Fla., with their children Giovanni, Maxwell, Michael III and Mariah.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- The two-time All-Star (2018-19), 2018 All-Star Game MVP and 2019 Silver Slugger Award winner and has hit .283 (582x2058) with 152 doubles, 12 triples, 105 homers, 342 RBI, 34 steals and a .902 OPS (.381 OBP/.521 SLG) in 559 games over five Major League seasons.
- Over the last three seasons (2017-19), ranks sixth in the Majors in WAR with a 20.4 mark (Fangraphs), trailing only Mike Trout (27.8), Mookie Betts (25.4), Anthony Rendon (22.6), Jose Ramirez (21.3) and Christian Yelich (20.7).
- Became the fourth-fastest player in nearly a century to reach 100 doubles, 50 home runs and 200 RBI in his career, as he did so after 342 career games (Sept. 7, 2018)...the only players to reach those totals in less games were Hall of Famers Ted Williams (341g), Chuck Klein (317g) and Hank Greenberg (315g).
- Has a flair for the dramatic, as evidenced by his 11 postseason homers, 10 of which were hit off former All-Stars: LHP Chris Sale (2x), LHP Clayton Kershaw, RHP Kenley Jansen, RHP Corey Kluber, RHP Trevor Bauer, LHP Blake Snell, RHP Stephen Strasburg (2x) and RHP Fernando Rodney...his only postseason homer that came against a non-All-Star pitcher was his 2020 ALDS Game 1 homer off Chris Bassitt of the A's.
- Became the third player in MLB history to hit 10 postseason homers prior to turning 26 years old, joining his teammate Carlos Correa and future Hall of Famer Albert Pujols.
- Joined Amos Otis (1980) as the only players in MLB history to record an RBI in each of their first five career games in the World Series, doing so in the 2017 WS.
- His five World Series homers are the most by a third baseman all-time in MLB history.
- Posted the third-longest postseason on-base streak in MLB history, as he reached in 25 straight postseason games from Game 7 of the 2017 World Series through Game 5 of the 2019 World Series.
- Finished second in the 2019 AL MVP race after becoming the fifth player in MLB history to reach the following totals in a single season: 41 homers, 119 walks, and 37 doubles with 83 strikeouts-or-fewer...joined Barry Bonds (1993), Ted Williams (1949), Lou Gehrig (1936) and Babe Ruth (1924, 1921) as the only players ever to reach those totals in a single season.

NOTES

- Graduated from Albuquerque Academy HS in New Mexico in 2012...as a junior in 2011, was named first-team All-State and set a New Mexico record with 19 homers...taken by Boston in the 29th round of the 2012 MLB Draft but opted to attend LSU.
- In three seasons at LSU, hit .337 with 56 doubles, 10 triples, 21 homers, 148 RBI, 153 runs and 66 steals...during his junior year in 2015, was a First-Team All-American, Gold Glove Award winner and a Golden Spikes Award finalist.
- Played in the 2015 Houston College Classic at Minute Maid Park for LSU and was named to the All-Tournament Team.
- Was selected by the Astros with the second overall pick in the 2015 MLB Draft...that draft pick was awarded to the Astros for compensation for not signing the first overall pick in the 2014 draft (LHP Brady Aiken)...signed by Astros scout Justin Cryer.
- Chose his jersey number 2 to remind himself that he was drafted second overall, not first, and second to another collegiate shortstop out of the SEC in SS Dansby Swanson (ARI)...secondly, he grew up admiring SS Derek Jeter, who wore number 2 for the Yankees for 20 seasons...this type of motivation is nothing new to Bregman, he chose number 30 in his freshman year at LSU to remind himself that all 30 teams passed on him at one point in the 2012 draft.
- IN THE COMMUNITY: Was named the Astros Roberto Clemente Award nominee in both 2019 and 2020 for his commitment to a number of charitable causes.
- During the COVID-19 pandemic, Bregman raised $2 million for the Houston Food Bank via his #FEEDHOU campaign...began the initiative with an initial goal of $1 million, which was quickly raised.
- Upon reaching the Majors, Bregman created AB for AUDS, an organization focused on raising money for children with autism and down syndrome, in honor of his godson Brady Columbus.
- Signed one of the largest contracts in Astros franchise history on March 22, 2019, a five-year deal that will keep Bregman in an Astros uniform through 2024.

- Became the first player in Astros history to receive the All-Star Game Ted Williams MVP Award when he hit a go-ahead homer in the 10th inning of the 2018 All-Star Game to lead the AL to a an 8-6 win...also participated in the 2018 Home Run Derby, the first of his Major League career.
- Also in 2018, joined Lou Gehrig (1927) as the only players in MLB history to record a season with at least 50 doubles, 30 home runs, 90 walks and 10 stolen bases.
- Was named the 2016 USA TODAY Minor League Player of the Year, becoming the first player in Astros history to receive the award (created in 1988)...was also named the 2016 Astros Minor League Player of the Year, 2016 ESPN.com Prospect of the Year, 2016 MLB Pipeline Hitter of the Year and a 2016 Baseball America Minor League All-Star...was a 2016 Texas League Midseason All-Star and started at third in the 2016 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game, falling a home run shy of the cycle in a 3x5 performance.
- Entered the 2016 season ranked as the Astros top prospect, the No. 9 shortstop prospect in baseball and the No. 21 prospect in the game, per MLB.com...was also named the Astros No. 3 prospect and the organization's best defensive infielder by Baseball America prior to 2016...was tabbed by ESPN.com as the No. 1 overall prospect in the game in their 2016 midseason top-50 prospects report.

2020 SEASON:

- Posted an .801 OPS (.350 OBP/.451) during 42 regular season games in the pandemic-shortened season, his lowest OPS since his 2016 rookie campaign (.791).
- Dealt with one stint on the Injured List due to right hamstring discomfort (Aug. 20-Sept. 8)...was heating up prior to his IL stint, as he was on a nine-game hitting streak (.393 batting average, 1.157 OPS) prior to his IL placement.
- OPENING DAY: Made his fourth-career, and fourth-consecutive, Opening Day start at third base.
- Tied the longest season-opening on-base streak in club history (25 games), a mark previously reached by Jordan Schafer (2012) and Denis Menke (1969).
- Recorded the 100th home run of his career on July 27 vs. SEA in what was his 521st career game, becoming the 18th player in Astros history to reach the century mark in homers.
- Reached 100 homers faster than all but three players in Astros history: Lance Berkman (452g), George Springer (483g) and Glenn Davis (514g) (source: Elias).
- POSTSEASON: Hit .220 (11x50) with one homer and two RBI in 13 postseason games.
- ALDS VS. OAK: Drove in the Astros first run of the ALDS for the third time in a four-season span, as he put Houston on the board in Game 1 with a solo homer off Chris Bassitt.

2019 SEASON:

- Finished second in the AL MVP race in what was his second consecutive All-Star season...named the Astros Team MVP by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA, a Second-Team All-MLB selection, and won his first career Silver Slugger Award.
- Joined Barry Bonds (1993), Ted Williams (1949), Lou Gehrig (1936) and Babe Ruth (1924, 1921) as the only players in MLB history to reach the following totals in a single season: 41 homers, 119 walks, and 37 doubles with 83 strikeouts-or-fewer.
- Became the sixth third baseman in MLB's modern era (since 1900) to post a 1.000 OPS season at 25 years or younger, joining Adrian Beltre (2004), Troy Glaus (2000), Jim Thome (1996), Dick Allen (1966) and Eddie Matthews (1953-55).
- Led the American League in WAR (8.4, Baseball-Reference), the second-highest total by a position player in Astros history, trailing only Craig Biggio's 9.4 WAR in his 1997 season.
- Led the AL in walks (119) and ranked second in on-base percentage (.423), third in OPS (1.015), third in slugging percentage (.592), tied for third in homers (41), fourth in runs (122), fifth in RBI (112) and sixth in strikeout rate (12%)

- Stole 14 bases, going 14-for-18 (77.8%) in attempts... his 14 steals ranked seventh all-time in club history by a rookie, and marked the most by a Houston rookie since Willy Taveras swiped 34 bags in 2005.
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 18 home runs were the second-most by a shortstop prior to his 21st birthday in MLB history, behind only Alex Rodriguez (26).
- From the date of his Major League debut (June 8) through the end of the season, led the Astros in homers, RBI,extra-base hits (45), go-ahead RBI (20), game-winning RBI (8) and slugging percentage, while ranking second in hits (108) and tied for second in steals (14).
- Began his season at Double A Corpus Christi...was promoted to Triple A Fresno on May 11, and was selected to the Major League roster on June 8.
- Made his Major League debut on June 8 at CWS, going 1x4 with an RBI-single off Chris Sale.
- At 20 years, 259 days, became the youngest player in club history to make a start at shortstop, edging out Alex Taveras (20 years, 341 days in 1976).
- Became the youngest Astros position player to make his MLB debut since Derrel Thomas on Sept. 14, 1971 (20 years, 243 days).
- Became the third player in club history to reach base safely in each of his first 10 MLB games, joining Kiké Hernandez (2014) and Jimmy Wynn (1963).
- Per Elias, became the third player in club history with three consecutive multi-hit games within the first 10 days of his Major League debut: also Ken Caminiti (1987) and Orlando Miller (1994).
- On June 18 at COL, stole three bases, becoming the third-youngest player in the modern era to swipe three bags in a game (20 years, 269 days) (Elias), trailing Rickey Henderson (Aug. 23, 1979, 20.241) and Ty Cobb (Sept. 2, 1907, 20.258).
- Was named the AL Rookie of the Month for June, becoming the sixth player in club history to win a Rookie of the Month award.
- Tallied his 50th hit on July 28 vs. LAA following a 3x4 performance...per Elias, became the fourth player since 1950 to accumulate 50 hits within his first 42 games in the Majors before turning 21, joining Rennie Stennett (1971) and Hall of Famers Roberto Clemente (1955) and Orlando Cepeda (1958).
- Recorded his 15th homer on Aug. 19 vs. TB in what was his 62nd game...per Elias, there have been only two players in Major League history to hit at least 15 homers before turning 21 in fewer games than Correa did: Willie Mays (55th game, in 1951) and Frank Robinson (58th game, in 1956).
- Went 3x4 with a triple, HR, single, walk, stolen base, four RBI and four runs scored on Oct. 2 at ARI...the only player younger than Correa (21 years, 10 days) to record a homer, triple, and walk in a single game since 1914 was Ted Williams (twice in 1939).
- Became the youngest player in club history to record four RBI and four runs in the same game, and the youngest Major Leaguer to do so since Miguel Cabrera on July 1, 2003.
- POSTSEASON: Started at shortstop in all six of Houston's postseason games.
- WILD CARD GAME AT NYY: Made his first career postseason appearance in the Wild Card Game at NYY...at 21 years, 14 days, became the youngest player in club history to appear in a playoff game..
- Became the third-youngest player to start a playoff game at shortstop in MLB history, behind Miguel Cabrera (2003 NLCS) and Travis Jackson (1924 World Series).
- ALDS VS. KC: Recorded his first career postseason hit in Game 1, becoming the youngest player in club history to record a hit in the playoffs.
- Went 4x4 with two homers, a double and four total RBI in Game 4...joined Carlos Beltrán (Game 5, 2004 NLDS at ATL) as the only Astros players with a multi-homer game in the postseason.
- Became the second-youngest player in MLB history (21 years, 20 days) to hit multiple HR in a postseason game, behind only Andruw Jones (19 years, 180 days, Game 1 of the 1996 World Series at NYY).
- Per ESPN Stats & Info, his 11 total bases in Game 4 of the ALDS marked the most by a shortstop in a single postseason game in MLB history...Derek Jeter held the previous record with 10 total bases in Game 1 of the 2006 ALDS vs. DET.
- Per the Elias Sports Bureau, became the youngest player to record at least four hits and four RBI in a postseason game...the only other player to do this before his 25th birthday was Goose Goslin (23), who did so in Game 4 of the 1924 World Series for the Senators.
- Per Elias, became the third player age 21 or younger to hit in the third spot in the order in a playoff game all-time, joining Joe DiMaggio (1936 World Series) and Mickey Mantle (1952 World Series).

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- In 2014, was named the No. 1 prospect, 'Best Defensive Infielder', 'Best Infield Arm' and 'Best Hitter for Average' in Houston's system by Baseball America, as well as the No. 7 prospect overall in baseball.
- Was a 2014 California League Midseason All-Star, but suffered a season-ending ankle injury in June (fractured right fibula)...prior to his injury, was leading all California League shortstops with a .969 fielding percentage.
- Was named a 2014 MiLB.com Organization All-Star.
- Named Lancaster's Player of the Month for May of 2014
- Received his first career invite to Major League Spring Training on Jan. 14, 2014...played in 16 Major League Spring Training games, hitting .200 (6x30) with two doubles, two homers and three RBI.
- Helped lead Class A Quad Cities to a Midwest League Championship title in 2013...led all Midwest League shortstops in fielding percentage while spending the season as the second-youngest player in the league.
- Led the Midwest League in OPS (.872) while finishing second in on-base percentage (.405) and third in batting average (.320) during his 2013 season.
- Was named a 2013 Midwest League Midseason and Postseason All-Star.
- Named to the 2013 SiriusXM All-Star Future's Game at the Mets Citi Field.
- Earned Quad Cities Player of the Month in May and June (.370, 37x100, 6 2B, 2HR, 15 RBI) of 2013.
- Played alongside the Astros No. 1 selection from the 2013 draft RHP Mark Appel in 2013, marking the first time in minor league history that two consecutive No. 1 draft picks occupied the same minor league roster.
- Entered the 2013 season ranked by Baseball America as the No. 1 prospect, 'Best Power Hitter', 'Best Defensive Infielder' and 'Best Infield Arm' in the Astros system...tabbed by MLB.com as the No. 30 prospect overall and No. 5 shortstop prospect in baseball...ranked by ESPN.com as the No. 24 prospect in baseball.
- Was in minor league camp in 2013 Spring Training, but joined the Astros Major League club for four games and hit .455 (5x11) with three RBI
- Named the GCL Astros 2012 Defensive Player of the Month in July.
- Following the 2012 season, was named by Baseball America as the No. 2 prospect in the GCL behind Byron Buxton.

PERSONAL:

- Carlos and his wife, Daniella, reside in Houston, Texas.
- Daniella is a former Miss Texas, having won the honor in 2016...the Astros invited Daniella out to the ballpark to throw a first pitch in August of 2016, where the couple first met.
- One year later, just after the Astros clinched the 2017 World Series title, Carlos proposed to Daniella in a postgame TV interview with FOX reporter Ken Rosenthal.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- The 2016 NL All-Star has hit .273 (377x1380) with 88 doubles, four triples, 54 home runs, 186 RBI, 13 stolen bases and a .787 OPS (.327 OBP/.460 SLG) in 406 career games in the Majors over four seasons with St. Louis (2016-17), Toronto (2018) and Houston (2019-20).
- Has played all over the diamond in his career, appearing in 274 games at shortstop, 64 games at third base, 37 games at second base, 28 games at first base and eight games in left field.
- Was named to the 2016 National League All-Star Team during his rookie season, a year in which he batted .300 (111x422) with 28 doubles, 17 homers, 65 RBI and an .879 OPS (.369 OBP/.510 SLG) in 111 games for the Cardinals...became the first Cardinals rookie to make the All-Star Team since Albert Pujols in 2001.
- Finished fifth in the 2016 NL Rookie of the Year voting.
- Became the first rookie in Major League Baseball's modern era (since 1900) to post a batting average of .500-or-better over his first 50 at-bats...batted .500 (26x52) over his first 52 at-bats in the Majors.

2020 SEASON:

- Missed half of the regular season due to a right groin strain, ultimately posting a .737 OPS (.254 OBP/.483 SLG) in 17 games.
- Played 10 games at second base, three games at third base, two games at first base and one game in left field.
- OPENING DAY: Made his fourth-career Opening Day roster...went 1x2 with a run scored in a start at DH on Opening Day on July 24 vs. SEA.
- Suffered a right groin strain on Opening Day...was placed on the Injured List from July 25-Aug. 29.
- POSTSEASON: Hit well during the postseason, batting .353 (6x17) with three runs, one home run, two RBI and one walk in eight games.
- Started four postseason games: ALDS Game 3 vs. OAK and Games 1, 3, and 5 of the ALCS against the Rays.
- ALDS VS. OAK: Recorded his first-career postseason hit in Game 3 vs. OAK, a two-run homer off Jesus Luzardo...was also his first-career RBI in the postseason.

2019 SEASON:

- Was limited to a career-low 57 games due to two sints on the IL in his first season with Houston.
- Posted an .823 OPS (.356 OBP/.467 SLG), his highest since his 2016 rookie season.
- Made 55 starts with the Astros, all over the diamond...started 18 games at first base, 16 at second base, 15 at third base, three in left field, two at shortstop and one at designated hitter.

NOTES

- Played five seasons for Los Naranjas de Villa Clara in Cuba's Serie Nacional (2008-12)...started his pro career when he was 17 years old...was teammates with Leonys Martin and Dayan Viciedo...also played for Cuba internationally...played in the 2010 World University Championship Games in Tokyo.
- Defected from Cuba in 2012 while playing with the Cuban National Team in a tournament in the Netherlands...was not immediately eligible to sign, so he spent his 2013 season playing in the Mexican League...signed a four-year contract as a free agent with St. Louis on March 11, 2014.
- Despite growing up in Cuba, Díaz is fluent in English...he learned the language in the 18 months after his defection thanks in large part to watching the Ellen DeGeneres Show on a daily basis...in 2016, Ellen producers heard the story and invited Díaz to join the show in the offseason...despite playing in front of 40,000 fans each game, Díaz graciously declined Ellen's invite due to nerves.
- Became one of five Cubans to play for the Astros in 2019, joining DH Yordan Alvarez, 1B Yuli Gurriel, RHP Rogelio Armenteros and LHP Cionel Pérez...that club became the first team to play five Cubans in the same season since the 1969 Reds used IF Mike de la Hoz, RHP Camilo Pascual, IF Tony Perez, RHP Pedro Ramos and IF Chico Ruiz.
- Is currently signed to a one-year contract for the 2021 season, but is under club control through the 2022 season.

- OPENING DAY: Made his third-career Opening Day roster...started at shortstop on Opening Day on March 28 at TB.
- Hit his second-career grand slam on May 11 vs. TEX.
- Served two IL stints: May 27-July 22 (left hamstring strain) and Aug. 18-27 (illness).
- Tied his career-high for RBI on April 7 vs. OAK, going 2x4 with four RBI...hit a three-run homer in the 1st inning, his first hit as an Astro.
- Started 12 games at second base in May following Jose Altuve's placement on the IL...hit .395 (15x38) with three doubles, three homers, 11 RBI and a 1.027 OPS (.389 OBP/.638 SLG) in those games.
- On Aug. 10 at BAL, tied the franchise record for hits by a player who did not start a game (3), last accomplished by Tony Kemp on Aug. 7, 2016 vs. TEX.
- Made two strong defensive plays at first base to preserve Justin Verlander's no-hitter on Sept. 1 at TOR...was originally slated to start at third base but moved to first base when Yuli Gurriel was scratched from the lineup...prior to 2019, had never appeared at first base in a Major League game.
- POSTSEASON: Took 10 plate appearances in the postseason, all as a pinch-hitter.

2018 SEASON:

- Set career-highs in games (130) and home runs (18) in his first season with the Blue Jays.
- Following the All-Star Break, batted .290 (56x193) with 15 doubles, 10 homers and 32 RBI.
- OPENING DAY: Made his second-career Opening Day roster.
- Drove in his 100th career RBI on a walkoff hit on June 7 vs. BAL, a 10th-inning single...was his second-career walkoff hit.
- Hit his 17th homer of the season on Sept. 5 vs. TB, driving in Kendrys Morales and Lourdes Gurriel Jr... marked the sixth time in MLB history that a player homered to score three Cuban-born players.
- Tied a career-high with three doubles on Sept. 8 vs. CLE, matching his season-high with four hits.
- Set a new career-high in home runs with his 18th shot of the season on Sept. 17 at BAL.
- Was traded to the Astros on Nov. 16 in exchange for RHP Trent Thornton.

2017 SEASON:

- Played in 79 games with St. Louis over two stints in the Majors during his sophomore season in the big leagues.
- Led the Cardinals with 19 infield hits.
- Went 5x8 (.625) with a double and a homer as a pinch-hitter.
- OPENING DAY: Made his first Opening Day roster.
- Notched his first-career multi-homer game on April 8 vs. CIN, going 3x5 with two homers.
- Posted a career-long eight-game hitting streak from May 20-29.
- Traded to Toronto for OF J.B. Woodman on Dec. 1.

2016 SEASON:

- Was an All-Star in his rookie season, hitting .300 (111x422) with 28 doubles, 17 HR, 65 RBI and an .879 OPS (.369 OBP/.510 SLG) in 111 games.
- Became the first Cardinals rookie All-Star since Albert Pujols in 2001.
- Finished fifth in the NL Rookie of the Year voting.
- Finished among the top-five NL rookies in runs (2nd, 71), RBI (3rd), doubles (T-3rd), extra-base hits (T-3rd, 48), hits (5th) and walks (5th, 41).
- Became the first rookie in Major League Baseball's modern era (since 1900) to post a batting average of .500-or-better over his first 50 at-bats...batted .500 (26x52) over his first 52 at-bats in the Majors.
- Batted a Major League-leading .423 (30x71) in his first month in the Majors...was the fourth-highest batting average by a rookie in April in MLB history, and the highest since Showboat Fisher posted a .462 average for St. Louis in 1930.
- Joined Albert Pujols (2001) as the only Cardinals rookies to record at least 30 hits in April of a season.
- Did not make the Opening Day roster but was recalled on April 4 following an injury to Tommy Pham.
- Joined the team for the second game of the season...made his MLB debut on April 5 vs. PIT and singled in his first at-bat off Jonathon Niese.
- Recorded a hit in seven-consecutive plate appearances from April 22-24 at SD, which included a 5x5 performance on April 23 at SD...became the first Cardinals rookie with a five-hit game since Wally Moon on May 12, 1954 (5x6).
- On July 1 vs. MIL, recorded 11 assists, the most by a Cardinals rookie in a single game since Stu Martin tallied 11 at second base on June 6, 1936 vs. NYG... marked the most by any rookie, regardless of club, since Delino DeShields notched 11 at second base on Aug. 12, 1998 vs. NYM.
- ALL-STAR GAME: Faced Will Harris and struck out in his lone at-bat in the All-Star Game.
- Hit his first-career grand slam on Sept. 27 vs. CIN.

MINORS AND INTERNATIONAL CAREER:

- Was an MiLB.com Organization All-Star in 2015, reaching Triple A for the first time in his career.
- Following the 2015 season, hit .315 with eight doubles, four HR, 14 RBI in the Arizona Fall League.
- Was a non-roster invitee at Cardinals Major League Spring Training in 2014 before advancing to Double A during the season.
- Played one game for Culiacan in the Mexican Winter League in 2013.
- From 2008-2012, played for Villa Clara in Cuba's Serie Nacional...his best season came during his final year in Cuba in 2012, when he hit .315 with 12 homers, 49 RBI and a .904 OPS.

PERSONAL:

- Aledmys and his wife, Dayara, have one son, Nathan, who was born in August of 2016...the family resides in West Palm Beach, Fla., in the offseason.

- Held right-handers to a .194 average (59x304), with 27 walks, 87 strikeouts and a .585 OPS.
- Ranked tied for eighth in the AL in wins (15)...among all AL pitchers with a minimum of 150.0 innings pitched, he finished sixth in ERA (3.51), and eighth in opponent batting average (.234).
- Started the Twins second game of the season on March 30 vs. CLE (11K in 6 IP)...teammate José Berríos struck out 10 on Opening Day on March 28 vs. CLE, becoming the second pair of pitchers in baseball history (since 1893) to start a team's season with consecutive double-digit strikeout totals; the only others to do it were Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling for Arizona in 2001.
- Named AL Player of the Week on May 5, going 2-0 with a 0.00 ERA (13IP), and six hits allowed with 15 strikeouts in two starts, marking his first career Player of the Week honor.
- Went 4-0 with a 0.94 ERA (3ER/28.2IP) and 31 strikeouts in five May starts...led the AL in May ERA.
- Set a career-high by winning 10 straight decisions from April 17-June 15 in 11 starts (Twins went 11-0)... posted a 1.52 ERA (11ER/65IP) with a .209 opponent batting average in that span...the win-streak was the fourth longest for a starter in club history (Johan Santana, 17 from 2004-05; Brad Radke, 12 in 1997 and Scott Erickson, 12 in 1991).
- Went unscored upon in six of seven starts from April 29-June 2...during span, posted scoreless inning streaks of 22.1 innings from April 29-May 15 (fifth longest for a starter in club history) and a 16.1-inning streak from May 20-June 2.
- On July 1, was 10-3 with a 2.73 ERA in 16 starts...since 1961, the only other Twins pitchers to have 10+ wins and a sub-3.00 ERA entering July: Scott Erickson (1991), Frank Viola (1988) and Bert Blyleven (1973).
- Placed on the 10-day Injured List with a right middle finger blister on July 3; reinstated on July 13.
- Named to the American League ALL-STAR team (did not pitch - IL), the first of his career...at the All-Star break, ranked tied for third in AL in wins (10), tied for sixth in opponent batting average (.214) and sixth in ERA (3.15)...was replaced on the AL roster with teammate José Berríos.
- Recorded his 900th career strikeout on July 2 at OAK, fanning Matt Chapman in the third inning.
- Surpassed 1,000.0 career innings pitched in the fifth inning on Aug. 21 at CWS.
- In his final 10 starts of the season (beginning July 30), went 4-2 with a 2.89 ERA (18ER/56IP) and 70 Ks.
- Made his first career POSTSEASON appearance, starting Game 3 of the ALDS vs. NYY at Target Field on October 7...allowed two runs on five hits in 5.0 innings pitched with no walks and five strikeouts and was dealt the loss in a Twins 5-1 defeat.
- The Twins extended him a Qualifying Offer for 2020 season on November 4...it was accepted on November 14, signing him to a one-year contract.

2018 SEASON:

- Was the Twins OPENING DAY starter on March 29 at BAL, pitching 6.0 shutout innings with two hits allowed, two walks and seven strikeouts in a no-decision...marked his first Opening Day start of career.
- Began the season going 3-2, with a 3.17 ERA (19ER/54IP) in his first 10 starts from March 29-May 20.
- Went 26 straight starts to begin the season without recording an out in the 7th, setting an MLB record.
- Carried a no-hitter into the 8th inning on Sept. 12 vs. NYY, until having it broken up by Greg Bird (double).
- Recorded his 800th career strikeout September 18 at Detroit, fanning Jim Adduci in the fourth inning.
- Made 30 starts for the third time in his career...threw 18.7 pitches-per-inning, the most in baseball...finished with a strikeout-per-9.0 innings pitched ratio of 8.87, the second highest of career (9.32 - 2014).
- Ranked tied for first on Twins staff in starts (32), and third in innings pitched (164.1) and strikeouts (162).

2017 SEASON:

- Was the Rays No. 2 starter to begin the season... started 28 games for the Rays despite two stints on the Injured List, was his fourth straight year of at least 28 starts.
- On his IL stints, missed 14 games (April 16-30) with a left hamstring strain and 13 games (July 25–Aug 8) with a lower back strain.
- Went 3-1 with a 1.03 ERA (3ER/26.1IP) in five September starts, the third lowest ERA in the AL.
- His 18.3 pitches-per-inning ranked fifth-highest in baseball and his 32.3 groundball pct. was the second-lowest behind Toronto's Marco Estrada (30.7)...allowed 14 unearned runs, third-most in the AL behind Rick Porcello (20) and Sonny Gray (15).

2016 SEASON:

- Established career-highs with 33 starts and 187.2 IP.
- In the second half, went 7-1 with a 2.71 ERA (25ER/83IP) in 14 starts; only two other MLB pitchers (min. 50 IP) could match his combo of winning pct. (.875) and ERA in the second half: CLE Corey Kluber (9-1, 2.52) and CHC Jon Lester (10-1, 1.76).
- Recorded 17 no decisions, three more than any other starter...allowed two earned runs or fewer in 13 of his no decisions.
- Averaged 17.6 pitches-per-inning, most in the AL and second in the majors to ARI Robbie Ray (18.0).
- On May 24 at MIA, recorded his first career hit, an RBI single off Tom Koehler to give himself a 1-0 lead.
- On June 14 vs. Seattle, was ejected by home plate umpire Jerry Meals for the first time of his career following a sixth-inning walk of Leonys Martín.

2015 SEASON:

- His 28 starts were second on the Rays staff behind Chris Archer (34)...his 3.35 ERA ranked eighth in the AL and .231 opp avg. tied for ninth.
- His ERA was below 3.50 all season, one of only five AL pitchers to do that, joining David Price, Dallas Keuchel, Scott Kazmir and Sonny Gray.
- Left his start on June 5 at SEA with a strained oblique and spent five weeks on the IL.

2014 SEASON:

- Named the club's Outstanding Rookie by the Tampa Bay Chapter of the BBWAA.
- Led all MLB rookies with 174 strikeouts, one shy of the club rookie record (175 by Matt Moore in 2012).
- Became the second Ray to lead MLB rookies in strikeouts, joining Scott Kazmir (174) in 2005....also led MLB rookies in starts (31) and losses (13) and finished 2nd in innings (168).
- Earned his first MLB win on April 4 vs. Texas.

2013 SEASON:

- Split first season in the Tampa Bay organization between Triple-A Durham and the Majors...had five stints with the Rays.
- Recalled for the first time on May 20 to make his Rays debut in Toronto.
- Went 3.0 IP for his first career save on September 24 at New York-AL.
- Finished third in the International League and second in the Rays system with 124 strikeouts.

2012 SEASON:

- Named Pitcher of the Year for Triple A Omaha despite opening the season with Double A Northwest Arkansas...combined for 15 wins, tied for third in the minors.
- Started for the US team in the Futures Game at Kauffman Stadium in July....ranked by MLB.com as the No. 2 prospect in the Royals system (Wil Myers).
- Selected to the Royals roster on September 16.
- Suffered the loss in his Major League debut on September 23 vs. Cleveland.

MINOR LEAGUES:

- Began the 2011 season with Single A Wilmington (Kansas City)...promoted to Northwest Arkansas, where he made 12 starts to finish the season... named Pitcher of the Year for Wilmington and made the Carolina League Midseason All-Star Team...led the Carolina League with 103 strikeouts at the time of his promotion.
- Named the Brewers 2010 Minor League Pitcher of the Year...also named to the Midwest League Midseason All-Star Team...led the Midwest League with 10.07 SO/9 IP.
- Spent second professional season in 2009 with Rookie-Helena (MIlwaukee).
- Made his pro debut in 2008 with the AZL Brewers.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Switch-hitting catcher is entering his fifth season in the Astros organization after being drafted in the ninth round of the June 2017 draft.
- Has posted a .210 (166x792) career batting average with 17 homers and a .353 OBP in 238 career minor league games...has made 191 career starts at catcher and owns a .996 fielding percentage at the position...has caught 53 of 173 attempting basestealers (30.6%).

MINOR LEAGUES:

- Did not play in an official game in 2020 due to the COVID-19 shutdown...began the year at minor league Spring Training and played in one game with the Astros as a call-up...after the shutdown, was added to the Astros 60-man Player Pool and spent the remainder of his season at the Astros alternate training site...was also on the club's Postseason Eligible 40-man roster.
- Had his best offensive season in 2019 with Class A Fayetteville, hitting .233 (87x374) with a .351 OBP... committed just one error in 771 total chances and caught 23 attempting basestealers (29%).
- Walked 64 times, as opposed to 69 strikeouts in 2018 for Class A Quad Cities.
- Debuted in 2017, appearing in 37 games for the Tri-City ValleyCats.

NOTES

- Team captain helped lead Lemont High School (IL) to the 2014 3A Illinois State Championship as a senior...batted .410 in 2014 with 12 doubles, eight homers, 42 runs, 30 RBI, 13 steals and a .543 on-base percentage...was a 2013 & 2014 All-Area and All-State selection...drafted in the 16th round of the 2014 draft by Toronto but did not sign.
- Elected to attend LSU, where he played three years, combining to hit .246 (79x320) with 12 HR and 64 RBI in 140 career games...twice played in the College World Series (2015, 2017), advancing all the way to the Finals in 2017 (second-place finish)... was teammates with 3B Alex Bregman in 2015, a team that finished fifth in the rankings.
- Drafted by Houston in the ninth round of the June 2017 draft...signed by Astros scout Travis Coleman.
- Invited to Major League Spring Training as a non-roster invite on Feb. 12, 2021...this is his first invite to Spring Training, although he did get an invite to 2020 Summer Camp, spent the 2020 season at the club's alternate training site and was on the Astros Postseason Eligible 40-man roster.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Made his Major League debut pitching out of the Astros bullpen in 2020, making 22 electric appearances...mostly pitched in high-leverage situations, posting a 3.05 ERA with 20 strikeouts in his 20.2 innings pitched...also appeared in six postseason contests in 2020, going scoreless in five of those six appearances.
- The right-handed pitcher posted a career 2.41 ERA (63ER/235.0IP) with 297 strikeouts and a 0.99 WHIP through his first four years in the Astros minor league system (2016-19).
- Was named a 2017 Midwest League Midseason All-Star for Quad Cities...also made the 2019 Carolina League Mid-Season All-Star Team for Fayetteville.

2020 SEASON:

- Made his Major League debut with the Astros, showcasing his electric stuff in 22 appearances out of the bullpen...struck out 20 batters in 20.2 innings...was scoreless in 16 of his 21 games.
- Held left-handed hitters to a .143 (6x42) opponent batting average with just one extra-base hit (triple) and a .408 OPS (.217 OBP/.190 SLG).
- Posted a 2.08 ERA (3ER/13IP) in 13 one-run games.
- Made his Major League debut on July 24 vs. SEA, tossing a scoreless 9th inning while working around a leadoff single...became the third Dominican-born pitcher in team history to make his Major League debut on Opening Day, joining Julio Solano (1983) and Joaquin Andujar (1976).
- Was scoreless in five of his seven POSTSEASON appearances, posting a 5.14 ERA (4ER/7IP)...gave up just three hits for a .136 opponent batting average (3x22)...threw scoreless outings in all three of Houston's wins in the ALDS against the A's, capturing holds in Games 1 and 2...pitched in four games during the ALCS (4ER/3.1IP).

NOTES

- Full name is pronounced: ehn-OH-lee puh-RAY-dis.
- Signed by the Astros as a 20-year-old non-drafted free agent on October 15, 2015...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo and Roman Ocumarez.
- Nicknamed "Little Pedro" after Hall of Famer Pedro Martinez...the two share similar statures, upper 90's fastballs and a Dominican descent...while compared to Martinez by others, Paredes idolized another Dominican righty with his stature, former Royals hurler Yordano Ventura, who passed away in 2017...Paredes and Ventura are both from the same Dominican province of Samaná.
- Has also earned the nickname "Cannoli" after participating in a minor league promotion while at Class A Fayetteville in 2019...the company behind the promotion, Sweet Martha's, runs a concession stand at Fayetteville's Segra Stadium...in honor of Italian Night, the team asked Enoli to pose with a tray of Sweet Martha's cannolis, creating Enoli's Cannolis...prior to the shoot, Enoli had never heard of a cannoli...while the promotion has stuck with Enoli, he actually did not stick around for it himself, as he was promoted to Corpus Christi prior to the Woodpeckers game that night.
- A native of the Dominican, Paredes grew up a Spanish speaker and did not begin learning English until signing with the Astros...he looks for opportunities to practice his English and does all his interviews in English for that purpose.
- Added to the Astros 40-man roster on Nov. 20, 2019...spent the entire 60-game 2020 season in the Majors, accumulating 1.000 full year of service time.

MINOR LEAGUES:

- Recorded a 2.78 ERA (29ER/94.0IP) with a career-high 128 strikeouts and a 0.98 WHIP in 2019...was named a Carolina League Mid-Season All-Star after posting a 1.64 ERA with Fayetteville.
- Posted a 1.43 ERA (11ER/69IP) in 2018 with 90 strikeouts against 29 walks...also recorded pristine 0.91 WHIP and allowed just one homer.
- Named to the Midwest League Midseason All-Star Team in 2017...posted a 2.11 ERA (38.1IP/9ER) with a 0.89 WHIP that season.
- In his debut season of 2016, was named the GCL Astros Player of the Month for August after posting a 1.38 ERA (2ER/13IP) with 21 strikeouts.

PERSONAL:

- Enoli and his wife, Raquel, reside in El Limón, D.R., with their daughter, Emily.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Eight-year Major League reliever and 2019 All-Star is entering his second full season with the Astros after being acquired at the trading deadline in 2018... spent his first five-plus seasons with Minnesota (2013-18).
- In his Major League career, Pressly has posted an 21-22 record with 18 saves and a 3.38 ERA (156ER/415.2IP) in 385 career games...has posted 415 strikeouts in his 415.2 career innings pitched.
- Spent the 2020 season as the Astros closer, recording a career-high 12 saves, which ranked tied for third in the AL...pitched in seven postseason games, capturing four saves with a 2.45 ERA (2ER/7.1IP), one walk and eight strikeouts...was scoreless in six of his seven outings.
- Named to his first career ALL-STAR TEAM in 2019 after posting a career-best 2.32 ERA (14ER/54.1IP).
- Posted the longest scoreless appearance streak in MLB history, a 40-game streak that began on Aug. 15, 2018 and ended on May 24, 2019 vs. BOS
- Split his 2018 season between the Astros and Twins and combined to lead the AL with 77 appearances, which ranked tied for third in the Majors...ranked fourth in strikeouts (101) among AL relievers...in his 26 games with Houston, posted an 0.77 ERA (2ER/23.1IP) with 32 strikeouts, three walks and just 11 hits allowed (.138 opponent batting average)...made five postseason apps., recording three holds and a 1.80 ERA (1ER/5IP).
- In his third Major League season, posted a 2.93 ERA (9ER/27.2IP) in 27 games in 2015...did not allow a home run on the season, one of two pitchers to do so (min. 25IP), also Adam Wainwright (28IP).

2020 SEASON:

- Stepped into the closer's role and notched a career-high 12 saves over 23 games...ranked tied for third in the AL in saves.
- Successfully converted 11 of his last 13 save chances of the season, spanning his final 18 games...posted a 2.08 ERA (4ER/17.1IP) with four walks and 25 strikeouts in that span.
- Made his sixth-career OPENING DAY roster.... reached 400.0 career innings on Aug. 16 vs. SEA.
- Earned the save in both games of the doubleheader on Aug. 29 vs. OAK, becoming the third pitcher in franchise history to get a save in both games of a doubleheader (per Elias), joining Todd Jones (Aug. 4, 1995 at PIT) and Fred Gladding (July 20, 1969 vs. SD)...threw 19 pitches between both games, striking out four batters.
- pitched in seven postseason games, capturing four saves with a 2.45 ERA (2ER/7.1IP), one walk and eight strikeouts...was scoreless in six of his seven outings.

NOTES

- Attended Carrollton American Heritage Academy for his first three years of high school and starred as a pitcher and shortstop, leading the conference in 23 different offensive categories...for his senior year, transferred to Marcus High School, which is in Flower Mound, TX, a suburb of Dallas.
- Played baseball and football (defensive back) at Marcus HS, where he graduated in 2011...was tackled and suffered a torn ACL during senior season, ending his football career...received a scholarship to play baseball at Texas Tech but elected to play professional baseball after being drafted by Boston in the 11th round of the June 2007 draft...signed by Red Sox scout Jim Robinson.
- Played five seasons (2008-12) in the Red Sox minor league system before being selected by Minnesota in the 2012 Rule 5 Draft...was selected fourth overall, three picks after the Astros selected RHP Josh Fields first overall.
- After spending his first five and a half MLB seasons in Minnesota, the Astros traded for Pressly just before the trade deadline in 2018...he immediately improved, crediting this improvement to a change in pitch mix and location...he began throwing his curveball more and throwing his fastball up in the zone...both changes play into his huge spin rate numbers on those pitches...he finished the 2020 season with a spin rate on his curveball in the 99th percentile of all pitchers, while his fastball spin rate checked in at the 95th percentile.
- The Astros signed Pressly to a two-year contract extension on March 20, 2019 to cover the 2020-21 seasons...the deal also includes a vesting option for the 2022 season...for this to vest, Pressly will need to make 60 appearances this season.

- Got the save in Game 2 of the Wild Card Series at MIN with two strikeouts in a scoreless 9th inning, clinching a series victory for Houston against his former club...pitched in three games in the ALDS, capturing a save in Game 2...appeared in three ALCS games, earning the win in Game 5 and saves in Games 4 and 6.

2019 SEASON:

- Named to his first career ALL-STAR TEAM...among AL relievers, ranked tied for first in holds (31) and sixth in WHIP (0.88) and tied for sixth in strikeout-to-walk ratio (6.00).
- Posted the longest scoreless appearance streak in MLB history, a 40-game streak that began on Aug. 15, 2018 and ended on May 24, 2019 vs. BOS... overtook Craig Kimbrel's MLB record streak of 38 games that was set in 2011...his scoreless streak was tied for the second-longest by a reliever in terms of innings pitched (39IP) in the Expansion Era (since 1961) with RHP Brad Ziegler (39IP in 2008), trailing only RHP Gregg Olson (41IP from 1989-90)...his 39.0-inning scoreless streak marked a new franchise record...Roy Oswalt previously held the record at 32.1 innings pitched in 2008...also posted a 32-game road scoreless streak, which tied the fifth-longest streak in MLB history.
- Held left-handed hitters to a .124 opponent batting average with a .361 OPS (.165 OBP/.196 SLG)...posted the second-best opponent OPS against lefties in the Majors (min. 90 batters faced)
- Posted a 0.75 ERA (2ER/24IP) with 29 strikeouts in 24 games at home...shut down division opponents, posting a 1.26 ERA (4ER/28.2IP) with 33 strikeouts in 29 games against the AL West.
- Started the year on the Astros OPENING DAY roster in what was his first full season with Houston.
- Appeared in 10 games in the POSTSEASON...went 1-0 with an 11.12 ERA (7ER/5.2IP) in his 10 games, stranding 10-of-11 inherited runners...was scoreless in seven out of 10 postseason games...earned his first career postseason win in Game 4 of the ALCS at NYY, throwing 0.2 scoreless innings while striking out one batter.

2018 SEASON:

- Split his season between the Twins and Astros and combined to lead the AL with 77 appearances, which ranked tied for third in the Majors...ranked fourth among AL relievers in strikeouts (101) and eighth in ERA (2.54).
- Set career highs in appearances and strikeouts... started the season on the Twins OPENING DAY roster...acquired by the Astros on July 27 in exchange for RHP Jorge Alcala and OF Gilberto Celestino.
- In his 26 games with Houston, posted an 0.77 ERA (2ER/23.1IP) with 32 strikeouts, three walks and just 11 hits allowed (.138 opponent batting average)...ended the season on a 21-game scoreless streak (18.0 IP).
- Pitched in five games in the POSTSEASON, posting a 1.80 ERA (1ER/5IP) with seven strikeouts and one hit allowed...marked his first-career postseason appearances...entered the Game 1 of the ALDS vs. CLE in the 6th inning with the bases loaded and one out in what was his first career postseason appearance... threw a wild pitch on his first pitch to allow a run to score...induced a ground ball and fanned Edwin Encarnacion to end the inning...returned to the mound and worked a scoreless 7th inning...recorded holds in each of his first three postseason appearances, Games 1 and 2 of the ALDS vs. CLE, and Game 1 of the ALCS at BOS.

2017 SEASON:

- Made the Twins OPENING DAY roster for the third time in career.
- Had two MLB stints, going 1-2, with a 8.25 ERA (22ER/24IP) in his first 25 Major League appearances from April 5-July 1, but went 1-1 with a 2.41 ERA (10ER/37.1IP) in his final 32 games.
- Held right-handed hitters to a .196 batting average and left-handed hitters to a .281 batting average.

2016 SEASON:

- Made the Twins OPENING DAY roster for the second time in his career and the first time since 2013 and spent the entire season with Twins.
- Led the Twins in games (72) and holds (14) and won a career-high six games...ranked fourth in the AL in relief innings (75.1) and tied for fourth in games.

2015 SEASON:

- Began the season with Triple A Rochester and was recalled by Minnesota on May 1...earned win in his first appearance, tossing a season-high 2.2 scoreless innings on May 3 vs. CWS.
- Did not allow a home run on the season, one of two pitchers in baseball with a minimum of 25.0 innings pitched to not allow a homer, St. Louis' Adam Wainwright being the other.

2014 SEASON:

- Optioned to Triple A Rochester during Spring Training and did not return to the Majors until late July...did not allow a home run in his first 25 Triple A apps. (43IP) from April 6-June 20...converted six of seven save opportunities for the Red Wings.
- Recalled on July 24 and spent rest of the season with Minnesota...eight of his first nine appearances for the Twins were scoreless from July 24-Aug. 15, posting a 0.75 ERA in that span.

2013 SEASON:

- Spent the entire season on the Twins roster, his first with a Major League club.
- Made his Major League debut on April 4 vs. DET, tossing 1.0 scoreless inning with one hit allowed and one strikeout...earned his first Major League win on May 8 at BOS, tossing a career-high 4.0 scoreless innings with two hits allowed.
- Did not allow a home run in his first 23 appearances (34IP) from April 4-June 22.
- Appeared in 49 games, tied for eighth most for a rookie in club history; pitched 76.2 innings, sixth most for a rookie reliever in club history... ranked 10th among AL rookies in innings pitched, first among relievers, and third among all MLB relievers...tied for fifth among AL rookies in appearances.

MINOR LEAGUES:

- In his final year with the Red Sox organization in 2012, started the season with Class A Salem... promoted to Double A Portland on July 15 and converted from starter to reliever upon his promotion...also pitched for the Surprise Saguaros in the Arizona Fall League, going 0-0, with a 3.86 ERA (6ER/14IP) with one save, one walk and 18 strikeouts in 10 games.
- Spent the entire 2011 season with Class A Salem (Boston), tying for first in Carolina League in starts (26)...led Salem in innings pitched (130.0).
- Spent the entire 2009 season with Class A Lowell (Boston) and made one playoff appearance for the club, allowing one run in 3.0 innings pitched.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Recently converted catcher is entering his fifth season in the Astros organization after being drafted in the 39th round of the June 2017 draft.
- Was drafted as a third baseman and played his first two seasons as a corner infielder in the Astros organization before stepping behind the plate in 2019...has made just 29 career starts behind the dish in his minor league career although he did play that position sparingly in college and extensively in high school...owns a .991 career fielding percentage at the position as a pro and has caught 13 of 50 attempting basestealers (26%).
- Has posted a .232 (215x926) career batting average with 51 doubles, 47 homers and a .781 OPS in 269 career minor league games...has made 127 career starts at third base, 58 at first base, 29 at catcher and three at second base.
- Had a breakout 2019 season in which he combined to hit 28 doubles, 21 home runs, 72 RBI and an .842 OPS in 113 games combined with Class A Fayetteville (58g) and Double A Corpus Christi (55g)...named a Carolina League Midseason ALL-STAR that season.

MINOR LEAGUES:

- Did not play in an official game in 2020 due to the cancellation of the minor league season...began the year at minor league Spring Training, but after the COVID-19 shutdown, was added to the Astros 60-man Player Pool and spent the remainder of his season at the Astros alternate training site.
- Had a breakout 2019 season in which he combined for a .248 (99x399) average with 28 doubles, 21 home runs, 72 RBI and an .842 OPS in 113 games combined with Class A Fayetteville (58g) and Double A Corpus Christi (55g)...named a Carolina League Midseason All-Star while playing for the Woodpeckers...began the year as a third baseman before jumping behind the plate once a week in late April...after his midseason promotion to Corpus Christi, started seeing regular action as a catcher in July, rotating between that position and third base...between the two levels, ended up making 29 starts at catcher and 69 at third base.
- Hit 16 homers in 107 games across two Class A levels in 2018...played primarily first and third base.
- Debuted in 2017, appearing in 49 games in Rookie Ball and Short-Season Class A.

NOTES

- Graduated from Jordan HS in Sandy, UT in 2014...was named Utah's Mr. Baseball and the Utah Gatorade Player of the Year in 2014...also was a Louisville Slugger All-American and a Perfect Game All-American...also earned the 2014 Rawlings Gold Glove winner for a high school catcher...in his high school career, was named all-state four times and was a two-time region MVP...was also a four-year letterman in football and a four-year starter at linebacker...his teams won two 5A state championships in his career, in football (2012 as a junior) and in baseball (2014) as a senior.
- Went undrafted out of high school and went on to attend BYU, where he caught a few games, but mostly played first base and third base...hit .305 (184x604) with 40 doubles, 36 homers, 141 RBI and a .956 OPS in his three years (2015-17) at BYU...finished his junior year All-West Coast Conference 1st Team...that season, he led the WCC in fielding percentage (1.000), homers, RBI and total bases.
- Drafted by Houston in the 39th round of the June 2017 draft...signed by Astros scout Mark Ross.
- Invited to Major League Spring Training as a non-roster invite on Feb. 12, 2021...this is his first invite to Spring Training, although he did get an invite to 2020 Summer Camp and spent the 2020 season at the club's alternate training site.

- Was placed on the 15-day Injured List a second time with a left knee sprain on Sept. 1 and missed the remainder of the regular season...underwent a left knee arthroscopy on Sept. 30 at the Cleveland Clinic to remove loose bodies from the joint.

2008 SEASON:

- Spent the entire season in the Mets bullpen, going 6-3 with a 3.55 ERA (25ER/63.1IP) in 82 games, limiting hitters to a .220 (51x232) average.
- Finished tied for third in the NL with 82 games pitched (tied for third-most in club history) and his inherited runners scored percentage of 17% (11-of-63) was the second best mark in the NL.
- Went a club relief record of 4-0 in September with a 1.80 ERA (2ER/10IP) in 14 appearances...his four victories in September were the most by any Mets relief pitcher in the month in one season.
- Did not permit an earned run over 18 outings (12.2 innings) from Aug. 12-Sept. 17...struck out seven consecutive batters spanning five appearances from May 5-14.

2007 SEASON:

- Made his Major League debut with the Mets on OPENING DAY (April 1 at STL) after being drafted the previous June...ranked fifth among NL rookies with 54 appearances...had 45 strikeouts in 44.1 innings of work (9.14 strikeouts per 9.0 innings).
- Hurled 15.1 scoreless innings in his first 17 Major League outings to break RHP Dennis Musgraves' club record (9 shutout frames in 1965) for a rookie reliever to start his career.
- Earned his first MLB victory April 24 vs. COL...pitched in 14 games in April...before Smith, no Mets rookie had pitched at least 10 games in April.
- Named the John J. Murphy Award winner for the Mets most impressive spring by a first-year invitee.

MINOR LEAGUES:

- Began his professional career in 2006 with Class A Short Season Brooklyn of the New York-Penn League...did not allow a run over his last 16 outings with the Cyclones (19 IP)...promoted to Double A Binghamton of the Eastern League on Aug. 1...named one of the top 20 prospects in the NYPL by Baseball America.

PERSONAL:

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Hard-throwing right-hander has compiled a 2-7 record and a 4.00 ERA (77ER/173.1IP) in 152 games across four Major League seasons with Tampa Bay (2017-19) and Miami (2019-20)...was the first pitcher to be used consistently as an opener, making 29 starts for the Rays in 2018 and 27 in 2019.
- Made two appearances for the Marlins in the 2020 NLDS vs. ATL, his first career POSTSEASON action... tossed 2.0 scoreless frames, working around three walks with three strikeouts.
- Was the face of the Rays opener strategy in 2018, becoming the first rookie in MLB history with 25 starts and 25 relief appearances in a single season.
- Pitched for Team USA in the 2016 Futures Game at Petco Park in San Diego, the same team that also featured 3B Alex Bregman.
- Named a Midwest League ALL-STAR in 2014 while pitching for Class A Bowling Green.

NOTES

- Stanek is named after Hall of Fame second baseman Ryne Sandberg of the Chicago Cubs, despite being born into a family of St. Louis Cardinals fans...upon his MLB debut, he became just the third player named Ryne in MLB history, following Sandberg and All-Star pitcher Ryne Duren.
- Graduated from Blue Valley HS (KS) in 2010...as a senior, he was named the Kansas City Star's All-Metro Baseball Player of the Year after leading Blue Valley to a Kansas Class 6A State Championship... selected by Seatle in the third round of the June 2010 draft, but did not sign.
- Elected to attend the University of Arkansas, where he starred for three years, compiling a 22-8 record with a 2.55 ERA and one save...was one of the best collegiate starting pitchers in 2013, his junior season, posting a 10-2 record and a 1.39 ERA (15ER/97.1IP) in 16 starts
- Selected by the Rays in the first round of the 2013 Draft wit the 29th overall selection...signed by Rays scout Rickey Drexler.
- Split his first four MLB seasons between the Tampa Bay and Miami organizations..non-tendered by the Marlins this offseason and signed a Major League contract with Houston on Jan. 8, 2020...although the deal was for one year, the Astros also have control over Stanek's 2022-23 seasons through the arbitration process.

2020 SEASON:

- Made just nine regular season appearances for the Marlins, posting a 7.20 ERA (8ER/10IP) with 11 strikeouts in 10.0 innings...held right-handed hitters to a .194 (6x31) opponent batting average.
- Made the club's OPENING DAY roster and pitched in one game before being sidelined with COVID-19 from Aug. 4-Sept. 4...returned to make nine appearances in September, tossing 9.0 innings.
- Did not pitch in the Marlins Wild Card Series win over the Cubs...made two appearances in the NLDS vs. ATL, his first career POSTSEASON action... tossed 2.0 scoreless frames, working around three walks with three strikeouts.
- Non-tendered by the Marlins on Dec. 2.

2019 SEASON:

- Made his first OPENING DAY roster and made 41 appearances for the Rays, including 27 as an opener...after a midseason trade, finished the season with 22 appearances out of Miami's bullpen.
- With Tampa, went 0-2 with a 3.40 ERA (21ER/55.2IP) and held opponents to a .214 average, with 61 strikeouts...posted a 2.09 ERA (10ER/43IP), limiting opposing hitters to a .190 average in the 27 starts.
- Traded on July 31 along with minor leaguer OF Jesus Sanchez in exchange for RHP Nick Anderson and RHP Trevor Richards.
- Went 0-1 with 7.82 (12.2/11) ERA in 14 relief outings for Tampa, then went 0-2 with a 5.48 ERA out of the bullpen for Miami.

2018 SEASON:

- Made 59 appearances for the Rays (29 starts as an opener) and became the first pitcher with 25 starts and 25 relief outings in a season since Hugh Mulcahy (26 GS, 30 relief appearances) in 1937.
- Also was the first rookie in MLB history with 25 starts and 25 relief appearances in a single season.
- From June 7 to July 10, made nine consecutive scoreless starts to set an MLB record; though he totaled only 13.2 innings over the span.
- Was the first pitcher to ever make 12 appearances and seven starts within a single calendar month without allowing a run.

2017 SEASON:

- Made 21 appearances over three stints with the Rays, his first career Major League action...made his MLB debut on May 14 at Boston (0ER/0.1IP).
- Spent most of year with Triple A Durham and went 3-0 with a 1.21 ERA (6ER/44.2IP) and 60 strikeouts in 37 games.

MINOR LEAGUES:

- Split the 2016 season between Double A and Triple A, appearing in the Futures Game at the MLB All-Star Game...began his season with 11 consecutive starts...was moved to the bullpen and made 23 straight relief appearances between both levels to finish the year...named the Rays Minor League Pitcher of the Month for June.
- Made 13 starts across three levels in 2014...posted a 3-4 record with a 3.63 ERA (18ER/44.2IP) in nine starts with Single A Bowling Green to earn Midwest League Midseason All-Star honors.
- Did not pitch after signing in 2013 due to hip labrum surgery.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Speedy outfielder has hit .246 (49x199) with 39 runs, eight doubles, two triples, one homer, 16 RBI and 16 stolen bases in 19 attempts in 98 MLB games over the last three seasons with Houston (2018-20).
- Is one of the fastest players in the Majors and has clocked in as the fastest player on the Astros in each of his three Major League seasons...per Statcast, had an average sprint speed of 29.7 ft/second in 2018, edging OF Derek Fisher (29.4)...he followed that up by averaging 30.1 ft/second in 2019, besting OF Jake Marisnick (29.2)...and in 2020, edged out 2B Jose Altuve (28.4) with a 28.6 mark.
- Has made playoff rosters in all three of his seasons with Houston, but has not taken a POSTSEASON at-bat, appearing in a total of eight games.
- Has accumulated 170 steals in five minor league seasons (2015-19)...in 469 career minor league games, has hit .305 (559x1831) with 73 doubles, 25 triples, four homers, 148 RBI and a .394 OBP.
- Led all of minor league baseball with 70 stolen bases in 2018...was a Texas League Midseason All-Star.
- Was a Class A Advanced Carolina League Midseason and Postseason All-Star in 2017 after hitting .295 (129x437) with 36 steals and a .412 on-base percentage in 114 games with Buies Creek...led the Carolina League in on-base percentage.
- Tabbed by Baseball America as a Low Class A All-Star in 2016...led the minors with a .358 (124x346) batting average, adding 21 steals and a .423 OBP

NOTES

- Graduated from Braden River High School in Bradenton, Fla. in 2013...named a 2013 Florida Region Honorable Mention by Perfect Game.
- Attended St. Johns River State College and played two seasons collegiately...hit .413 with 16 steals and a .472 on-base percentage in his sophomore season (2015) en route to First Team Mid-Florida Conference honors...also named the MFC Defensive Player of the Year.
- Selected by the Astros in the 12th round of the 2015 draft...signed by Astros scout John Martin.
- Known for his blazing speed, was clocked at a 6.25-second 60-yard dash coming out of college... that tops fellow speedster Mike Trout and his 6.30 60-yard time...Myles also ran the 40-yard dash at 4.4 seconds, which is faster than the average NFL wide receiver (4.48).
- With that speed, had been an outfielder his entire life...in Spring Training of 2019, starting taking ground balls at shortstop, a position he had not played professionally, collegiately or even in high school...he took quickly to the position and ended up playing more Major League games at that position in 2019 (26 games) than in the outfield (18 games)...he did not make an error at that position and was credited with one defensive run saved in the small sample size.
- Was added to the Astros Major League roster on Sept. 15, 2018...has used one of three option years.

2020 SEASON

- Spent his first full season in the Majors, hitting .207 (17x82) with four doubles, eight RBI and six stolen bases...appeared in 28 games...started 19 games in CF and appeared in one game at SS.
- Got off to a hot start in Spring Training, prior to the COVID-19 shutdown...homered three times in 23 at-bats...hit those three homers in his first two games, which included a two-homer game on Feb. 26 vs. STL...one of those three homers in the spring was an inside-the-parker.
- Made his first career OPENING DAY roster.
- Recorded his first career walk-off hit on Aug. 18 vs. COL, singling in the winning run in the 11th inning.
- Made an appearance in six games during the POSTSEASON, but did not get an at-bat.

2019 SEASON:

- Played in 56 games with the Astros across four stints with the club...went 8-for-9 in stolen base attempts (88.9%).
- Played in 18 games in the outfield (12 starts: 8 in CF, 3 in LF, 1 in RF)...made his first career appearances in the infield, appearing in 26 games at shortstop (14 starts) and four games at second base (1 start).
- Went 3x4 with three stolen bases and three runs scored on June 2 at OAK...also scored the game-winning run in the 12th inning...became the fifth player in Astros history to have a game with at least three hits, three runs and three steals, and the first since Jose Altuve on Sept. 10, 2013 at SEA.
- Played his first-career Major League game at shortstop on June 4 at SEA.
- Struck out for the first time in his career on June 5 at SEA...went his first 24-career plate appearances without a strikeout, the longest start-of-career streak by an Astros hitter since C J. R. Towles in 2007 (42 plate appearances).
- Hit his first-career triple in the 14th inning on June 6 at SEA, before scoring the game-winning run on a sac-fly...flew around the bases at 30.5 feet/second, and made it from the batters box to third base in 11 seconds flat for the fastest triple by an Astros player in the Statcast era (since 2015).
- Made the Astros ALDS roster but did not appear in a game.

2018 SEASON:

- Made his Major League debut with the Astros as a September call-up...played in nine games in the outfield, making two starts (1 in LF, 1 in RF)...pinch-ran four times, scoring three runs, with one stolen base as a pinch-runner.
- Per Statcast, posted an average sprint speed of 25.8 feet per second, the top mark on the club.
- Made his Major League debut on Sept. 15 vs. ARI as a pinch-runner...recorded his first-career steal on Sept. 22 vs. LAA.
- Went 2x3 in his first Major League start on Sept. 26 at TOR, going 2x3...recorded his first-career hit on a single in the 5th inning...homered in his next start on Sept. 29 at BAL in Game 2 of Houston's doubleheader.
- Made the Astros roster for the ALDS...did not get an at-bat, but scored a run and a stole a base in two games...entered both games as a pinch-runner (Games 1 and 2).
- Split his minor league season between Triple A Fresno (66g) and Double A Corpus Christi (65g), combining to hit .291 (150x516) with 95 runs, 17 doubles, six triples, one homer, 31 RBI and a .381 OBP...led all of minor league baseball with 70 stolen bases...went 70-for-79 in steal attempts (88.6%)...marked the most steals by an Astros minor league player since Delino DeShields Jr. swiped 101 bags in 2012..was a Texas League Midseason ALL-STAR.

MINOR LEAGUES:

- Named a Class A Advanced Carolina League Midseason and Postseason All-Star in 2017 after hitting .295 (129x437) with 36 steals and a .412 OBP in 114 games with Buies Creek...led the Carolina League in OBP...was promoted to Double A at the end of the season, playing in 13 games with the Hooks...named the MiLB.com Carolina League Player of the Month for June.
- Tabbed by Baseball America as a Low Class A All-Star in 2016 after leading the minors with a .358 (124x346) batting average...added 21 steals and a .423 OBP in a season at Class A Quad Cities (68g) and Class A Advanced Lancaster (19g)...named Quad Cities Player of the Month for June and July.
- Hit .268 (56x209) with 22 stolen bases and a .355 on-base percentage in 58 games with Rookie Level Greeneville in 2015.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-handed starter with a triple-digit fastball enters his fourth professional season since being signed by Houston as an International free agent in April of 2018.
- Has posted eye-popping minor league numbers in his brief career, compiling a 13-2 record with two saves and a 1.86 ERA (28ER/135.2IP) in 37 games (18 starts) across two seasons (2018-19)...has struck out 155 in his 135.2 innings pitched while allowing just four home runs and a .193 opponent average.

MINOR LEAGUES:

- Began his 2020 season in minor league camp... added to the club's Player Pool for the season, pitched at Summer Camp and spent the remainder of the year at the club's alternate training site.
- Had one of the best minor league seasons among all Astros prospects in 2019, combining to go 12-0 with a 1.71 ERA (18ER/94.2IP) in 24 games (10 starts) at two Class A levels...while pitching for Advanced A Fayetteville, earned Carolina Pitcher of the Week honors (July 22-28) after tossing a 7.0-inning complete game shutout on July 24 vs. Lynchburg, in which he allowed one hit, one walk and fanned eight...that shutout performance was part of an 18.0-innings scoreless streak, a franchise record for the Woodpeckers.
- Debuted for the Dominican Summer League Astros in 2018, making 13 appearances (eight starts) and posting a 2.20 ERA (10ER/41IP) with 48 strikeouts in 41.0 innings pitched.

NOTES

- First name is pronounced: hoh-HAHN-say.
- Originally agreed to a professional deal with the Brewers in 2015, but that contract was voided... three years later and despite Torres' advanced age for an international prospect, the Astros signed Torres at the age of 22 out of the Dominican Republic...signed by Astros scout Roman Ocumarez.
- Houston has had success signing Dominican prospects in their 20's, including LHP Framber Valdez, who was 21 when the Astros signed him, and RHP Enoli Paredes, who was 20 at his signing.
- Was one of 13 Dominican players invited to Astros Spring Training, including eight pitchers.
- Received his first invite to Major League Spring Training this offseason...is signed to a minor league contract for the 2021 season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-hander has pitched in parts of two Major League seasons with Houston, posting a 3-2 record with a 3.44 ERA (27ER/70.2IP) in 14 appearances (12 starts)...has allowed two or fewer earned runs in 12 of those 14 career appearances, including all five of his starts in 2020.
- Has extensive POSTSEASON experience despite making just 14 regular season appearances...has pitched in eight postseason games, making four starts, to a 1-1 record and a 2.81 ERA (8ER/25.2IP).
- Earned that one postseason win in Game 4 of the 2019 World Series at WSH, tossing 5.0 scoreless innings in Houston's 8-1 win...became the second Mexican-born starting pitcher to earn a win in the Fall Classic, joining LHP Fernando Valenzuela (1981).
- Is entering his seventh year in the Astros organization...in his minor league career, went 17-13 with a 3.37 ERA (121ER/323.1IP) and 351 strikeouts in 68 games (55 starts) from 2015-19...missed the entire 2017 season after undergoing Tommy John surgery.

NOTES

- Signed by the Astros as a 19-year old, non-drafted free agent out of Mazatlan, Sinaloa, Mexico on March 2, 2015...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Carlos Alfonso and Raul Lopez.
- Formerly known as José Luis Hernandez, José began going by the last name of Urquidy, at the start of the 2019 season...Urquidy made the change in honor of his mother, Alma Urquidy, who raised him in Mazatlan, supported his baseball journey and prioritized his school, delaying his professional signing until the age of 19.
- Is one of 11 Mexican-born players to appear in at least one game for the Astros and is one of seven pitchers...joins RHP Humberto Castellanos as active Mexican players on the Astros 40-man roster.
- In 2019, became just the second Mexican-born pitcher to earn a win as a starter in the World Series joining LHP Fernando Valenzuela, who did so in 1981...that feat earned him a meeting with Mexican president Andres Manuel Lopez Obrador, who hosted him at his office in Mexico City.
- Was added to the 40-man roster on July 2, 2019, the date of his MLB debut...was left unprotected in the 2018 Rule 5 Draft, but went undrafted...has accumulated just over one year of service time across parts of two Major League seasons.

2020 SEASON:

- Began the season on the Injured List due to a positive test for COVID-19...was quarantined in his home for over a month before registering the negative tests required to return to action...had to build back up strength and stamina after the layoff, delaying his return until Sept. 5.
- Upon his return, held the opposition to two runs-or-fewer in all five of his starts, which came in September...prior to Urquidy, the last Astros pitcher to begin a season by allowing two runs-or-fewer in each of his first five starts was Gerrit Cole in 2018.
- In September ranked tied for seventh in the American League in ERA and seventh in WHIP (1.01).
- Ended the season with a career-long streak of four consecutive quality starts.
- Made four POSTSEASON appearances (three starts), going 0-1 with a 4.02 ERA (7ER/15.2IP), six walks and 12 strikeouts...started Game 2 of the Wild Card Series at MIN, Game 3 of the ALDS vs. OAK, and Game 3 of the ALCS vs. TB...appeared in relief in Game 7 of the ALCS at TB.

2019 SEASON:

- Had an impressive nine-game showing in the Majors with Houston after making his MLB debut...allowed one run-or-fewer in each of his last four appearances of the season (1.50 ERA, 3ER/18IP).
- Became the first homegrown Mexican-born player to appear in a game for the Astros...became just the second Mexican-born pitcher to start a game for Houston, joining RHP Edgar Gonzalez, who started six games for the 2012 Astros.

- Became the fifth player in MLB history from Mazatlan, Mexico, and the first since RHP Walter Silva appeared in six games for the Padres in 2009.
- Made his MLB debut on July 2 at COL, throwing 3.2 innings and allowing two runs in a 9-8 Astros win.
- Recorded his first-career Major League win on July 20 vs. TEX...pitched 7.0 innings of one-run ball, striking out nine with no walks and two hits allowed in the Astros 6-1 win over the Rangers.
- Struck out 17 batters while walking just one over his first three MLB starts (13IP)...marked the fewest walks over a player's first three starts in club history...also had the fewest walks over a pitcher's first four starts in club history (3).
- Struck out a career-high 10 batters over 5.0 innings of one-run ball on Sept. 11 vs. OAK...allowed just one hit...became the fourth Mexican-born pitcher in MLB history to record a start with 10+ strikeouts and one hit-or-fewer, joining Jaime García (4/14/16 vs. MIL), Oliver Pérez (7/7/02 at COL) and Francisco Córdova (7/12/97 vs. HOU).
- Made the Astros POSTSEASON roster for all three rounds, appearing in four games...went 1-0 with a 0.90 ERA (1ER/10IP) in four games (one start).
- Threw 1.2 scoreless innings, recording three strikeouts in Game 4 of the ALDS at TB in his postseason debut...earned his first career postseason hold in Game 6 of the ALCS vs. NYY, allowing one earned run over 2.1 innings, while striking out a career postseason-high five batters.
- Earned his first-career postseason win in Game 4 of the World Series...threw 5.0 scoreless innings, allowing two hits, while striking out four batters... became the third Mexican-born pitcher to earn a World Series win, joining RHP Aurelio Lopez (1984) and LHP Fernando Valenzuela (1981)...became the seventh rookie starter to post a scoreless start in the World Series in a 50-year span, joining RHP Walker Buehler (2018), RHP Yordano Ventura (2014), LHP Madison Bumgarner (2010), RHP Les Straker (1987) and RHP Gary Gentry (1969).
- In 20 combined games between Triple A Round Rock (13g) and Double A Corpus Christi (7g), went 7-5 with a 4.46 ERA (51ER/103IP), 21 walks and 134 strikeouts...at the time of his first MLB stint, was leading the Pacific Coast League in strikeouts per 9.0 innings (13.19) and ranked eighth in the PCL in ERA (min. 40IP).

MINOR LEAGUES:

- Had a strong 2018 season in his return from Tommy John surgery...went a combined 2-2 with a 2.35 ERA (15ER/57.1IP) and 48 strikeouts in 13 games (11 starts) at Class A Advanced Buies Creek (9g) and Class A Short Season Tri-City (4g)...did not begin his season until June 21 on a rehab assignment at Tri-City...moved up to Buies Creek for his final nine starts...ended the season by throwing 15.0 consecutive innings pitched without allowing an earned run...threw a 9.0-inning complete game on Aug. 25...struck out 10 batters over 6.0 shutout innings on Aug. 31, his final start of the season... pitched in two postseason games, allowing one run on four hits over 7.1 innings pitched against Winston-Salem...threw 3.0 relief innings in Buies Creek's 2-1 win over Potomac in the Carolina League Championship game.
- Missed the entire 2017 season while recovering from Tommy John surgery.
- Went 6-5 with a 2.94 ERA (41ER/125.1IP) and 127 strikeouts over 125.1 innings pitched between Class A Advanced Lancaster (7g) and Class A Quad Cities (17g) in 2016...was a two-time Midwest League Pitcher of the Week (July 11-17, June 13-19)... named Quad Cities Pitcher of the Month in June... was promoted to Lancaster on July 25.
- In his first professional season of 2015, pitched at Greeneville (6g) and Tri-City (5g), combining to go 2-1 with a 3.35 ERA (14ER/37.2IP) and 42 strikeouts in 11 games (5 starts).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Left-hander has gone 13-11 with a 4.19 ERA (83ER/178.1IP) and 178 strikeouts in 45 games (23 starts) in the Majors with Houston from 2018-20.
- Has been a groundball machine in his Major League career...owns a career 63% groundball percentage, which ranks as the best mark among Major Leaguers with at least 150 innings pitched from 2018-20.
- Has held left-handed hitters to a .202 batting average (35x173) and a .602 OPS during his time in the Majors...has allowed just one homer to a lefty.
- Named the Astros 2020 Pitcher of the Year by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA...set career-highs in starts (10), quality starts (6) and strikeouts (76), and tied his career-high in innings pitched (70.2) despite the shortened season...among AL pitchers, ranked second in home runs per 9.0 innings (0.64), fifth in walks per 9.0 innings (2.04, 16BB), sixth in innings pitched (70.2), eighth in strikeouts (76), and eighth in strikeouts per 9.0 innings (9.68)...also led the Majors in groundball to flyball ratio (3.56) and groundball rate (60%).
- Was dominant in the 2020 POSTSEASON, going 3-1 with a 1.88 ERA (5ER/24IP) and 26 strikeouts in four games (three starts)...earned wins in each round, Game 1 of the Wild Card Series at MIN, Game 2 of the ALDS vs. OAK and Game 5 of the ALCS vs. TB.
- Made his MLB debut on Aug. 21, 2018 at SEA (0ER/4.1IP), earning the win, and followed that up by winning his first MLB start on Aug. 26, 2018 at LAA (1ER/5IP)...became the fifth pitcher in club history to earn a win in his first two MLB appearances...also Bill Dawley (1983), Mark Lemongello (1976), J.R. Richard (1971) and Don Wilson (1966-67).
- Named a Double A Texas League ALL-STAR in 2018 before being promoted midseason...finished the season ranking third in the league in strikeouts, with 120 in his 94.1 innings pitched.
- While he was not a member of Major League Spring Training camp in 2017, he did impress in five Spring Training games with the Astros as a minor league call-up...struck out seven batters in his 7.0 innings with the Major League club in 2017 Spring Training...pitched in the Arizona Fall League in 2017, going 1-1 with a 3.20 ERA (7ER/19.2IP) and 14 strikeouts in six starts for the Mesa Solar Sox.

NOTES

- Was signed by the Astros as a 21-year-old non-drafted free agent out of the Dominican Republic on March 18, 2015...at 21-years old, Valdez was five years older than most amateur free agent signees from the Dominican Republic...according to Valdez, other teams had been skeptical of potential arm issues and didn't want to take a chance on him because of his age.
- Valdez began pitching at the age of 16 and had interest from scouts within a couple years of his conversion...by the age of 21, Valdez was finally seen by the Astros at a workout staged by an independent trainer in Guayacanes, DR, a small town just west of San Pedro de Macaris...after seeing him throw just a handful of pitches, the Astros invited him to throw at their Dominican Academy and promptly signed him following that tryout...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Tom Shafer, Roman Ocumarez and David Brito.
- Uses his curveball on 33% of his pitches, registering most of his strikeouts on the breaker, which checks in with a spin rate in the 96th percentile of all Major League curves...he learned the pitch from fellow Dominican and former Brewers prospect Angel Ventura, who pitched in parts of eight minor league seasons (2011-19) with the club...Ventura's curveball was nicknamed "The Ax".
- Spent his 2019-20 offseason focused on the mental aspect of the game, adopting the mantra "attitude above everything"...he credits this thought process in his improvements made to his focus, composure and on-field body language.
- Added to the Astros Major League roster in September of 2018...has used one of his three option years...is playing on a one-year contract for the 2021 season.

2020 SEASON:

- Had a breakout season, ranking as one of the top pitchers in the AL...was named the Astros Pitcher of the Year by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA.
- Among AL pitchers, ranked second in home runs per 9.0 innings (0.64), fifth in walks per 9.0 innings (2.04, 16BB), sixth in innings pitched (70.2), eighth in strikeouts (76), and eighth in strikeouts per 9.0 innings (9.68)...led the Majors in groundball to flyball ratio (3.56) and groundball rate (60%)... generated 114 ground balls, the most in the AL... ranked seventh in MLB and third in the AL in FIP, per Stats Inc. (2.83).
- Was one of baseball's most efficient pitchers, as he ranked fourth in the Majors in fewest pitches per inning (14.8), behind Adam Wainwright (14.2), Kyle Hendricks (14.3), and Kenta Maeda (14.8).
- Averaged 2,982 rpms on his curveball, giving him the 10th-highest spin rate among all MLB curves.
- Set career-highs in starts (10), quality starts (6) and strikeouts (76), and tied his career-high in innings pitched (70.2) despite the shortened season.
- Over his 10 starts, went 5-3 with a 3.92 ERA (28ER/64.1IP) and 68 strikeouts...tossed 6.1 scoreless innings as a reliever (one outing).
- Posted a career-best 5.6% walk rate, the fifth-best mark in the Majors, as he walked just 16 of 288 batters faced...posted a 15.6% walk rate in his 2018 rookie season, and a 13.4% walk rate in 2019.
- Made the Astros OPENING DAY roster for the second consecutive year...started Houston's fifth game of the season.
- Tossed 6.1 innings of relief, allowing one unearned run in Houston's 6-5 extra innings victory on Aug. 2 at LAA...was the longest relief appearance by an Astros pitcher since Shane Reynolds tossed 7.0 innings of relief on July 17, 1994 at PIT.
- On Aug. 24 vs. LAA, recorded his first-career double-digit strikeout game, as he fanned 11 Angels hitters in 7.0 innings of work...finished all 11 of his strikeouts with his curveball, the fifth-most that any pitcher has gotten on curveballs in one game since the 2008 season.
- Was one of the AL's best pitchers in August, posting a 3-1 record with a 1.85 ERA (7ER/34IP) and 38 strikeouts across five games (four starts)...among AL pitchers in August, ranked third in ERA, seventh in strikeouts and tied for sixth in wins.
- On Sept. 17 vs. TEX, struck out 11 batters for the second time on the season...became the sixth lefty in Astros history to have multiple 11-strikeout games in the same season, joining Dallas Keuchel (4g in 2015), Wandy Rodriguez (2g in 2011 and 2009), Randy Johnson (6g in 1998), Denny Lemaster (2g in 1969) and Mike Cuellar (3g in 1967, 2g in 1966).
- Was dominant in the POSTSEASON, going 3-1 with a 1.88 ERA (5ER/24IP), 10 walks and 26 strikeouts in four games (3 starts).
- Made his postseason debut in Game 1 of the Wild Card Series at MIN...earned the win in relief after finishing the game with 5.0 scoreless innings...gave up just two hits and two walks with five strikeouts... became the 13th pitcher in MLB history to finish a postseason game with 5.0+ scoreless relief innings, and the first to do it since Madison Bumgarner ended Game 7 of the 2014 World Series at KC with 5.0 scoreless relief innings...became the first AL pitcher to do this since Pedro Martinez in Game 5 of the 1999 ALDS at CLE...became the fourth pitcher in MLB history finish a game with 5.0+ scoreless frames in his postseason debut, joining Joe Price (1987 NLCS Game 5), George Frazier (1981 ALCS Game 2) and Moe Drabowsky (1966 World Series Game 1).
- Pitched Houston to a 5-2 win in Game 2 of the ALDS at Dodger Stadium in what was his first-career postseason start...tossed 7.0 innings of two-run ball, allowing five hits and one walk with four strikeouts on 103 pitches...became the second Dominican-born pitcher in Astros history to start a postseason game, joining Jose Lima (Game 2 of the 1999 NLDS at ATL).
- Started Game 1 of the ALCS at TB...at 26 years, 327 days old, became the third-youngest pitcher in franchise history to start Game 1 of a postseason series...the only two to do so at a younger age were Wade Miller (25 years, 26 days old) in Game 1 of the 2001 NLDS vs. ATL and Brandon Backe (26 years, 191 days old) in Game 1 of the 2004 NLCS at STL.
- Struck out nine batters in Game 6 of the ALCS at TB, leading Houston to a 7-4 win (1ER/6IP).

2019 SEASON:

- Began the season on the Astros OPENING DAY roster, but ended up splitting the season between Houston and Triple A Round Rock.
- Made eight starts with Houston, going 2-4 with a 7.07 ERA (28ER/35.2IP)...in his 18 relief outings, went 2-3 with a 4.63 ERA (18ER/35IP).

- Had the best season of his career, winning the BBWAA Cy Young and MVP Awards, and earning his fourth trip to the ALL-STAR Game.
- Led all American League pitchers with 24 wins, a 2.40 ERA and 250 strikeouts to become just the second Tigers pitcher to ever lead all three categories in a single season (also, RHP Hal Newhouser in 1945).
- Selected the American League Most Valuable Player and was unanimously named the American League Cy Young Award winner...became the seventh Tigers player to win the Most Valuable Player Award, joining Mickey Cochrane (1934), Hank Greenberg (1935, 1940), Charlie Gehringer (1937), Hal Newhouser (1944, 1945), RHP Denny McLain (1968) and LHP Guillermo Hernandez (1984).
- Became the third pitcher in Tigers history to win the Cy Young Award, joining McLain (1968, 1969) and Hernandez (1984)...became the 10th pitcher in Major League history to win both the Most Valuable Player and Cy Young Awards during the same season...joined RHP Don Newcombe (1956), LHP Sandy Koufax (1963), RHP Bob Gibson (1968), McLain (1968), LHP Vida Blue (1971), RHP Rollie Fingers (1981), Hernandez (1984), RHP Roger Clemens (1986) and RHP Dennis Eckersley (1992).
- Joined Newcombe to become only the second player in history to win the Most Valuable Player, Cy Young and Rookie of the Year Awards.
- Tabbed the Sporting News' Player of the Year...also named to the Sporting News' American League All-Star squad...tabbed the best pitcher and rated as possessing the best fastball, best curveball, third-best changeup and third-best pick-off move in the American League by Baseball America
- Selected the Major League Baseball Player of the Year and the American League Outstanding Pitcher as part of the Players Choice Award balloting... named Tiger of the Year by the Detroit chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America... earned the Wilbur "Bullet" Rogan Award from the Negro League Baseball Museum as the American League's Pitcher of the Year.
- Topped the American League with an .828 winning percentage, 251.0 innings pitched, a .192 opponent batting average, 6.24 hits per 9.0 innings and 8.39 baserunners per 9.0 innings, while he tied for the lead with 34 games started.
- His 24 wins tied him for the 10th-highest single-season total in Tigers history...marked the most wins by a Tigers pitcher since LHP Mickey Lolich finished with 25 victories in 1971.
- His .192 opponent batting average and 6.24 hits per 9.0 innings were new franchise records.
- Posted a 16-3 record when starting following a Tigers loss during the 2011 season...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it marked the most wins by a Major League pitcher following a loss by his team since LHP Steve Carlton posted 19 such wins for the Philadelphia Phillies in 1972.
- Earned the nod as the Tigers starter on OPENING DAY on March 31 at New York's Yankee Stadium, marking the fourth consecutive season he served as Detroit's Opening Day starter...fanned eight batters against the Yankees in a no-decision.
- Recorded the 1,000th strikeout of his career on April 22 vs. CWS, fanning A.J. Pierzynski in the 7th.
- Shared AL Player of the Week honors for May 2-8 with Minnesota's LHP Francisco Liriano after posting a 1-0 record and 1.50 ERA (3ER/15IP) in two starts...shared AL Player of the Week honors two more times during the season, June 13-19 with Tampa Bay's RHP James Shields and Sept. 12-18 with Erick Aybar of Los Angeles (AL).
- Tossed the second no-hitter of his career on May 7 at TOR, the seventh no-hitter in Tigers history, joining RHP Virgil Trucks as the only two pitchers in Tigers history with multiple no-hitters...according to STATS, became the 27th pitcher to record two career no-hitters in the AL or NL.
- Selected the Tigers Pitcher of the Month for May after posting a 3-0 record, a 2.62 ERA (13ER/44.2IP) and 33 strikeouts in six starts.
- Garnered both American League and Tigers Pitcher of the Month honors for June...finished 6-0 with a 0.92 ERA (5ER/49IP) and 54 strikeouts in six starts during the month...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, since 1913, when earned runs became an official American League statistic, the only other Tigers pitcher to win six-or-more games during a calendar month in which he posted an ERA below 1.00 was Frank Lary in September of 1956...Lary finished 7-0 with a 0.86 ERA (6ER/63IP) in seven starts during the month.
- Earned the win in 12 straight starts July 21-Sept. 18, compiling a 2.28 ERA (22ER/87IP)...according to Elias, his streak of 12 straight starts with a win established a Tigers record...the 12-game winning streak established a career best for Verlander.
- Tabbed the Tigers Pitcher of the Month for July after posting a 4-2 record, a 1.99 ERA (10ER/45.1IP) and 48 strikeouts in six starts.
- Registered the 100th win of his career on Aug. 11 at CLE...became the 16th pitcher in Tigers history to earn 100 wins for the club...recorded his 20th win of the season on Aug. 27 at MIN...became the first Major League pitcher to record 20 wins prior to the end of August since Arizona's RHP Curt Schilling did so in 2002.
- Selected the Tigers Pitcher of the Month for August...finished 5-0 with a 3.12 ERA (12ER/34.2IP) and 40 strikeouts in five starts during the month.
- Fanned 11 batters in Game 3 of the ALDS on Oct. 3 vs. NYY...marked the third-highest strikeout total by a Tigers pitcher during a single POSTSEASON game, trailing 14 strikeouts by RHP Joe Coleman (1972 ALCS) and 12 strikeouts by RHP "Wild Bill" Donovan (1907 World Series)...marked the fifth time a Tigers pitcher has posted 10-or-more strikeouts during a postseason game.

2009 SEASON:

- Named Tiger of the Year by the Detroit chapter of the BBWAA after topping the American League with 269 strikeouts...also was selected to the American League ALL-STAR squad for the second time in his career.
- Was first Tigers pitcher to lead the league in strikeouts since RHP Jack Morris did so in 1983... led the AL with 35 games started, 240.0 innings pitched and 10.1 strikeouts per 9.0 innings, while he tied for the league lead with 19 wins.
- His 269 strikeouts led all Major League pitchers... became the fourth Tigers pitcher to lead the majors in strikeouts, joining LHP Hal Newhouser (1944 and 1945), RHP Virgil Trucks (1949) and LHP Mickey Lolich (1971).
- Rated as possessing the best fastball and curveball in the American League by Baseball America.
- Made his second career OPENING DAY start on April 6 at TOR.
- Selected both the American League Pitcher of the Month and Tigers Pitcher of the Month for May... owned a 5-0 record, a 1.52 ERA (7ER/41.1IP) and 56 strikeouts in six starts during the month...prior to Verlander, RHP Steve Sparks was the last Tigers pitcher to earn American League Pitcher of the Month honors, doing so in August of 2000.
- Named the Tigers Pitcher of the Month in June after going 2-1 with a 2.91 ERA (11ER/34IP) in five starts.
- Tossed his third complete game of the season on July 24 vs. CWS...did not allow a run despite loading the bases with no one out in the 9th inning, and according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first time a Major League starting pitcher pitched out of a bases-loaded, no-outs situation in the 9th inning-or-later without allowing a run since 1985.
- Finished 4-2 with a 2.57 ERA (12ER/42IP) in six starts in July to earn Tigers Pitcher of the Month honors.

2008 SEASON:

- Started a career-high 33 games during his third full season with the Tigers.
- Led the AL with 17 losses, while he finished third with 14 hit batsmen, tied for third with 87 walks and tied for fifth with 108 earned runs allowed.
- Made his first career OPENING DAY start on March 31 vs. KC...did not figure in the decision after allowing four runs in 6.0 innings of work.
- Limited opponents to two earned runs-or-fewer in eight straight starts June 11-July 20, marking the second-longest such streak by an American League pitcher in 2008...Verlander's streak was the longest by a Tigers pitcher during a single season since RHP Dave Rozema also posted eight straight starts June 2-July 16, 1977.

2007 SEASON:

- Completed his second full season at the Major League level and was named an ALL-STAR after leading the club's pitching staff with 18 wins, 201.2 innings pitched and 183 strikeouts...also led the AL with a .750 winning percentage.
- Won 18 games for the Tigers which made him the sixth pitcher to win at least 17 games in the season after winning the Rookie of the Year Award (Elias).
- Received 7.32 runs per 9.0 innings, tops in the AL.
- Earned AL Player of the Week honors for June 11-17, marking the second time he garnered the award... won both of his starts during the week, compiling a 1.80 ERA (3ER/15IP) and fanning 18 batters.
- Fired the first no-hitter in Comerica Park history on June 12 vs. MIL, the sixth no-hitter in Tigers history...fanned 12 batters in the outing...was the first no-hitter in club history since Jack Morris on April 7, 1984 at CWS and the first no-hitter thrown by a Tigers pitcher in Detroit since RHP Virgil Trucks on May 15, 1952 at WAS at Briggs Stadium.
- Garnered Tigers Pitcher of the Month honors for June after compiling a 4-1 record and 2.65 ERA (34.0IP/10ER) in five starts...also tabbed the Tigers Pitcher of the Month for September after compiling a 4-1 record and 3.20 ERA (14ER/39.1IP) in six starts.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-hander has entered the last two seasons as the Astros top prospect, and one of the top prospects in baseball...MLB.com ranks him third among right-handed pitchers in the game, behind only Casey Mize (DET) and Nate Pearson (TOR), and 17th among all prospects overall.
- Has carried high prospect rankings his entire professional career, appearing in MLB.com's top 100 prospect lists entering 2017 (#84), 2018 (#9), 2019 (#7), 2020 (#19) and 2021 (#17).
- Has pitched in parts of four minor league seasons (2016-19) with the Astros, going 9-15 with a 4.71 ERA (103ER/197IP) in 57 games (47 starts)...has recorded 289 strikeouts in 197.0 career innings.
- Dominated the Arizona Fall League in the 2018 and 2019 offseasons, posting a combined 4-4 record with a 2.65 ERA (15ER/51IP) and 68 strikeouts in 12 starts...went 3-2 with a 2.88 ERA (8ER/25IP) in six starts for Peoria in 2019...went 1-2 with a 2.42 ERA (7ER/26IP) in six starts for Scottsdale in 2018...was named to the 2018 AFL Rising Stars Team.
- Selected to the 2018 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game.
- Was named a 2017 MiLB.com Organizational All-Star after advancing to Double A Corpus Christi in what was his first full minor league season...by doing so, he became just the fifth player in a 20-year span to be drafted out of high school and advance to the Double A level in his first full minor league season, joining Chad Billingsley, Zack Greinke, Clayton Kershaw and Dylan Bundy.

NOTES

- Graduated from Alamo Heights HS in San Antonio in 2016...was pitching for his high school team on the night of the 2016 draft (June 8) when he was selected by Houston...that night, which was the UIL Class 5A Semifinal at Dell Diamond in Round Rock, Whitley fanned 11 in 6.2 innings on 123 pitches to lead his club into the state championship game.
- In regular season action, Whitley posted a 9-1 record and a 0.31 ERA in his senior season at Alamo Heights...struck out 126 batters in his 68.0 innings of work...for his stellar senior season in 2016, he was named to the Rawlings-Perfect Game 1st Team All-America and Texas All-Region 1st Team.
- Also has international experience, having played on the USA Baseball 18U National Team in 2015.
- Selected by Houston with the 17th overall pick in the first round in the 2016 draft...was the only high school player taken by Houston in the top 25 rounds in 2016...officially signed by the Astros on June 22, 2016...signed by Astros scout Noel Gonzales-Luna.
- Added to the Astros 40-man roster this offseason... had been a non-roster invitee to MLB Spring Training each of the last two seasons (2019-20).

MINOR LEAGUES:

- Was a non-roster invite to Major League Spring Training for the second consecutive season in 2020...made four appearances for the Astros (5ER/6IP) before the COVID-19 shutdown...reported to Summer Camp and impressed in live BPs but did not make the Opening Day roster...spent his entire 2020 season on the 60-man player pool at the Astros Alternate Training site...had his season cut short due to a right forearm strain.
- Combined to post a 3-7 record with a 7.99 ERA (53ER/59.2IP) and 86 strikeouts between four levels in the Astros system in 2019...pitched in the Arizona Fall League following the year and went 3-2 with a 2.88 ERA (8ER/25IP) in six starts for Peoria.
- Made eight regular season starts for Double A Corpus Christi in 2018...didn't debut with the Hooks until June 8 following a 50-game suspension handed down by MLB...made six consecutive starts and exited his outing on July 5 with an oblique injury...was an MLB Futures Game selection but was unable to participate in the contest due to injury...returned to the mound in August to make two more starts before re-injuring his oblique... returned for the postseason, making one start on Sept. 7 at San Antonio (1ER/2.2IP)...following the regular season, pitched for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League, where he as named an AFL Rising Star...posted a 2.42 ERA (7ER/26IP) with 36 strikeouts in 26.0 innings across six starts...earned AFL Pitcher of the Week on Oct. 13.

- Worked his way up the Astros minor league system in 2017, moving from Class A Quad Cities to Advanced Class A Buies Creek to Double A Corpus Christi...by doing so, he became just the fifth player in a 20-year span to be drafted out of high school and advance to the Double A level in his first full minor league season, joining Chad Billingsley, Zack Greinke, Clayton Kershaw and Dylan Bundy... combined to post a 5-4 record with a 2.83 ERA (29ER/92.1IP) with 143 strikeouts in 23 games (18 starts)...was named an MiLB.com Organizational All-Star following the season.
- Debuted as a professional in 2016, tossing 18.2 innings in eight games between two affiliates... signed his professional contract on June 22 after being drafted on June 8.

2020 SEASON IN REVIEW

2020 CLUB NOTES

FINAL RESULTS: The Astros fell just short of winning the AL pennant, losing a gripping ALCS in seven games to the Tampa Bay Rays...they made it that far by dispatching two division winners this postseason, sweeping the Twins in two games in the Wild Card Round and beating the A's in four games in the ALDS.

LCS HISTORY: The Astros made their fourth straight trip to the American League Championship Series and their eighth appearance overall in an LCS (1980, 1986, 2004-05, 2017-20)...they became the third team in AL history and the fifth team in MLB history to advance to four straight LCS (since 1969)...the other clubs to do so: the Cardinals (2011-14), Yankees (1998-2001), Braves (1991-99) and A's (1971-75).

POSTSEASON APPEARANCES: The Astros made their 14th appearance in the postseason in club history in what was the 59th year of the franchise that began in 1962...the Astros has now won a postseason series in four straight seasons (2017-20), leading all Major League teams in postseason games (57) and ranking tied for first in wins (33) in that time frame...in games played, the Astros top the Dodgers (54g, 33 wins) and Yankees (34g, 18 wins).

FOUR STRAIGHT: The Astros secured a spot in the postseason by finishing second in the AL West... this appearance gave Houston four straight years in the playoffs, a first in club history...Houston has also made the playoffs in five of the last six years.

THE ROAD GOES ON: Beginning on Sept. 21, the Astros played their final 20 games away from Minute Maid Park, as that last trip took them to Seattle, Arlington, Minneapolis, LA and San Diego...the Astros went 10-10 in those 20 contests, including three postseason series, two at neutral sites.

POWER FIVE: Per Elias, including their 13 games this postseason, 2B Jose Altuve, 3B Alex Bregman, SS Carlos Correa, 1B Yuli Gurriel and OF George Springer have played in more postseason games together than any other group of five teammates in MLB history (57 games)... Altuve and Correa have played 60 postseason games together in the field, the most by any 2B/SS duo in MLB history.

SECOND TO NONE: 2B Jose Altuve has been arguably the best second baseman in postseason history, as he leads that position in career postseason hits (74), home runs (18) and RBI (39)...in this 2020 postseason, Altuve hit .375 (18x48) with five home runs, 11 RBI and a 1.229 OPS in 13 games.

LEADING MAN: OF George Springer recorded 10 RBI this postseason and now owns the MLB record for postseason RBI as a leadoff hitter (34), passing SS Derek Jeter (32 RBI) on that list.

HEAVY HITTERS: OF George Springer hit four homers this postseason, giving him 19 in his postseason career, which ranks tied for fourth in MLB history...2B Jose Altuve countered with five postseason homers, giving him 18 in his career.

ALL-TIME POSTSEASON HOMERS IN MLB HISTORY

1. Manny Ramirez: 29	T4. George Springer: 19
2. Bernie Williams: 22	T5. Jose Altuve: 18
3. Derek Jeter: 20	T5. Reggie Jackson: 18
T4. Albert Pujols: 19	T5. Mickey Mantle: 18

RBI MACHINE: SS Carlos Correa hit .362 (17x47) and led the club in HR (6) and RBI (17) this postseason...he upped his career postseason RBI total to 50, which rank seventh in MLB history.

ALL-TIME POSTSEASON RBI IN MLB HISTORY

1. Bernie Williams: 80	T4. David Ortiz: 61
2. Manny Ramirez: 78	6. Albert Pujols: 54
3. David Justice: 63	7. Carlos Correa: 50
T4. Derek Jeter: 61	8. Reggie Jackson: 48

THE WILD CARD SERIES: The Astros dominated their Wild Card Series with the Twins, winning two close ballgames with a cumulative score of 7-2...the Astros got huge relief appearances from a couple starters, LHP Framber Valdez (0ER/5IP) in Game 1 and RHP Cristian Javier (0ER/3IP) in Game 2, who each picked up a win...SS Carlos Correa (3x6, HR, RBI) and LF Kyle Tucker (3x8, 2RBI) led the offense, plating four of the club's seven runs in the series...this marked the Astros second postseason series sweep in club history, also the 2018 Division Series vs. the Indians.

ALDS RECAP: The Astros dispatched the A's in four games in what was a high-scoring, topsy-turvy ALDS at Dodger Stadium...if there was an MVP awarded for the series, it would have gone to SS Carlos Correa, who hit .500 (7x14) with three homers and 11 RBI in the four contests...Correa's 11 RBI tie as the second-most in Division Series history...he tied Nomar Garciaparra (11 RBI in the 1998 ALDS) and trailed only John Valentin (12 RBI in the 1999 ALDS) in that category.

HOMER HAPPY: The Astros-A's ALDS was all about the home run, with both clubs connecting for 12 homers in the four games...the 12 homers for a team and the 24 combined homers in the series are Division Series records...the 2004 Astros were one of three teams that held the previous record, as they hit 11 in their five-game NLDS vs. the Braves.

2020 CLUB NOTES

HOLLYWOOD STAR: OF George Springer hit .389 (7x18) with a double, two home runs and four RBI in the ALDS, which was played at Dodger Stadium...including the 2017 postseason, Springer has had huge success in the postseason at that venue:

- he has played in eight playoff games at Dodger Stadium in his career, hitting .400 (14x35) with three doubles, five homers and nine RBI...he recorded an RBI in five straight postseason games at the venue from Game 2 of the 2017 World Series thru Game 2 of the 2020 ALDS.
- Springer's five postseason homers at Dodger Stadium rank tied for second all-time, trailing only Reggie Jackson, who hit six in his 10 playoff games at the venue.

MAKING A STATEMENT: The Astros offense was the story of the club's 10-5 victory in Game 1 of the ALDS vs. the A's, as they posted one of the best offensive performances in club postseason history...the highlights:

- The Astros 16 hits were the second-highest total for a postseason game in club history, trailing only the 17 hits posted in Game 5 of the 2004 NLDS at ATL.
- SS Carlos Correa hit two homers, to become the first shortstop in MLB history to post two multi-homer games in postseason play...he also hit two homers in Game 4 of the 2015 ALDS vs. KC.
- CF George Springer became the sixth player in club postseason history to post a four-hit game...most recently accomplished by LF Marwin Gonzalez in Game 2 of the 2018 ALDS vs. CLE.
- 3B Alex Bregman recorded two hits and homered for the fourth consecutive year on Oct. 5, also doing so in Game 1 of the 2017 ALDS vs. BOS, Game 1 of the 2018 ALDS vs. CLE and Game 2 of the 2019 ALDS vs. TB.

ALCS RECAP: The resiliency of this Astros team showed throughout the postseason and was on full display in the ALCS, as the club almost completed one of the largest comebacks in Major League history...the offense was led by 2B Jose Altuve, who hit .462 (12x26) with three homers and five RBI in the series...LHP Framber Valdez had two great starts in the series, going 1-1 with a 2.25 ERA (3ER/12IP) with 17 strikeouts.

ASTROS PUSH ALCS TO SEVEN: The Astros lost the first three games of the ALCS to the Rays, becoming the 39th team in MLB history to go down 3-0 in a seven-game series...they went on to become just the fourth team, out of the 39, to force a Game 6 and just the second team out of that group to force a Game 7...they weren't able to complete the comeback, as they dropped just the fifth Game 7 in club history.

GREINKE WINS GAME 4: The Astros turned around the ALCS with a win in Game 4 behind RHP Zack Greinke (2ER/6IP), who was making his 19th career postseason start...prior to earning the win, Greinke had gone 10 straight postseason starts without a victory, one start shy of the MLB record.

SEÑOR CLUTCH: SS Carlos Correa hit a walkoff homer in Game 5 of the ALCS, joining DH David Ortiz as the only players in MLB history with three career walkoff hits in the postseason...Correa also won Game 2 of the 2019 ALCS vs. NYY (HR), and Game 2 of the 2017 ALCS vs. NYY (double).

TAG TEAM: In Game 5 of the ALCS, the Astros became the first team in Major League history to have a leadoff homer (CF George Springer) and a walkoff homer (SS Carlos Correa) in the same postseason game...for Springer and Correa, this marked the eighth time for the duo to homer in the same postseason game, the most by any two teammates in MLB history.

ROOKIE HURLERS: The Astros used five rookie pitchers in Game 5 of the ALCS, which ties as the most used by one team in a postseason game (also the 2013 Cardinals in Game 6 of the WS)... they carried nine rookie pitchers on their ALCS roster and used seven rookies this postseason, who combined for a 3.28 ERA (18ER/49.1IP) in 35 appearances (four starts).

GAME 7 STARTERS: The pitching matchup in Game 7 of the ALCS between RHP Lance McCullers Jr. and RHP Charlie Morton made history...that duo was already forever linked together in Astros lore as the duo that started and closed both Game 7s in the 2017 Astros World Series run...they started it in the ALCS, in which Morton (5IP) started and won, while McCullers (4IP) relieved him and earned the save...then in the World Series, McCullers (2.1IP) started, while Morton (4IP) relieved him for the win...per Elias, they became the first pair of players in postseason history to pitch in the same winner-take-all game as teammates and then later start against each other in a winner-take-all game.

AT THE HELM: Dusty Baker, named the Astros manager on Jan. 29, became the first manager in MLB history to take five different teams to the postseason...Baker also managed the Giants (1997, 2000, 2002), Cubs (2003), Reds (2010, 2012-13) and Nationals (2016-17) into the playoffs...in his career, Baker has amassed 1,892 managerial victories in the regular season, which ranks 15th all time, immediately trailing Hall of Famer Bill McKechnie (1,896) by just four wins.

2020 CLUB NOTES

BAKER IN THE POST: In the postseason, Dusty Baker is now 31-37 all time, and has taken three teams to the LCS, also the 2002 Giants and 2003 Cubs...Baker has also managed nine winner-take-all games, the most all time, immediately ahead of Bobby Cox (8).

LOCKED UP: On July 28, the Astros exercised the 2021 contract options for Manager Dusty Baker, 3B coach Gary Pettis and pitching coach Brent Strom...Baker will return for his second season, while Pettis will be entering his seventh consecutive (2015-21) and Strom his eighth (2014-21).

GET WELL GARY: On Sept. 26, the Astros announced that third base coach Gary Pettis had been diagnosed with multiple myeloma...he was sidelined through the 2020 postseason, but is expected to make a full recovery...Pettis last coached third base in a game for the Astros on Sept.15 before being sidelined with hip discomfort...tests conducted to find out the cause of the discomfort led to the diagnosis of multiple myeloma.

IN THE BOX: The Astros made the postseason in their first year under General Manager James Click, who was named the 13th GM in club history on Feb. 3...Click joined the Astros from Tampa, where he served as the Rays VP of Baseball Ops.

BBWAA AWARDS: The Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America announced the Astros 2020 season award winners:

- Astros MVP: OF George Springer
- Pitcher of the Year: LHP Framber Valdez
- Rookie of the Year: RHP Cristian Javier
- DK Good Guy of the Year: RHP Brad Peacock
- Fred Hartman Award: Astros clubhouse manager Carl Schneider

HOME COOKIN': The Astros did most of their damage in the regular season at Minute Maid Park, evidenced by their 20-8 (.714) home record, the second-best home record in the Majors...this will also go down as the second-best home winning percentage in a single season in club history, trailing only the 2019 Astros and their 60-21 (.741) home record...the Astros only played 28 home games in 2020 due to a pair of postponements.

ROOKIE HURLERS: The Astros matched the Marlins by using an MLB-high 15 rookie pitchers in 2020, including five rookie starters...of those 15 rookies, 10 made their Major League debuts...prior to this season, the most rookies to pitch for the Astros in a single season in club history was 13 back in 2011.

LIMITING K'S: Astros hitters combined for the fewest strikeouts in the Majors with 440 on the season...the club also had the fewest strikeouts in the AL in 2017 and 2019, while finishing with the second fewest in 2018.

QUICK STARTS: The Astros led the AL in 1st-inning runs, posting a healthy 47 runs in their 1st innings, besting the Yankees (42) and Mariners (42) in that category...CF George Springer was the catalyst for this, posting a 1.008 OPS in his 50 1st-inning plate appearances this season, which included three leadoff homers.

MARCH TO 2,000: The Astros finished the 2020 regular season having hit exactly 2,000 home runs in Minute Maid Park history, including 1,938 in regular season action and 62 in the postseason... Houston got there by virtue of OF George Springer, who hit No. 1999 and No. 2000 in the club's final home game of 2020...unsurprisingly, Springer also hit home run No. 1500 at the stadium in the 2016 season...the final two homers for Springer gave him 79 in his career at MMP, which ranks tied for third all-time in stadium history.

ALL-TIME ASTROS HOME RUNS AT MINUTE MAID PARK

1. Lance Berkman: 151	T3. George Springer: 79
2. Jeff Bagwell: 108	5. Carlos Lee: 74
T3. Craig Biggio: 79	6. Jose Altuve: 72

THROWING SOME LEATHER: The Astros led the Majors with a .991 fielding percentage, committing just 20 errors in their 60 games...Houston committed just four errors in their last 26 games... that .991 fielding percentage is the second-best team fielding percentage in Major League history, trailing only the 2013 Baltimore Orioles (.991).

SPRINGER SPRUNG: CF George Springer turned his season around on Sept. 3, as he posted a .341 (31x91) average with two doubles, two triples and nine homers in his last 23 games, hitting safely in 21 of those 23 contests, which included a season-long, 12-game hitting streak...in this span, Springer raised his batting average by 71 points up to .265, and his OPS by over 150 points from .719 to a club-high .899.

LEADOFF LASERS: CF George Springer connected for three leadoff homers this season, giving him 39 for his career, which ranks eighth all-time in MLB history...11 of Springer's leadoff homers have come against the Rangers, the most hit by any player against the Rangers in their franchise history...the only player to hit more leadoff homers against any single opponent was OF Rickey Henderson, who hit 12 leadoff homers against the Indians.

2020 CLUB NOTES

UP THE CHARTS: OF George Springer moved up two spots on the Astros all-time home run list.

HOME RUNS IN ASTROS HISTORY

1. Jeff Bagwell: 449	4. Jimmy Wynn: 223
2. Lance Berkman: 326	5. George Springer: 174
3. Craig Biggio: 291	6. Glenn Davis: 166

GOLD GLOVE CALIBER: SS Carlos Correa posted a Major League-best .995 fielding percentage in 2020, committing just one error in 212 total chances...he also led all American League shortstops in DRS (8), while ranking second in double plays turned (35)...Correa's fielding percentage is the best in a single season in club history, topping the .990 fielding percentage posted by Adam Everett in 2006...Correa's .995 mark also ranks as the fourth-best in a single season in MLB history, trailing only seasons by Mike Bordick (.998 in 2002), Cal Ripkin Jr. (.996 in 1990) and Omar Vizquel (.995 in 2000).

DR. SMOOTH: OF Michael Brantley was the Astros most consistent hitter this season, as he led the club in batting average (.300) and OBP (.364), while ranking second in OPS (.840)...the 2020 season marked Brantley's sixth season to hit .300-plus and his third consecutive (2018-20)... Brantley just missed the mark in 2017, hitting .299.

THE TUCKER TURRET: OF Kyle Tucker hit six triples in 2020, the most by any player in the Majors this season...he also finished his first full season ranking tied for sixth in the AL in RBI with 42...Tucker led the Astros in both categories, while also leading the club in hits (56), stolen bases (8) and extra-base hits (27).

BEHIND THE DISH: C Martín Maldonado was a near everyday presence behind the plate for Houston, as he led the Majors in starts (46) and innings played (392) behind the dish...he also excelled in the box, leading the club in walks (27) and ranking second among all AL catchers in RBI (24).

EXTENSION MENTION: Prior to Game 1 of the Wild Card Series, the Astros announced that they had agreed to terms with 1B Yuli Gurriel on a one-year contract extension covering the 2021 season... the deal also includes a club option for 2022.

HOMEBOY: RHP Lance McCullers Jr. continued his dominance at Minute Maid Park this season, going 3-0 with a 1.42 ERA (5ER/31.2IP) in five starts at the venue...in his career, he's 20-7 in 44 career starts at home with a 2.51 ERA, which is nearly half his career road ERA (4.99).

HIRED GUN: RHP Zack Greinke started this season 3-0, giving him a remarkable 11-1 record with a 2.97 ERA (36ER/109IP) in his first 18 starts with the Astros...Greinke tied the club record for most wins within a pitcher's first 12 decisions with the team (source: Elias Sports Bureau):

MOST WINS, FIRST 12 DECISIONS WITH HOUSTON

1. Z. Greinke: 11-1 ('19-20)	3. Roy Oswalt: 10-2 ('01)
1. J. Agosto: 11-1 ('87-88)	3. Verlander: 10-2 ('17-18)
3. Randy Johnson: 10-1 ('98)	3. Gerrit Cole: 10-2 ('18)
3. R. Clemens: 10-2 ('04)	3. M. Feliz: 10-2 ('16-17)

THE GREAT FRAMBINO: LHP Framber Valdez was a workhouse for the Astros this season as he led the club with 70.2 innings pitched, which ranked sixth in the AL...Valdez had a breakout campaign, in what is his third Major League season, setting career highs in wins (5) and strikeouts (76)... he also led the Majors in groundball to flyball ratio (3.56) and groundball rate (60%)...Valdez generated 114 groundballs, the most in the AL.

YOUNG CRISTIAN: Rookie RHP Cristian Javier was named a finalist for the AL Rookie of the Year after going 5-2 with a 3.48 ERA in his 12 MLB appearances (10 starts)...his .188 opponent batting average was the lowest among all AL rookies and ranked fourth among all AL pitchers (min. 150 batters faced), behind only Shane Bieber (.167), Kenta Maeda (.168) and Lucas Giolito (.184).

PRESSLY ON POINT: Astros closer RHP Ryan Pressly converted 11 of his last 13 save chances dating back to Aug. 15...since that date, Pressly posted a 2.08 ERA (4ER/17.1IP) with 25 strikeouts in his 17.1 innings.

COVID-19: The Astros had three players miss time this season due to positive COVID-19 tests, which were discovered on intake testing...DH Yordan Alvarez missed the first 18 games of the season, while LHP Cionel Pérez missed the first 25 contests...RHP Jose Urquidy had the most difficult return after his positive test, as he spent over a month quarantining in his apartment before receiving the necessary negative tests...when cleared, Urquidy had to build back up his strength and stamina, eventually missing 37 team games before a return to the club's rotation on Sept. 5.

OSUNA OUT FOR SEASON: Astros closer RHP Roberto Osuna appeared in only four games this season, posting a 2.08 ERA (1ER/4.1IP) with one save...he was placed on the IL on Aug. 2 with right elbow soreness and did not return to action in 2020.

2020 CLUB NOTES

VERLANDER UNDERGOES TOMMY JOHN: On Sept. 19, the Astros announced that reigning American League Cy Young Award winner RHP Justin Verlander would undergo Tommy John surgery, officially ending his 2020 campaign...the Astros got one start out of Verlander this season, a win on Opening Day, before he was placed on the IL with a right forearm strain...he attempted a comeback and even faced live hitters in September before deciding to undergo the medical procedure to repair the ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow...he had successful surgery on Sept. 30.

ALVAREZ HAS KNEE SURGERY: DH Yordan Alvarez, the 2019 AL Rookie of the Year, underwent season-ending arthroscopic surgery on Aug. 26 on both of his knees...a slight tear of the patellar tendon in Alvarez's right knee was repaired, while a routine cleanup was performed on his left knee... Alvarez began physical therapy immediately and is expected to make a complete recovery prior to 2021 Spring Training...Alvarez played in two games for the Astros this season, hitting a homer with four RBI.

DEVENSKI OUT FOR SEASON: RHP Chris Devenski battled injuries all season, eventually undergoing an arthroscopic procedure on his right elbow on Sept. 15 to have a bone spur removed... the recovery time for Devenski was expected to be approximately four months, which ended his 2020 season...a five-year Major League veteran and an All-Star in 2017, Devenski made just four appearances for the Astros this season.

PEACOCK UNDERGOES SURGERY: RHP Brad Peacock, who played parts of eight seasons with the Astros (2013-20), underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder on Oct. 6...Peacock, who began the season on the injured list, was limited to just three appearances in 2020 due to shoulder soreness.

QUADRUPLE DOUBLE: The Astros played four doubleheaders this season, going 1-1-2, due to a variety of postponements caused by COVID-19 positive tests, player protests and weather related issues...prior to this season, the last time the Astros had four doubleheaders in a single year was back in 1985, when they played five.

HOLLYWOOD COMEBACK: Trailing 5-2 entering the 9th on Sept. 12 at LAD, the Astros rallied for five runs on Dodgers closer RHP Kenley Jansen to win 7-5...prior to that night, the last time the Astros entered the 9th inning trailing and scored five-plus runs to take the lead was nearly five years ago to the date, on Sept. 13, 2015 at LAA.

GEORGE'S DAY: OF George Springer had a monster game in Sept. 20 vs. ARI, hitting two home runs, including an inside-the-parker, for his second multi-homer game of the season and the 14th of his career...per Elias, this marked just the fourth time in club history for a player to have a two-homer game, including an inside-the-park home run...Ken Caminiti did so twice (1993, 1994) and Jimmy Wynn once (1967).

THE FOUR HORSEMEN: On Sept. 24 at TEX, four longtime Astros CF George Springer, 3B Alex Bregman, 2B Jose Altuve and RF Josh Reddick all homered in the same game...this marked the first time for this quartet to all hit longballs in the same contest.

THE LONE STAR SERIES: The Astros and Rangers split their season series 5-5, but with a +5 run differential in those games, the Astros won their fourth consecutive Silver Boot (2017-20)...all-time, the Rangers own the advantage, winning the Silver Boot in 12 seasons of the 20-year rivalry.

REMEMBERING JIMMY AND BOB: The Astros lost franchise icons Jimmy Wynn and Bob Watson in March and April of 2020...both men were known as outstanding baseball players and even better people...they will be missed and will not be forgotten...the Astros Youth Academy already pays tribute to both men with the Jimmy Wynn Training Center and the Bob Watson Education Center on campus in Acres Homes.

RIP JOE: 2B Joe Morgan, who played 10 seasons with the Astros franchise (1963-71, 1980), sadly passed away on Oct. 12 at the age of 77... Morgan played a total of 22 years in the Majors after debuting with the Colt .45s in 1963...Morgan is a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame and was inducted into the Astros Hall of Fame as part of the inaugural class in 2019.

FREE COVID TESTING AT MMP: The Astros and the Texas Division of Emergency Management (TDEM) offer free COVID-19 testing at Minute Maid Park's Lot C every day, seven days a week, throughout the 2020 calendar year.

EMERGENCY RELIEF DRIVE AT MMP: The Astros Foundation and Cheniere Energy hosted a successful emergency supply drive at Minute Maid Park in mid-September...the emergency items collected were shipped directly to the Catholic Charities of Lake Charles and were distributed to community members impacted by Hurricane Laura.

2020 CLUB NOTES

MEDIA WALL OF HONOR INDUCTION: Longtime Houston broadcaster Kevin Eschenfelder has been voted in as the 2020 inductee into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor...the Astros will recognize Eschenfelder at Minute Maid Park at a to be determined date during the 2021 season...each season, a current or former Houston media member is inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor for significant and lasting contributions to the landscape of Houston baseball through their work in journalism or broadcasting.

AT THE ASTROS YOUTH ACADEMY: The Astros Foundation partnered with local organizations to host weekly drive-through distributions of milk, fresh produce and disposable masks at the Astros Youth Academy, which serves Houston's Acres Homes Community...distributions began on Aug. 10 and were held at the AYA on Tuesdays and Thursdays, beginning at 3 p.m...as of mid-September, the Astros had distributed over 12,000 gallons of milk, over 250,000 pounds of fresh produce and over 20,000 masks.

THE ASTROS REMEMBER

JERRY FLORES: Veteran HPD officer Jerry Flores passed away on Oct. 1, 2020, at the age of 56...Flores worked for the Houston Police Department for 28 years on patrol and in the Gang Task Force and also worked with Major League Baseball as security for the Astros during their 2017 World Series run...Flores worked closely with the Astros and their families that October, earning a World Series ring for his efforts...a native of Houston, Flores, also known as JFlo and the Mayor of Midtown, will be remembered for his heart of gold and his genuine care for others.

BILL GLADSTONE: The Chairman and Principal Owner of the Astros former Class A affiliate, the Tri-City ValleyCats, Bill Gladstone, passed away on April 30, 2020, at the age of 88... Gladstone owned the ValleyCats franchise for close to 30 years, originally purchasing it as the Pittsfield Mets in 1992, and had been a member of the Astros family for close to 20 years...his club first affiliated with the Astros in 2001, which became the Pittsfield Astros, before their move to Troy, NY, for their 2002 season...Gladstone was elected to the board of directors for the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in 1991 and was heavily involved in the baseball industry for the past three decades... during his tenure in Tri-City, the ValleyCats captured three New York-Penn League titles and consistently finished near the top of the league in various attendance metrics...in 2015, Gladstone was named the "King of Baseball" by Minor League Baseball, a longstanding tradition that recognizes a veteran of professional baseball for outstanding dedication and service to the industry.

CARROLL HARDY: A member of the Colt .45s, Carroll Hardy passed away Aug. 9, 2020, at the age of 87...Hardy had an eight-year Major League career, spending time with the Indians (1958-60), Red Sox (1960-62), Colt .45s (1963-64) and Twins (1967), appearing mainly as a reserve outfielder...he holds the distinction as being the only player to pinch hit for Ted Williams, doing so in the 1960 season for the Red Sox after the Hall of Famer fouled a ball off his foot and could not finish his at-bat...a gifted athlete, Hardy's baseball career was overshadowed by his lengthy connection to football...he starred as halfback at the University of Colorado and was a third-round pick of the 49ers in 1955...Hardy played one year in the NFL before returning to the diamond...following his baseball career, Hardy worked his way up from an associate ticket manager with the Denver Broncos to eventually become the team's assistant GM...he spent 18 years working for the Broncos, retiring in 1987.

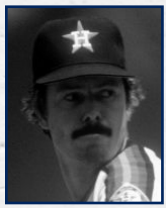

BRUCE HENDERSON: Former Houston Astros security supervisor Bruce Henderson passed away at the age of 70 in Richmond, Texas on July 20, 2020... Henderson worked for the Astros for over 10 years, serving as security at off site events and working every home game in section 106 down the third base line...Henderson had a long connection to baseball, as he played collegiately at Long Island University and was drafted three times, eventually signing with the Cardinals in 1972... Henderson played one year in the Cardinals minor league system before injuries derailed his career... he moved to Houston in 1980 and worked as a teacher and coach for 25 years, spending his final 23 years before retirement in 2006 at Taylor High School in Katy, where he taught chemistry and coached the varsity football and baseball teams... he'll be remembered for his passion towards loyalty, honesty, hard work and ethics.

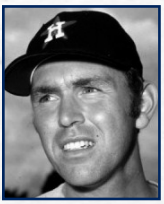

THE ASTROS REMEMBER

EDDIE KASKO: The Astros first team captain in franchise history Eddie Kasko passed away at the age of 88 on June 24, 2020...Kasko had a 10-year Major League career, as he spent time with the Cardinals (1957-58), Reds (1959-63), Colt .45s and Astros (1964-65) and Red Sox (1966)...he was an All-Star with the Reds in 1961 and was the Colt .45s everyday shortstop in 1964...following his Astros career, Kasko played one season with the Red Sox and would work a total 29 season in the Boston organization as a player, manager, scout and front office executive...in his front office career, Kasko is credited with playing a pivotal role in signing such stars as Roger Clemens and Mo Vaughn...he was inducted into the Red Sox Hall of Fame in 2010.

MATT KEOUGH: Nine-year Major League veteran and longtime scout Matt Keough passed away on May 1, 2020, at the age of 64...he played for five teams in his career, the A's (1977-83), Yankees (1983), Cardinals (1985), Cubs (1986) and Astros (1986), and was named an All-Star as a rookie in 1978 and the AL Comeback Player of the Year in 1980...following his Major League career, Keough played four seasons in the NPB for Hanshin before attempting a comeback in the Majors... he made the Angels in 1992, but was struck by a foul ball while sitting in the dugout in a Spring Training game, an injury which eventually ended his playing career...Keough went on to coach and scout in the Majors and eventually served as a special assistant for the A's...he was referenced several times in Michael Lewis' best selling book "Moneyball" as Matty and described as having the air of a man taking a break from some perpetual Hawaiian vacation of the soul.

KEITH LAMPARD: Former Astros second-round pick Keith Lampard passed away on Aug. 30, 2020 at the age of 74...Lampard was selected by the Astros in the 1965 draft and eventually made it to the Majors to play two seasons with Houston (1969-70)...he has the distinction of becoming the first player born in the United Kingdom to play for the franchise...Lampard hit just one Major League homer, a walkoff shot, but did have huge success in his minor league career, which lasted thru the 1973 season...he hung up his cleats and went on to earn his master's degree, going on to teach, coach, and be a public school administrator and counselor over the next 30 years...according to his hometown paper The Oregonian he will be remembered for his humility, warmth, kindness and generosity.

JOHAN MAYA: Longtime Astros minor league player, coach, manager and international scout Johan Maya passed away on July 23, 2020, at the age of 40...a native of Venezuela, Maya signed with the Astros as an infielder in 1996 and played two seasons in their minor league system (1999-2000), winning championships in both the Appalachian League and Midwest League...he retired as a player to coach in his native Venezuela, for the Astros Summer League team, a team that also won two championships... he would bounce between scouting and player development roles for the Astros for a total of 14 years, finishing his career in Houston as a scout in 2018...he spent the last two years scouting for the Diamondbacks before his early passing...Maya will be remembered as a great person, a family guy and true baseball man.

THE ASTROS REMEMBER

DENIS MENKE: Two-time All-Star shortstop Denis Menke passed away on Dec. 1, 2020, at the age of 80...Menke enjoyed a 40-year career in Major League Baseball, playing in the National League for the Milwaukee and Atlanta Braves (1962-67), the Houston Astros (1968-71, 1974) and the Cincinnati Reds (1972-73)....he was elected to the National League All-Star team in 1969 and 1970 as an Astro and went on to play for the Big Red Machine in the 1972 World Series...after his playing career ended, Menke moved to player development, coaching for four different clubs, including a six-year stint (1983-88) back in Houston as the team's hitting coach and later their third base coach...Menke retired from baseball after spending the 2000 season as the bench coach for the Reds.

JOE MORGAN: Hall of Fame second baseman Joe Morgan, one of the first stars of the Houston Colt .45s and Astros, passed away on Oct. 11, 2020, at the age of 77... Morgan played 10 of his 22 Major League seasons with Houston (1963-71, 1980)...after playing parts of two seasons (1963-64) for the Colt .45s, Morgan took over as the starting second baseman for the newly-named Houston Astros in 1965, a position he would hold through the 1971 season...in that span, he established himself as one of the top all-around second basemen in the National League...in 1966, he became the first player in franchise history to be voted as an All-Star starter...after being traded to the Reds prior to the 1972 season, Morgan went on to win two MVP Awards and two World Series Championships (1975-76)...in 1980, he would return to the Astros where he helped lead them to the first division championship and playoff berth in franchise history...in 2019, Morgan was part of the inaugural class of the new Astros Hall of Fame and attended the ceremony at Minute Maid Park in August of that season...he was elected to the Reds Hall of Fame in 1987 and to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1990.

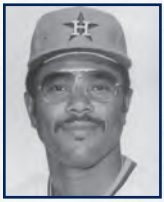

JIM OWENS: Known as "The Bear", 12-year Major League veteran Jim Owens passed away on Sept. 8, 2020, at the age of 86...Owens played for just three teams in his long Major League career, the Phillies (1955-56, 1958-62), Reds (1963) and Astros (1964-67) and served parts of five years as the Astros Major League pitching coach (1967-72) immediately following his retirement... known for causing a ruckus at times, Owens had a playful wit, which caused issues with Phillies General Manager Gene Mauch and later umpire Shag Crawford, who called a Major League record three balks on Owens in a single inning in a game in 1963, a Major League record...in 1965, Owens and teammate Turk Farrell bought a boa constructor and two baby alligators from a pet shop and unleashed them in the Spring Training clubhouse much to their teammates surprise and horror... despite his off the field shenanigans, Owens was a solid reliever for the Astros, posting 18 wins and a 3.60 ERA (100ER/250IP) in his four seasons with the club.

DON SUTTON: Hall of Fame pitcher and longtime broadcaster Don Sutton passed away on Jan. 18, 2021, at the age of 75 after a long battle with cancer...a four-time All-Star (1972-73, 1975, 1977), Sutton had a career record of 324-256 and an ERA of 3.26 while pitching for the Dodgers (1966-80, 1988), Astros (1981-82), Brewers (1982-84), Athletics (1985) and Angels (1985-87)...he joined the Astros in 1981 as a free agent signing and made 50 starts for the club before being traded to Milwaukee in August of 1982 in exchange for three players to be named later, one being OF Kevin Bass...Sutton pitched for a total of 23 seasons, his last being 1988 with the Dodgers... he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998...Sutton also had a long career in the broadcast booth, which started in 1989 and lasted almost three decades, as he called Braves games on TV and radio for all but two years from 1989-2018.

THE ASTROS REMEMBER

BOB WATSON: The Astros family lost one if its most iconic figures on May 14, 2020, with the passing of Bob Watson at the age of 73...after being signed by Houston as a 19-year-old free agent in 1965, Watson made his MLB debut with the Astros in 1966, and would go on to become one of the finest players in franchise history...during his long career in Houston, which would span parts of 14 seasons (1966-79), Watson, nicknamed "The Bull", was a two-time All-Star (1973, '75), hitting over .300 four times and reaching 100 RBI in a season twice while hitting in the middle of the Astros lineup in the pitcher-friendly Astrodome...he holds the distinction of scoring MLB's one millionth run, accomplishing this feat on May 4, 1975 vs. the Giants at Candlestick Park...Watson still ranks in the top 10 on the Astros all-time lists in most major offensive categories, including batting average (.297, T-2nd), hits (1,448, 6th), home runs (139, 7th), RBI (719, 5th) and OBP (.364, 4th)...after retiring as a player in 1984 after 19 seasons in the Majors, Watson would become a hitting coach, most notably for the 1988 AL Champion Oakland A's...following the 1988 season, he was hired by the Astros as assistant general manager and later took over as the club's general manager following the 1993 season, becoming just the second African-American to hold this position in MLB history...Watson would later become the first African-American GM to win a World Series after helping to guide the New York Yankees to the title in 1996...Watson also served on the Baseball Assistance Team (B.A.T.) Board of Directors for several years, playing a vital role as a member of Grant Committee...Watson would later serve as MLB's Vice President of Rules and On-Field Operations for several years...he also had a successful stint working for USA Baseball as Chairman of the Selection Committee and General Manager of Professional Baseball Operations...during his tenure with USA Baseball, Watson helped to construct many successful teams, including the Gold Medal-winning team at the 2000 Summer Olympics in Sydney, Australia...in January of 2020, Watson was elected to the Houston Astros Hall of Fame as part of the second class...in March of 2020, the Astros hosted a ceremony dedicating the new Bob Watson Education Center, which is located at the Astros Youth Academy in Houston...The Bob Watson Education Center (BWEC) will provide a more comprehensive approach to building great leaders in the community.

JIMMY WYNN: Former Astros All-Star Jimmy Wynn passed away on March 26, 2020, at the age of 78...after his playing career, for several years, Wynn played an active role in the Astros community efforts...at the time of his passing, Wynn was a part of the Astros front office as Community Outreach Executive...as a player, despite his small frame (5'9"), Wynn boasted tremendous power as a hitter and a strong throwing arm, earning him the nickname "Toy Cannon"...he made his Major League debut with the Houston Colt .45s in 1963, and ended up playing 11 seasons for the Colt .45s/Astros...despite playing in the cavernous, pitcher-friendly Astrodome, Wynn reached the 30-homer mark twice in his career, including a career-high 37 in 1967, his first All-Star season...he also reached 20 home runs seven times while in Houston...other highlights included a Major League-best 148 walks in 1969 and a career-best 43 stolen bases in 1965...he also reached 100 runs scored three times as an Astro...after his last season in Houston, Wynn was the franchise leader in hits, home runs, RBI and walks...in 15 Major League seasons overall, Wynn hit 291 home runs with 964 RBI and 225 stolen bases while posting an .802 OPS...over the years, Wynn made hundreds of appearances while supporting the community outreach efforts of the Astros and the Astros Foundation...on June 25, 2005, Wynn's No. 24 jersey was officially retired by the Astros...on Aug. 3, 2019, Wynn was inducted into the Astros Hall of Fame as part of the inaugural class...Wynn was also recognized for his outstanding community work on June 24, 2011, when the Astros and Minute Maid dedicated the Jimmy Wynn Training Center, which is a state-of-the-art baseball facility located at the Astros Youth Academy.

ASTROS HALL OF FAME PRESENTED BY HOUSTON METHODIST

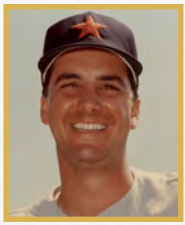

The Astros Hall of Fame presented by Houston Methodist was established in 2019, and resides in Hall of Fame Alley on the main concourse of Minute Maid Park in left-center field. The Astros Hall of Fame was created to give Astros fans an opportunity to celebrate and connect with the greatest individuals and moments in Astros franchise history.

The inaugural Astros Hall of Fame class of 2019 featured 16 individuals: the nine Astros with retired numbers, as well as the members of the Astros Walk of Fame located on Texas Ave. outside Minute Maid Park. Each member of the Astros Hall of Fame has their own custom plaque on display inside Hall of Fame Alley.

In 2021, the Astros will induct another six franchise icons into the Astros Hall of Fame as the Class of 2020: Lance Berkman, Cesar Cedeno, Roy Hofheinz, Roy Oswalt, Billy Wagner and Bob Watson.

ASTROS HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

CLASS OF 2019

An original member of the Colt .45s franchise, Aspromonte took the first plate appearance in Houston franchise history, as he was the leadoff hitter in the club's inaugural game on April 10, 1962. Aspromonte recorded the first hit, run and stolen base in Houston franchise history, and was an Opening Day starter in all seven of his seasons with Houston. He established a franchise record for grand slams (6), and in 1965 he tallied 14 game-winning hits and a team-high 11 game-winning RBI. Aspromonte also recorded the first regular season homer by an Astros player in the Astrodome on April 24, 1965.

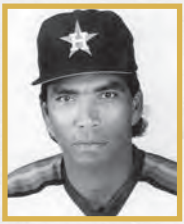

5 • 1B JEFF BAGWELL (1991-2005)
CLASS OF 2019

One of two players inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a member of the Astros, Bagwell played his entire 15-year career with Houston, leading the club to six playoff appearances, four division titles and a National League Pennant (2005). He became the first player in Astros history to be named MVP of his league (1994), and was the first Astros player to win Rookie of the Year (1991). The franchise leader in homers (449), walks (1401) and RBI (1529), Bagwell was also an elite defensive player, winning a Gold Glove Award in 1994. He is the only first baseman in MLB history to record 200 steals and 400 homers.

7 • 2B CRAIG BIGGIO (1988-2007)
CLASS OF 2019

The first player to be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a member of the Astros, Craig Biggio played all 20 of his Major League seasons with the Astros. He is the only player in Astros history to reach 3,000 total hits, and is the MLB all-time leader in hit by pitches (285) and ranks third all-time in leadoff home runs (53). Biggio was named to seven All-Star teams, won five Silver Slugger Awards and four Gold Gloves. Biggio impacted the community off the field as well with his lifelong dedication to the Sunshine Kids organization, and in 2007 he won MLB's Roberto Clemente Award for his efforts in the community.

25 • LF JOSE CRUZ (1975-87)

17 • 1B LANCE BERKMAN (1999-2010)
CLASS OF 2020

One of the greatest pure hitters in baseball over his 15-year Major League career, Lance Berkman was a five-time All-Star in 12 seasons with Houston, including four seasons in which he finished in the top-five of the National League MVP voting. A first-round pick by the Astros out of Rice University in 1997, Berkman went on to become the Astros all-time leader in career on-base percentage (.410) slugging percentage (.549) and OPS (.959). Berkman, affably known as "Big Puma" during his time in Houston, helped lead the Astros to three playoff appearances, including the club's first appearance in the World Series in 2005.

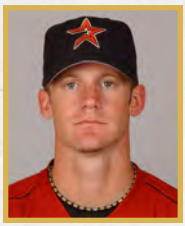

28 • CÉSAR CEDEÑO (1970-81)
CLASS OF 2020

After bursting into the Major Leagues with a fourth-place finish in the 1970 NL Rookie of the Year voting as a 19-year-old, César Cedeño quickly became one of the top outfielders in baseball and one of the best young players in Major League history. The ultimate five-tool player, Cedeño hit .285 with 199 homers, 436 doubles, 60 triples and 550 stolen bases across his 17-year Major League career, with 12 of his years spent in Houston. In 1972 at age 21, he began a stretch in which he received five consecutive Gold Glove awards (1972-76) while being named to four National League All-Star teams in that five-year stretch.

FOUNDER & OWNER • ROY HOFHEINZ (1962-76)
CLASS OF 2020

One of the founding fathers of the Astros, Judge Roy Hofheinz was the first owner of the Houston franchise. A state legislator at age 22, a Harris County judge at age 24 and the mayor of Houston at age 40, Hofheinz played an instrumental role in getting the Colt .45s to Houston in 1962, and in 1965 renamed the club the Astros to coincide with the opening of the first domed stadium in professional sports history, the iconic Astrodome. Hofheinz revolutionized baseball and the sports industry in many ways, including his decision to utilize an artificial playing surface in 1966 which he dubbed "AstroTurf".

44 • RHP ROY OSWALT (2001-10)
CLASS OF 2020

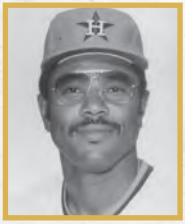

Roy Oswalt ushered in a new era of Astros baseball as the club's first bona-fide ace to pitch inside their new ballpark in downtown Houston, Minute Maid Park. After debuting as a rookie in 2001 with a 14-3 record and a 2.73 ERA, good for a runner-up finish in the NL Rookie of the Year voting, Oswalt went on to win 143 games with a 3.24 ERA in 303 games (291 starts) in an Astros uniform. A 23rd-round pick in the 1996 draft out of Holmes Community College in Ridgeland, Miss., Oswalt ranks second in franchise history in career wins, second in strikeouts (1593), third in innings pitched (1932.1) and fifth in ERA.

2020

In perhaps the strangest year in Major League history, MLB completes a 60-game regular season in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic…after navigating a tumultuous offseason, a Spring Training shutdown and a three-month hiatus, the Astros return to the field in July and advance all the way to the American League Championship Series for their fourth straight season, this time under new Manager Dusty Baker and new General Manager James Click…their postseason run, which included series wins over the Twins and Athletics, followed a 29-31 regular season record in the truncated season…the club overcame huge blows just to make the postseason, as the Astros got just one start out of reigning AL Cy Young winner Justin Verlander and just two games out of reigning AL Rookie of the Year Yordan Alvarez…Houston also loses four keys from their bullpen, three to season-ending injuries and one to an opt out…outfielder Kyle Tucker established himself as an everyday player, after leading the club in extra-base hits, while starter Framber Valdez leads the club in innings pitched in a breakout campaign…Houston ties a Major League record by using 15 rookie pitchers, including 10 to make their MLB debut…Cristian Javier leads that group, as the young starter finishes third in the AL Rookie of the Year voting…despite down regular season offensive numbers, Carlos Correa and Jose Altuve lead the club on their postseason run, with Correa totaling six homers and 17 RBI in his 13 postseason games…George Springer chips in four postseason homers, giving him 19 in his career, which ties him for fourth in MLB postseason history…like most of baseball, the Astros do not host fans at their home stadium in 2020, but still hold home field advantage with a 20-8 record at Minute Maid Park…Astros Opening Day is held on July 24 vs. Seattle, the latest Opening Day in franchise history…Houston wins the opener, 8-2, extending their franchise record winning streak on Opening Day to eight games.

ASTROS STADIUM HISTORY

Colt Stadium served as the home to Houston's first Major League Baseball franchise: the Colt .45s. The outdoor, single-deck facility was constructed as a temporary home until a domed stadium was completed. It was in operation for three seasons, from 1962-1964, and was witness to two no-hitters, both by the Colts: Don Nottebart in 1962 and Ken Johnson in 1963. High heat and humidity moved many games to late afternoon starts and pushed the National League to lift its ban on Sunday night games. It was located in what is now the Astrodome's north parking lot.

By the time the Astrodome opened on April 9, 1965, for an exhibition game between the Houston Astros and New York Yankees, it was already heralded as the "Eighth Wonder of the World." The largest structure of its kind and the world's first multi-purpose domed stadium, the Astrodome came to symbolize the futuristic home of professional sports in America. In honor of Houston's significance to the country's space program, it was appropriately named the Astrodome, and to maintain the theme, the Colt .45s were proudly renamed the Astros. AstroTurf was developed and installed to start the 1966 campaign after natural grass was unsuccessful. It served as the Astros home for 35 seasons.

ASTROS FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually by the Baseball Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster, National League President, Commissioner, and Hall of Famer, has been presented annually since 1978. Frick was a driving force behind the creation of the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and he helped foster the relationship between radio and the game of baseball.

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony. Each award recipient (not to be confused with an inductee) is presented with a calligraphy of the award during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (Astros broadcaster from 1962-1986)

Gene Elston's baseball broadcasting career spanned 47 years, primarily as a radio announcer. The 2006 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, delivered baseball to a new legion of fans as the lead voice of the expansion Houston Astros for 25 years, from their beginnings as the 1962 Colt .45s, through their 1986 National League West Division championship. While his voice became a beacon to fans in Texas and the Southwest, Elston's broadcasting responsibilities also included numerous national assignments. Elston broke into radio as a high school basketball broadcaster in 1941 in Fort Dodge, Iowa. After serving in the Navy during World War II, he returned to the small midwest stations he knew so well. His break came in 1945 when he handled color commentary for the National Football League's Cleveland Rams. His entry into baseball came in 1946, when Elston was hired to call games for the Waterloo White Hawks of the Three I League. Three years later, he was named play-by-play for Des Moines of the Western League. In 1954 he made the major leagues as the number two man for the Chicago Cubs. In 1958, Elston was chosen to work with Bob Feller for Mutual's Game of the Day, which aired over 350 stations across the country, a position he held through 1960. In 1961, as baseball was expanding, he was the first announcer to handle play-by-play duties for the Houston franchise. He went on to work the CBS Radio Game of the Week from 1987-1995 and CBS postseason games from 1995-1997. A Texas Baseball Hall of Fame inductee, Elston also created a unique scorebook, Gene Elston's Stati-Score Baseball Scorebook, and authored two books, including the 2001 release, A Stitch in Time: A Baseball Chronology, 1845-2000.

MILO HAMILTON (Astros broadcaster from 1985-2012)

Milo Hamilton, the 1992 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, broadcast Major League baseball for more than 40 years. His big league on-air career included stops with the St. Louis Browns (1953), St. Louis Cardinals (1954), Chicago Cubs (1956-57 and 1980-84), Chicago White Sox (1962-65), Atlanta Braves (1966-75), Pittsburgh Pirates (1976-79), and Houston Astros (1985-2012). It was no coincidence that he was behind the microphone for more historic baseball events than any other announcer. His smooth style appealed to his listeners and his knowledge of the game has earned him the respect of his peers. Among the milestones he broadcast were Hank Aaron's 715th home run, Ernie Banks' fifth grand-slam of the 1955 season, seven no-hitters and Roger Maris' 61st homer (recreated on Western Union ticker). He was also on the Cardinals' broadcast crew when Stan Musial hit his record-breaking fifth home run in a doubleheader and he was doing the play-by-play 18 years later when San Diego's Nate Colbert duplicated Musial's feat. Wherever he has been, Hamilton involved himself in fund-raising activities, and over the years he helped raise over $1.5 million for local charities. Born in Fairfield, Iowa, on Sept. 2, 1927, Hamilton graduated from the University of Iowa with a degree in radio speech. Milo shared the broadcast booth with numerous other Frick Award winners, including Jack Brickhouse, Bob Elson, Harry Caray and Jack Buck.

AL HELFER (Astros broadcaster in 1965)

Al Helfer, who was big in stature, big in personality and a big league mainstay in broadcast booths across the country for four decades, was named the 2018 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. The burly 6-foot-4 Helfer worked behind a microphone in the Majors for eight different clubs, the Pirates (1933-34), Reds (1935-36), Yankees (1937-38, 1945), Brooklyn Dodgers (1939-41, 1955-57), New York Giants (1945, 1949), Phillies (1958), Colt .45s (1962) and Athletics (1968-69), and gained a national following as a radio broadcaster for Mutual Broadcasting System's Game of the Day in the 1950's. For a five-year period between 1950 and '54, he was traveling to a different ballpark six days a week. A rewarding but exhausting assignment, it was due to this Game of the Day exposure – the broadcasts carried by approximately 400 stations in non-MLB markets and around the world by the Armed Forces Radio Network – which Helfer became one of the nation's best-known baseball broadcasters. It was said that his audience reached 80 million at times. In 1962, Helfer was a member of the Colt .45s original broadcast crew, along with other Astros greats, Gene Elston, Loel Passe and Rene Cardenas.

ASTROS FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

HARRY KALAS (Astros broadcaster from 1965-1970)

Harry Kalas, longtime announcer for the Philadelphia Phillies, was the 2002 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. A native of Naperville, Ill., Kalas graduated from the University of Iowa in 1959 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Speech, Radio, and Television. The affable broadcaster was drafted into the military on graduation day and spent the following two years in Hawaii with the U.S. Army. In 1961, he served as sports director of radio station KGU and also began broadcasting for the Pacific Coast League's Hawaii Islanders as well as the University of Hawaii. An original member of the Astros broadcast team in 1965, he called games for Houston until 1970. In 1971, he moved to the Phillies broadcast booth, where he shared the microphone with Hall of Fame outfielder Richie Ashburn for 26 seasons. Kalas was honored as Pennsylvania Sportscaster of the Year 18 times. He also broadcast Big Five basketball and Notre Dame football. Kalas, revered for his uncanny ability to connect with his listeners, whether on radio or television, called more than 5,000 Phillies games. His passion for the game was unsurpassed, and his powerful, soothing voice was a summertime tradition throughout Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

Each season, the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor, located on the club level at Minute Maid Park, inducts a current or former Houston media member who has made significant and lasting contributions to the landscape of Houston baseball through their work in journalism or broadcasting.

ANITA MARTINI (inaugural, 2007 inductee)

The inaugural inductee into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor was the late Anita Martini, a pioneer in the sports media field. Martini, a native of Galveston, was a pioneer for women in sports journalism. Martini began her career with Houston radio station KTRH during the 1960s and became the nation's first woman sports anchor in the early 1970s, at Houston television station KPRC. In 1974, she challenged Major League Baseball for the right to join her male colleagues in the clubhouse for post-game interviews with the players. Martini won her fight when she interviewed Jimmy Wynn in the Los Angeles Dodgers clubhouse after a game at the Houston Astrodome. By the 1980s, she was hosting one of the first call-in sports shows on Houston AM radio station KPRC. She died of cancer in 1993 at the age of 54. Martini also is an inductee of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (2008 inductee)

Elston broadcast Major League Baseball games in Houston for 25 years as the Voice of the Astros from 1962-1986. He was behind the microphone for the first game in franchise history on April 10, 1962, when the Colt .45s defeated the Chicago Cubs. Elston was the first play-by-play broadcaster for the Houston franchise, and a generation of baseball fans received their introductions to both the Astros and Major League Baseball by his broadcasts. Elston broadcast baseball for 47 years, beginning with Waterloo of the Triple I League in 1947. After nine seasons broadcasting minor league baseball, Elston made his Major League debut with the Chicago Cubs in 1954. He also called the Mutual "Game of the Week" from 1958-60 and the CBS Radio "Game of the Week" from 1987-97. In 2006, Elston was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum for his significant and lasting contributions to the game of baseball through his work in broadcasting. Among the highlights of Elston's career with the Astros included calling eight of the team's no-hitters, two Astros NL Western Division Championships (1980, 1986), and Nolan Ryan breaking Walter Johnson's all-time strikeout record in 1983. He was inducted in the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1993.

NEIL HOHLFELD (2009 inductee)

Hohlfeld covered the Houston Astros as the beat writer for the Houston Chronicle from 1979 until 1995. He served as president of the Houston chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America in 1993. In 1996, Hohlfeld went on to cover other sports, including Texas A&M athletics and NASCAR, through 2006 before assuming an editing assignment for the Chronicle. In 2007, he returned to his first love as a baseball analyst for FS Houston's pre- and post-game shows. Hohlfeld graduated from the University of Missouri with a Bachelor of Journalism in 1973 and began his career in Hannibal, Mo. He worked for the Chicago Tribune from 1974-79 before joining the Chronicle in 1979. Hohlfeld passed away on July 19, 2008 at the age of 56. He was honored by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA as the recipient of the 2008 Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service Award.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

MICKEY HERSKOWITZ (2010 inductee)

Herskowitz was one of Houston's original beat writers and columnists, having covered the team since its inception in 1962. He wrote for both the Houston Post and Houston Chronicle. A graduate of the University of Houston, at age 26, Herskowitz became the nation's youngest sports editor of a major newspaper and later received international recognition for his coverage of the terrorist tragedy at the 1972 Munich Olympics. He was the first writer to win national first place awards in three Associated Press categories in one year, 1968. In addition to his journalism career, Herskowitz has authored books on historical figures, such as Gene Autry, Nolan Ryan, Paul "Bear" Bryant and Prescott Bush. He was also the ghostwriter of several autobiographies, including Dan Rather and Mickey Mantle. A former Marine, he has been inducted into the Houston Chamber of Commerce Hall of Fame, and received the national Headliners Award for excellence in sports writing. Herskowitz is also a former executive with the American Football League; a New York magazine editor; an original partner in the Houston Rockets; and a journalism professor at Sam Houston State University. He was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

BILL BROWN (2011 inductee)

Bill Brown was the Houston Astros play-by-play announcer for 30 seasons. Brown, also known as "Brownie," was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame on Nov. 12, 2004. He joined the Astros in 1987 after working as senior producer and anchor of the Financial News Network's SCORE program. Prior to that assignment, he was the sports director of the Sports Time Cable Network, which televised select Reds, Royals and Cardinals games. He spent one year with HSE in Pittsburgh and was the television voice of the Cincinnati Reds from 1976-82. Brown, who began his broadcast career on radio at 18 years old, graduated from the University of Missouri in 1969 and became a U.S. Army broadcast specialist, working as a sportscaster for the Armed Forces Vietnam Network in Saigon from 1970-71. After leaving the service in 1971, Brown completed one semester of graduate school at Central Missouri State College in 1971 and then earned a job at WLWT-TV in Cincinnati. Brown has broadcast for two teams in the World Series, the 1976 Reds and the 2005 Astros. He also called Craig Biggio's historic 3,000th hit in 2007, as well as many other memorable moments during both his Astros broadcasting tenure and overall broadcasting career.

MILO HAMILTON (2012 inductee)

Hall of Fame broadcaster Milo Hamilton spent a total of 59 seasons broadcasting Major League Baseball, which ranked as the second-longest broadcasting career in the game's history. A member of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame, Hamilton has also been recognized by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, having won the Ford C. Frick Award in 1992. As an Astros broadcaster, he called many of the greatest moments in franchise history, including Nolan Ryan's 4,000th strikeout in 1985, the final out of Mike Scott's dramatic, division-clinching no-hitter in 1986, the Astros historic, six-pitcher, combined no-hitter at Yankee Stadium in 2003, the Astros 2005 Game 6 NLCS clincher, and Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit in 2007. Prior to joining Houston, Hamilton had already established himself as a top broadcaster in the game, having called Hank Aaron's historic 715th home run on April 8, 1974. His career accomplishments also include calling games at 59 Major League ballparks, being behind the mic for 11 no-hitters and broadcasting for the Pirates during their 1979 World Series championship season. At the conclusion of the 2012 campaign, he retired from his position as "The Voice of the Astros", having established himself as one of the all-time great broadcasters in Major League Baseball history.

RENE CARDENAS (2013 inductee)

Cardenas, a native of Managua, Nicaragua, started his professional baseball broadcast career with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1958, becoming one of the first members of a Spanish radio broadcast team in the history of Major League Baseball. In the coming years, Cardenas further made history as a pioneer, as he and his team became the first Spanish radio broadcast team to call a World Series (1959) and an All-Star Game (1961). Cardenas was brought into the Houston organization by Judge Roy Hofheinz in 1962 as the Director of the Spanish Division for the Colt .45's, and stayed with the Astros through 1975. He also spent time with the Texas Rangers organization, where he started their very first Spanish radio broadcast. Following his time in Arlington, Cardenas returned to LA where he did Spanish radio and TV broadcasts for the Dodgers in the 1980s. Cardenas returned to Houston in 2000 where he began writing for the club. He returned to Spanish radio broadcast in 2007 and in 2008, became a television broadcaster for the team. He now writes for La Prensa, as well as the Astros Gameday Magazine and La Voz. Among his many honors are a place in both the Texas Rangers and former LA Dodgers Walks of Fame, and three nominations for the Ford C. Frick award in 1993, 2010 and 2011.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

ALEX TREVINO (2014 inductee)

Alex Treviño became a distinguished member of the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Thursday, Sept. 18, 2014, in what was his 19th year in the Astros Spanish radio booth .He joined the broadcast team in 1996 and has called over 3,000 Astros games and six postseason appearances, including the 2005 World Series run. As of 2014, his 19 seasons in the broadcast booth were the second-most in franchise history by a Spanish broadcaster, trailing only Orlando Sanchez Diago's 21 years. Prior to joining the broadcast staff, Treviño spent 13 seasons in the Majors, primarily as a catcher, including the 1988-90 seasons with the Astros. He also spent time with the Mets, Reds, Braves, Giants and Dodgers in his Major League career. Treviño finished his playing career in the Mexican League, playing three seasons (1993-95) in his hometown of Monterrey, Mexico. Treviño was a member of the 1972 Pony League World Series championship team, which hailed from Monterrey. He later would become one of seven Mexican-born players to play for the Astros, and was inducted into the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum Hall of Fame in 2003.

HARRY SHATTUCK (2015 inductee)

Long-time sportswriter for the Houston Chronicle, Harry Shattuck, was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 23, 2015. Shattuck covered the Astros beat for the Houston Chronicle for several seasons. Shattuck worked in the newspaper business for the Houston Chronicle for parts of four decades from 1970-2009. He began covering the Astros in 1970 and served as the Chronicle's beat writer from 1972-1985. He moved on to serve as the Chronicle's national baseball writer (1985-88), the assistant sports editor (1989-93) and the travel editor (1993-09) before his retirement. In his distinguished career, Shattuck covered 14 World Series, was the former chairman of the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA and voted for the Baseball Hall of Fame for over 30 years. While on the Astros beat, Shattuck covered the team during the tumultuous change in team ownership in 1976 and during the Astros 1980's playoff appearances.

MARK BERMAN (2016 inductee)

On Monday, Sept. 26, 2016, long-time sports director at KRIV-TV Mark Berman was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor. Berman has spent over 30 years at KRIV-TV in Houston, having joined the Houston FOX affiliate in 1986 and being named the station's sports director in 1988. In his role, Berman covers all sports in the Houston area, including professional, collegiate and high school athletics. A leader in his industry, Berman is best known for his relentless work ethic, his professionalism and his accuracy in breaking stories. Since joining the Houston media, Berman has covered every Astros playoff team in franchise history (1980-81, 1986, 1997-99, 2001, 2004-05, 2015), including the club's World Series appearance in 2005. Berman grew up in Hempstead, Texas, and graduated from the University of Houston with a degree in communications.

BOB ALLEN (2017 inductee)

Houston sports anchor and director Bob Allen was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 17, 2017. One of the most iconic members of the Houston media market, Allen sadly passed away in October of 2016 after a lengthy battle with cancer. Allen spent 38 years as sports director at ABC13 News (KTRK) after getting named to the post in 1975, making him the longest tenured major market sports anchor in the country. He also spent two years as sports director at KHOU 11 News following his run with KTRK. During his career, Allen covered virtually all of the Astros postseason runs, all five ownership groups in the history of the Houston franchise, the construction and opening of Minute Maid Park, the Astros first appearance in a World Series and Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit and Hall of Fame selection. A native of Houston, Allen was committed to giving back to his community, as he was an enthusiastic supporter and board member of both the Sunshine Kids organization and the Special Olympics.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

KAREN WARREN (2018 inductee)

Longtime Houston Chronicle photojournalist Karen Warren was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 14, 2018, becoming the first photojournalist to receive this honor since the award's inception in 2007. With over 20 years as a staff photographer at the Houston Chronicle, Warren has covered some of the best years in the history of the Astros franchise and has become a fixture in the Houston media market. Since joining the Houston Chronicle in 1997, she has shot a multitude of Astros regular season and postseason games, and has traveled to Spring Training in Florida to cover the team for close to 20 seasons. In addition to her coverage of the Astros, Warren has also covered the Houston Texans and Houston Rockets during her time at the Chronicle. Warren began her career in photojournalism at the Austin American-Statesman in 1987, where she spent nine years before joining the St. Louis Post-Dispatch in 1996. She joined the Houston Chronicle staff in 1997. A graduate of the University of Texas at Austin, Warren has shot or edited 14 Super Bowls, two World Series runs, the 2004 NLCS, the 2003 College World Series and the 2010 Little League World Series.

LARRY DIERKER (2019 inductee)

Franchise icon Larry Dierker was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 22, 2019, his 73rd birthday and the 55th anniversary of his Major League debut, which came as a 17-year old for the Houston Colt .45s. Dierker debuted with Houston in 1964 and had a remarkable 14-year playing career, including 13 seasons with the Astros (1964-77). After his playing days, Dierker was hired to the club's radio and television broadcast teams in 1979. He worked on both platforms for a total of 20 seasons (1979-96, 2004-05) over two stints in the booth. Dierker has the distinction of moving directly from the broadcast booth to the managerial position, which he did in 1997. He went on to lead the Astros to four playoff appearances (1997-99, 2001) in his five seasons as manager. Since 2005, Dierker has filled a variety of roles with the Astros, including appearances on club broadcasts, writing for team publications and serving as an Astros Community Outreach Executive and as a Special Advisor to the club. Earlier this year, he was inducted into the Astros Hall of Fame, as a member of the inaugural class.

KEVIN ESCHENFELDER (2020 inductee)

Longtime Houston broadcaster and native Houstonian Kevin Eschenfelder is celebrating his 25th season in 2021 as the Astros pre and postgame host for their television rightsholder, AT&T SportsNet Southwest. Eschenfelder has over 30 years experience working in the Houston media market, originally getting his start in 1991 at Fox Sports Net, covering all three of Houston's major professional sports teams. He began hosting the Astros and Rockets pre and postgame shows in 1997 for Fox Sports Southwest, before continuing in that role for FS Houston, Comcast SportsNet Houston and AT&T SportsNet SW. In addition to his pre and postgame duties for Astros games, Eschenfelder fills in on the Astros television broadcasts as a play-by-play announcer. A graduate of the University of Houston, Eschenfelder has been the radio voice of the University of Houston Football team since 2013.

ELITE COMPANY

Jeff Bagwell hit 43 home runs and stole 31 bases in 1997. He also hit 42 HR with 30 SB in 1999. Bagwell joins Barry Bonds as the only two players in Major League history to record as many as two 40HR/30SB seasons. Bagwell is also the only first baseman in Major League history with a "30-30" season, thanks to his efforts in 1997 and 1999.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER • CY YOUNG • ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Jose Altuve (AL) and Jeff Bagwell (NL) are the only players in franchise history to win Most Valuable Player awards. Bagwell, Carlos Correa (AL) and Yordan Alvarez (AL) are the only players in club history who have captured the Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year award. Astros pitchers have captured the Cy Young Award four times, Justin Verlander in 2019 (AL), Dallas Keuchel in 2015 (AL), Roger Clemens in 2004 (NL) and Mike Scott in 1986 (NL). Listed below are all Astros who finished in the top 10 of the MVP voting or received consideration in one year for the circuit's Cy Young and Rookie of the Year honors.

ASTROS HOME RUNS IN HOUSTON

On May 11, 1998, Jeff Bagwell hit his 98th Astrodome home run off the Marlins' Livan Hernandez to put the first baseman one ahead of outfielder Jimmy Wynn, whose 97 Houston homers were the most by any player in the history of the franchise. Bagwell eventually hit 126 home runs in the Astrodome before the Astros moved to Minute Maid Park in 2000. Wynn hit 93 of his roundtrippers in the Astrodome and four in Colt Stadium during his 11-year career which lasted from 1963-73. And, speaking of Colt Stadium, the record for Houston homers in that facility stands at 21 by Bob Aspromonte.

ALL-STAR GAME #39 | ASTRODOME, HOUSTON | JULY 9, 1968

The 1968 All-Star Game reflected overpowering pitching. The two leagues combined for only eight hits and just one run, marking the first 1-0 contest in the history of the Midsummer Classic. The lone run – by the National League – was scored in the 1st inning on a single, an error, a wild pitch, and a double play.

Playing for the injured Pete Rose, Willie Mays led off in the bottom of the 1st and singled to left field. In a failed pick-off at first, Luis Tiant's (CLE) throw went wild, advancing Mays to second. Curt Flood (STL) was then walked, and a fourth-ball wild pitch moved Mays to third. First baseman Willie McCovey (SF) grounded into a double play, but Mays took advantage to score the only run of the game.

With the victory, the NL stretched its winning streak to six. The six-man NL pitching staff held the AL to just three hits, as Tom Seaver (NYM) tossed five strikeouts late in the game and Juan Marichal pitched 2.0 perfect innings. Nine pitchers in the game did not allow a single walk.

The game was the first played indoors and on an artificial surface, as many players got their first look at the Astrodome.

Los Angeles left-hander Fernando Valenzuela fanned five consecutive batters to tie Carl Hubbell's 52-year-old All-Star record, but the National League's pitching triumphs weren't enough as the American League recorded the 3-2 victory on two home runs.

The NL pitching staff sat down 12 total batters, but the AL's Roger Clemens (BOS) had a strong night of his own. He tossed 3.0 perfect innings which included just three balls and 21 strikes. The AL bats came through at the same time as second baseman Lou Whitaker (DET) followed a Dave Winfield (NYY) double with a two-run shot off Dwight Gooden (NYM) in the 2nd. In the 7th inning, Frank White (KC) came in to pinch-hit for Whitaker, knocking an 0-2 pitch from Mike Scott (HOU) over the left-center field wall to seal the AL's second All-Star win in the 1980s.

Valenzuela tied the 1934 record for consecutive strikeouts, setting down (in order): Don Mattingly, Cal Ripken, Jesse Barfield, Whitaker, and Ted Higuera.

ALL-STAR GAME #75 | MINUTE MAID PARK, HOUSTON | JULY 13, 2004

The American League displayed its offensive prowess early, scoring six runs in the 1st inning en route to a 9-4 win over the National League in the third All-Star Game played in Houston and the first at Minute Maid Park.

Astros right-hander Roger Clemens, who also started the 1986 All-Star Game in Houston, allowed six runs and five hits in suffering the loss. Clemens allowed two 1st-inning homers, to Manny Ramirez (BOS) and Alfonso Soriano (TEX). Mark Mulder (OAK) pitched 2.0 innings and allowed one run to earn the win. Soriano was named the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing 2x3 with three RBI. Soriano was the first leading vote-getter to also earn MVP honors in the same season.

The National League cut the lead to 7-4 with a three-run 4th, including an RBI double by Edgar Renteria (STL) and a two-run double by Albert Pujols (STL). David Ortiz (BOS) homer against Carl Pavano (FLA) in the 6th ended the game's scoring.

The AL pitching staff held the NL scoreless through the final 5.0 innings, thanks to scoreless efforts from Javier Vazquez (NYY), Ted Lilly (TOR), Joe Nathan (MIN), Tom Gordon (NYY), Francisco Rodriguez (ATL), and Mariano Rivera (NYY).

The American League won its seventh consecutive victory, not counting the 2002 tie at Miller Park in Milwaukee. The NL remained winless since 1996.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

NOTE: The following information will be subject to revisions due to MLB's pandemic-related safety guidelines.

The Houston Astros utilize MLB's online credentialing system. All media credential requests and applications for coverage of the Houston Astros must go through MLB's online credentialing system at http://credentials.mlb.com. Additionally, all credentials – whether issued by Major League Baseball, the BBWAA, or the Astros – will bear photographs. Scout identification cards will also require photos.

- Houston Astros season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering agencies that cover the Astros on a daily basis. Daily passes will be issued to approved media members who do not qualify for season credentials and who meet Major League Baseball's policies for media access. Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer or director, via the online credential system at least 24 hours in advance of the game being requested. CREDENTIALS MUST BE DISPLAYED IN A VISIBLE MANNER AT ALL TIMES.
- ALL credential requests, whether season or daily, must go through MLB's online credential system. This will also be the process for Astros Spring Training, regular season, Wild Card and American League Division Series credential applications.
- Daily credentials will be available at the First Base Entrance, located in the Diamond Lot near the intersection of Preston and Hamilton Streets, four hours prior to first pitch.
- No spouses, guests or children of media members will be issued passes.
- Credentials are not transferable.
- Credentialed media are also prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations will result in the immediate revocation of the credential.
- Credentials may be revoked at any time without cause.

SECURITY: To comply with security measures implemented by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros, all media will be required to follow the following procedures upon entering Minute Maid Park and while covering the game.

When entering Minute Maid Park, please be prepared to:

- Enter the ballpark at the First Base Entrance, located in the Diamond Lot near the intersection of Preston and Hamilton Streets.
- Provide photo identification.
- Sign in at the media entrance.
- Allow bags to be searched upon entering the ballpark.

While covering the game, please be prepared to:

- Clearly display working credentials at all times.
- Allow bags and equipment cases to be randomly searched if requested by ballpark security officials.
- Observe credential regulations as set forth by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros. Only those individuals with the proper credentials will be admitted in the clubhouses, on the field and in the press box.

MEDIA SERVICES

PARKING: Working media may park in the B and C lots at Minute Maid Park with a season credential, BBWAA credential or media identification badge. Entrances to these lots are located on St. Emanuel St., Preston St. and Texas Ave.

MAIN PRESS BOX: The press box and broadcast booths are located on the Honda Club Level behind home plate and are accessible from the press box elevator and the elevator at the First Base Entrance (level C) prior to the opening of gates and after the game. The escalators on the main concourse are available at all times.

MEDIA DINING ROOM: Media dining is located in the press box on the Honda Club Level just behind the broadcast booths. There is a monetary charge per meal. Media dining is open to accredited members of the media only. Spouses/children are not allowed in the media dining room. Cash and credit card accepted.

CLUBHOUSES: Both clubhouses are located on the Service Level and are accessible via the press box elevator. The Astros clubhouse is located on the first base side of the ballpark, while the visiting teams and umpires are on the third base side. Pre- and postgame access rules are determined by Major League Baseball. The Astros clubhouse opens approximately four hours before game time and closes once the team takes the field for batting practice. When the team does not hit outside or under unusual circumstances, the Astros will use their discretion on when to open and close the clubhouse. All times are approximate and subject to change.

General clubhouse rules include:

- Absolutely no autographs or gifts of any kind.
- No still photography in the clubhouse.
- When shooting video interviews, please make sure it is only of the player at his locker or in front of a wall while he is giving the interview. Players should be shot from the chest up.
- Do not sit in the players' chairs.
- No shooting B-roll inside the clubhouse.

FIELD: All media must leave the field 45 minutes prior to the first pitch. No person will be allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly specifying field privileges (i.e., club pass, photo pass).
PHOTOGRAPHERS/PHOTO WELLS: In-game access to photo wells is limited to still photographers and rightsholders broadcasting the game. There are four photo wells, located on either side of both the home and visiting dugouts. All photographers must remain in the photo wells while the game is in progress. Photographers are only permitted to change location between innings. No ball - in play or dead - should be handled by anyone other than a ballboy.
PRESS CONFERENCE ROOM: The press conference room is located on the Service Level across from the home clubhouse down the first-base side.
NOTES: Game notes, updated Major League statistics, lineup sheets and other pertinent media information will be available near the entrance of the press box on the Honda Club Level two hours prior to first pitch. Box scores, play-by-play sheets and postgame notes will be available in the same area after each game.
MEDIA GUIDES: Media guides are available upon request in the press box from Astros Communications staff members and are available online at MLBPressbox.com.
TELEPHONES: Land-line phones are available for media use in the main press areas upon request.
WI-FI: Wireless Internet access is available in Minute Maid Park. Contact the Astros Communications department for details.
ASTROS ON THE WEB: The official website of the Houston Astros is Astros.com. The site is updated daily with news, statistics, game notes, feature stories and minor league information. The Major League Baseball website, MLB.com, can also be accessed via Astros.com. The Astros also offer a Spanish website, AstrosDeHouston.com. The site features daily news coverage of the team as well as feature stories from international sports writers.
MLB PRESSBOX: With approved registration, media members gain electronic access to numerous Major League Baseball resources by logging onto MLBPressbox.com (on the official MLB website). Some of the information on this site includes: public relations contacts; daily statistical updates; daily game notes; current and archived press releases; media guides; press kits; credential language and media regulations; and historical information about MLB and its entities. In addition, this site provides media the opportunity to download HD-quality video, hi-resolution logos and information on special events for all 30 clubs, as well as headshots of players, coaches, umpires and select executives. All media covering the Astros should register on the MLB Pressbox site to access these resources.

We encourage open conversation with our fans and look forward to a social 2021 season!

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL DRESS GUIDELINES

Major League Baseball requests members of the media covering our games to dress in an appropriate and professional manner that reflects their respect for their colleagues, the teams and the players they are covering. Clubhouses, dugouts, press boxes, interview rooms and the playing field are working areas, and MLB expects members of the media to adhere to a business casual dress code. In that regard, media members are requested to adhere to following dress guidelines:

- Flip-flops are not permitted in clubhouses
- Jeans should be clean, neat and presentable (e.g., Ripped jeans should be avoided)
- T-shirts bearing offensive, disrespectful or inappropriate messages are not permitted
- Clothing bearing MLB club logos should not be worn in press areas
- Clothing should be appropriate for a business casual work environment. The following are some non-exclusive examples of apparel that should be avoided:
  - Sheer or see-through clothing
  - Excessively short skirts, dresses or shorts (e.g., Cut more than 3-4 inches above the knee)
  - Tank tops, muscle shirts, one-shouldered or strapless shirts
  - Clothing exposing bare midriffs or visible undergarments

We ask all members of the media to respect these guidelines. MLB will consider appropriate actions in those cases in which the guidelines are violated.

Major League Baseball
Online Audio, Photography and Video Rules

The following are rules established by Major League Baseball regarding the usage of audio, photos and video online during the regular season by non-rightsholders.

1) Any media member credentialed to cover a Major League game must notify and receive permission from the host club or Major League Baseball that he/she intends to post audio or video content online.

2) The gathering of audio and video content in clubhouses pre-game and post-game is subject to the host club rules regarding electronic media access.

3) The manager's pre-game media availability may not be carried live and audio and video postings may be no longer than 120 seconds.

4) One-on-one interviews that are posted online with players, team personnel and baseball officials must be pre-arranged, can be posted for a maximum of 72 hours, must be no longer than 120 seconds long and cannot include any game highlights.

5) Any video captured within the ballpark, excluding press conferences, must be limited to 120 seconds and cannot be carried live.

6) No live or taped audio or video is permitted to be captured by any entities other than rightsholders from 45 minutes prior to game time until the game has concluded.

7) The post-game manager's press conference may be captured via video and audio and posted online but may not be carried live. This specific content may be archived for 72 hours.

8) Entities credentialed for photography may transmit on-line or display up to seven still pictures or photographs of any Game during its progress; provided, however, that under no circumstances may Bearer display any more than seven still pictures or photographs of any Game during its progress regardless of whether Bearer obtained such pictures or photographs at the Game.

THE ASTROS TELEVISION BROADCAST TEAM

TODD KALAS

TV PLAY-BY-PLAY BROADCASTER

- The 2021 season marks Todd Kalas' fifth as the Astros play-by-play voice on television. The Astros have advanced to the ALCS or further in each of Todd's first four seasons with the club.
- In 2020, Todd won his first Lone Star Emmy for his work on the Astros telecast.
- Todd, who is the son of Hall of Famer and former Astros broadcaster Harry Kalas, has 29 seasons of experience as a broadcaster in professional baseball.
- Prior to joining the Astros in 2017, Todd spent the previous 19 seasons (1998-2016) as part of the Tampa Bay Rays TV broadcast team. While his primary duties for the Rays were as pre- and postgame host and in-game reporter, Todd also handled play-by-play duties for hundreds of Rays games on both television and radio during his time there.
- Known for his distinctive voice and personality, Todd grew to be a popular figure with Rays fans as a result of his work on the broadcasts and was a three-time Suncoast Emmy award winner. Prior to joining the Rays, Todd worked with the New York Mets radio (1992-93) and Philadelphia Phillies television (1994-96) broadcast teams.
- A native Houstonian, Todd was born at St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital in Houston while his father, Harry, served as an Astros broadcaster from 1965-70. Harry would later call Phillies games from 1971-2009 en route to a Hall of Fame career. When the Phillies and Rays met in the 2008 World Series, Todd and his father called an inning together on radio during Game One of the Fall Classic.
- Todd graduated with a degree in broadcast journalism from Syracuse University, and began his baseball career with the Louisville Redbirds in 1991.
- In past years, Todd has called college football, basketball and baseball games and has been a studio host for NHL and NBA teams.
- Todd and his wife, Michele, reside in Houston.

GEOFF BLUM

TV COLOR BROADCASTER

- Geoff Blum returns for his ninth season with the Astros TV broadcast team in 2021, which will be his fifth as the everyday color analyst for Astros telecasts. Geoff, who retired after 14 Major League seasons as an infielder (1999-2012), made the transition from the playing field to the broadcast booth in 2013.
- Geoff won a Lone Star Emmy for his work on the Astros telecast in 2020.
- During his playing career, Geoff had two stints with the Astros, totaling five seasons in Houston (2002-03, 2008-10). Over the course of his tenure with the Astros, Geoff hit .259 with 228 RBI, 46 homers, 77 doubles and a .711 OPS.
- A switch-hitter, Geoff was known as one of the top pinch-hitters and utility players in baseball, appearing at all four infield positions in nine straight years (2000-08). He appeared in the postseason three times in his career (2005-06, 2011).
- Geoff was originally drafted by the Montreal Expos in the 1994 June Draft. Prior to his professional career, Geoff was a standout at the University of California, Berkeley. He also played a season in the Cape Cod League.
- Geoff and his wife, Kory, have four daughters: Mia Lea and triplets Ava, Audrey and Kayla.

JULIA MORALES

TV SIDELINE REPORTER

- Julia Morales returns for her ninth season as the Astros TV sideline reporter. As a reporter and anchor for AT&T SportsNet, Julia serves as the primary in-game reporter on Houston Astros telecasts. She has two Lone Star Emmys for her work covering the Astros, with the most recent one coming in 2020. The first was for her work on AT&T SportsNet's weekly show Astros Bases Loaded.
- Before moving to Houston, Julia worked as a sports reporter for Time Warner Cable News, formerly YNN in Austin, covering a wide range of events, including the Super Bowl, NBA Finals, World Series, and the College Baseball WS.
- Prior to joining the Time Warner Cable sports crew, Julia was the weekend sports anchor/reporter for KYTX-TV in Tyler, TX. Julia began her television career at KTEN-TV in Denison, Texas.
- A native of Crandall, TX, Julia spent two years as a "World Famous Kilgore College Rangerette" before graduating from UT Austin, where she was a member of Texas Pom for the Longhorns' 2005 National Championship season.
- Julia and husband Matt had their first baby in 2020 with the birth of daughter Valerie Rose.
- Julia is extremely passionate about animals and serves on the Board of Directors for Houston Pets Alive!, a no-kill animal rescue. She and Matt foster rescue dogs in the offseason.

THE ASTROS RADIO BROADCAST TEAM

ROBERT FORD

RADIO BROADCASTER

- Robert Ford was named to the Astros radio broadcast team to work alongside Steve Sparks as the play-by-play commentator on Feb. 13, 2013. He enters his ninth season as the radio voice of the Astros. In their eight seasons, the duo of Robert and Steve have called five postseasons, including four ALCS' and two World Series. The 57 postseason games that they have called in that span are the most in the Majors.
- Prior to joining the Astros, Robert had served as the radio pre- and postgame host for Kansas City Royals games on 610 AM KCSP, the Royals flagship station, since 2009.
- Robert has seven years of experience broadcasting minor league baseball, having called more than 800 games during stints with the Binghamton Mets, Kalamazoo Kings and Yakima Bears. In that span, Robert was twice named Frontier League Broadcaster of the Year (2003 and 2004). He also has extensive play-by-play experience in college basketball, including calling games for ESPN in recent years.
- Robert is a 2001 graduate of Syracuse University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism.
- Robert has twice been a finalist for the Esurance MLB Award for "Best Call, TV/Radio," including in 2017 for his call of Alex Bregman's walk-off RBI single in Game 5 of the World Series.
- Robert lives in Houston and has a daughter, Elena.

STEVE SPARKS

RADIO BROADCASTER

- Steve Sparks was named to the Astros radio broadcast team to work alongside Robert Ford as the color commentator on Feb. 13, 2013. He enters his ninth season on the Astros radio broadcast.
- Since 2017, Steve and partner Robert have called four ALCS' and two World Series. The 57 postseason games that they have called in that span are the most in the Majors.
- A knuckleballer in his playing days, Steve pitched in the Major Leagues in parts of nine seasons (1995-2004) for the Brewers, Angels, Tigers, A's and Diamondbacks. His best season was in 2001 while with Detroit when he went 14-9 in 35 appearances (33 starts) with a 3.65 ERA while leading the Majors in complete games with eight. He also tallied a career high in innings pitched (232.0) that season.
- Steve attended Sam Houston State University, where he helped lead the Bearkats to back-to-back Gulf Star Conference baseball titles and an NCAA Division II Regional playoff appearance in 1986 and again in the school's first year at the Division I level in 1987. On Nov. 3, 2017, Steve was inducted into the Sam Houston Letterman's Association Hall of Honor.

MATT BOLTZ

RADIO BROADCAST ENGINEER

- Matt Boltz enters his seventh season with the Houston Astros and his 21st overall in Major League Baseball.
- Matt is the Radio Broadcast Engineer & Producer for the Astros Radio Network. He generates, maintains and produces all live audio for the entire Spring Training, regular season & postseason schedule. Since 2017, Matt and the Astros broadcast team have produced more postseason games (57) than any other team in baseball.
- In 2020, while MLB was on hold due to the pandemic, Matt started an entertaining Astros podcast, that featured current and former players as guests, with Astros broadcasters serving as hosts.
- Matt also orchestrates all broadcast material, live commercial inventory, promotions and live interviews with the broadcasters, the front office, the radio flagship and the entire radio network.
- His offseason duties include editing and archiving all recorded sound, managing and servicing technical elements and assisting with network affiliate relations. Matt also engineers and produces Astroline, the Astros weekly offseason hot stove radio show which has been on the air since 1988.
- Prior to joining the Astros, Matt served as the Radio Producer Engineer for the Chicago Cubs Radio Network from 2001-2014. During that time, he also engineered game broadcasts for WGN Chicago and Northwestern Wildcats basketball and football programs.
- Matt resides in Pearland, Texas, with his wife, Melissa, and their two children: Emma Lucille and Theodore Matthew.

THE ASTROS SPANISH RADIO BROADCAST TEAM

FRANCISCO ROMERO

SPANISH RADIO BROADCASTER

- Francisco Romero enters his 14th season of play-by-play on the Astros Spanish radio network.
- Francisco and partner Alex Treviño are one of the longest-tenured broadcast duos in the Majors. The two have been a team since 2008, and have called 57 postseason games since 2017, which is the most in baseball in that span.
- Francisco joined the Astros in 2008 and starts the 2021 season just 27 games shy of his 2,000th regular season Astros game. Additionally, in his career, Francisco has called four no-hitters and a perfect game.
- Prior to coming to Houston, he spent five seasons broadcasting Milwaukee Brewers games in Spanish on Telemundo Wisconsin. His MLB broadcasting experience also includes selected Minnesota Twins games over five seasons (2003-08).
- His Major League broadcast debut was for the Arizona Diamondbacks on Telemundo Arizona in 1999, and he spent two years on Diamondbacks broadcasts from 1999-2000.
- Other Major League broadcasting experience includes select games on Spanish Radio with the Cincinnati Reds in 2005. Francisco also spent four seasons as the play-by-play broadcaster and pre- and postgame show producer on Spanish radio broadcasts for the Triple A Tucson Sidewinders of the Pacific Coast League.
- Additional sports broadcasting experience includes both football and basketball for the University of Arizona Spanish Radio Network (1999-present), as well as three seasons on the Arizona Cardinals radio halftime report.
- In 2015, Francisco and his broadcast partner Alex had the distinction of starting the Spanish broadcast efforts for the Kansas City Royals as they were asked to simulcast for both markets (Houston and Kansas City) during the Royals Hispanic Heritage Celebration while playing the Houston Astros.
- Francisco and Alex also currently produce a series of webisodes for the Astros Spanish social media channels.
- Francisco has been part of three Spanish broadcast effort debuts (Brewers, Reds and Royals) and is the only Spanish broadcaster to have broadcast games for six different MLB teams (D-backs, Brewers, Twins, Reds, Royals and Astros).
- In addition to broadcasting baseball games, Francisco was the English as a Second Language instructor for the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Chicago White Sox (extended Spring Training) players from 1998 - 2001.
- A graduate of the University of Arizona, Francisco spent 10 years as the sports anchor for the Telemundo affiliate in Tucson, Arizona, as well as one year as general assignment reporter.
- As a sports anchor/reporter for Telemundo, Francisco has covered some of the most important sports events in the world, such as: MLB World Series and All-Star Games, the Super Bowl, NBA Finals, Road to the World Cup, NCAA Basketball Tournaments, NCAA Softball Tournaments, NCAA Baseball Tournaments, NASCAR and Championship Boxing.
- In 2005, Francisco was inducted into his High School Media Hall of Fame, Pueblo High School in Tucson, Ariz. Francisco was also elected to the Pueblo High School Warrior Foundation Hall of Fame Class in 2017.
- He earned a 2004 Emmy Award from the Rocky Mountain Chapter in the sports reporting category; that same year he also earned the Communicators Award for sports reporting. In 2003, the Arizona Daily Star named him as one of the Top 100 Sports Figures of Southern Arizona.
- In 2014, the Association of Sports Broadcasters of Nicaragua invited Francisco to speak on MLB broadcasting.
- Francisco was ranked No. 3 in the Top 100 Sports Figures of Southern Arizona by the Arizona Daily Star, behind Astros pitching coach Brent Strom and former Astros bullpen coach Craig Bjornson in 2017.

ALEX TREVIÑO

SPANISH RADIO BROADCASTER

- Alex Treviño returns for his 26th season as color analyst on the Astros Spanish radio network. He and partner Francisco Romero have been a team since 2008, making them one of the longest-tenured teams in baseball. The two have called 57 postseason games since 2017, which is the most in the Majors in that span.
- Alex joined the Astros broadcast booth in 1996 and has called more than 3,000 Astros games, 10 postseason appearances and three World Series (2005, 2017 & 2019). .
- Alex's 25 seasons in the broadcast booth are the most in franchise history by a Spanish broadcaster, besting Orlando Sanchez Diago's record of 21 years.
- A native of Monterrey, Mexico, Alex spent 13 seasons playing in the Majors, primarily as a catcher, including the 1988-90 seasons with the Astros. He also spent time with the Mets, Reds, Braves, Giants and Dodgers. While with the Mets in 1980, he threw out 44% (47 of 106) of attempted basestealers, which was tops in the NL. Later in his career, while with the Dodgers on June 13, 1986 vs. the Padres in San Diego, he was part of history when he and pitcher Fernando Valenzuela formed the first Mexican-born battery in Major League history.
- Alex' older brother, Bobby Treviño, played in the Major Leagues as an outfielder for the Angels.
- Alex hit a career-high .290 while serving as Houston's backup catcher in 1989 and hit .364 (32x88) in 25 starts.
- He played in 939 Major League games and had a .249 lifetime average.
- In September 2014, Alex was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor for his significant and lasting contributions to the landscape of Houston baseball through his work in broadcasting.

MINUTE MAID PARK

MINUTE MAID PARK

The 2021 season marks the 22nd year of baseball at Minute Maid Park. The venue has hosted numerous special events, including the 2004 All-Star Game and Home Run Derby, the World Series (2005, 2017, 2019), the 2014 Civil Rights Game, Super Bowl LI Opening Night, major concert events, weddings, graduations, galas, and COVID-19 vaccine drives.

The year 2000 saw something the grand old game of baseball had not experienced since 1964 — a Major League team in Houston playing on natural grass outdoors. While clear skies and real grass were welcome additions for fans, the Bayou City hardball-faithful also enjoyed another first, Minute Maid Park's 242 foot-tall retractable roof. More than 3 million fans embraced the new ballpark in its inaugural season. Since then, the club has welcomed more than 44 million visitors during the facility's 21-season tenure.

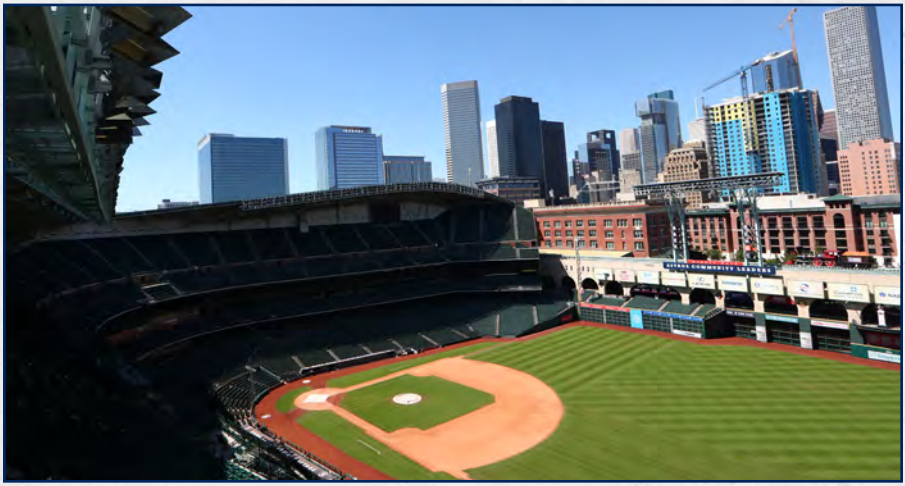

Minute Maid Park has become a welcome home for the Houston Astros and has ushered in a new era of Major League sports in the city. With the downtown ballpark, Houston continues to stand on the forefront of modern stadium construction that began with the club's previous home – the Astrodome. The park's retractable roof brought open-air baseball to Houston for the first time in 35 years, and the natural grass field and classic architecture provided the opportunity of capturing the same atmosphere from the great ballparks of baseball's golden age.

Approval of the ballpark, however, was not limited to the applause of the fans. Less than one calendar year after its opening, Minute Maid Park had already been recognized on local, state and national levels with several awards. The following are the first three major awards with which the new home of the Astros were honored:

- Greater Houston Preservation Alliance, 2000 Good Brick Award. The President's Award was presented to former owner Drayton McLane, the Astros and the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority for the renovation of the 1911 Union Station building. The Good Brick Awards are presented annually in recognition of leadership and excellence in historic preservation.
- Most Outstanding Civil Engineering Project. This honor came from the Texas Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), a professional organization that represents the vast majority of civil engineers.
- National Honor Award for Engineering Excellence. This national recognition for engineering excellence came from the American Consulting Engineers Council (ACEC). This honor stamped Minute Maid Park as one of the top 24 engineering projects among all buildings and civil works projects nationally.

LOCATION: Minute Maid Park is located at 501 Crawford Street on the northeast end of downtown Houston. Situated near the George R. Brown Convention Center, Discovery Green and BBVA Compass Stadium, the ballpark is located one block west of U.S. 59 and is bound by Congress Avenue on the north, Texas Avenue on the south, Crawford Street on the west and Hamilton Street on the east.

HISTORY: The idea for a public-private financing drive for a downtown Houston ballpark was conceived in 1996. Fourteen leading Houston companies joined together to form the Houston Sports Facility Partnership. The Partnership agreed to provide a $35 million interest-free loan with no repayment due until 10 years of ballpark operation had passed. With the Partnership's initial commitment, the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority had the support it needed to present a ballpark proposal to the public in November 1996. Voters approved the $250 million project.

ALL-STAR GAME: In 2004, Minute Maid Park played host to the 75th Major League Baseball All-Star Game. More than 350,000 people participated in All-Star Week activities, which included the Futures Game, the Legends/Celebrity Softball Game, and the Home Run Derby - all of which took place at Minute Maid Park - in addition to the John Hancock All-Star Fan Fest. The week culminated with the All-Star Game and a 9-4 American League win over the National League squad. Four Astros played for the National League squad, including the NL starting pitcher Roger Clemens, Carlos Beltran, Jeff Kent and Lance Berkman.

FIRST GAMES: The Houston Astros and New York Yankees played an exhibition game on March 30, 2000, with Houston winning 6-5. The Astros hosted the Philadelphia Phillies in the first official regular-season game on April 7, 2000, with Philadelphia winning 4-1.

ARCHITECT: The Architect of Minute Maid Park was HOK Sports Facilities Group, along with Construction Manager Brown & Root Services, a business unit of Halliburton Company.

THE NAME: On June 5, 2002, the Houston Astros and The Minute Maid Company announced that they had expanded their relationship to create a long-term marketing and community partnership. The multi-year partnership agreement included naming rights for the downtown ballpark, rechristening the field "Minute Maid Park."

The partnership agreement also stipulated the pouring rights for products of The Coca-Cola Company, ongoing advertising and marketing programs, and a commitment by Minute Maid to support youth baseball programs in the Houston area.

The Minute Maid Company is an operating unit of The Coca-Cola Company and the flagship of its worldwide fruit beverage business. The Minute Maid Company has been headquartered in Houston since 1967.

Houston's downtown ballpark was originally named Enron Field on April 7, 1999, and was renamed Astros Field on Feb. 27, 2002, by an agreement between the Houston Astros and Enron Corporation.

SIZE: The building dimensions cover 28.97 acres of gross square footage, a total of 1,263,240 square feet. The height is 93 feet to the last seating tread, equivalent to a nine-story building.

TRAIN: A replica of a 19th century locomotive (circa 1860) and linked coal tender is a fan favorite. The train provides an architectural icon which combines sight, sound and motion for a dynamic entertainment and celebration feature. It also provides a link to the past for Houston and the Union Station site. The train was designed by Uni-Systems and built by SMI & Hydraulics, which also provided the transporters for the retractable roof. Weighing close to 50,000 pounds, the train runs some 800 feet along the low roof track on the west side of the ballpark.

UNION STATION: According to HOK's design platform, the most literal tie between Houston's past and its new ballpark is a physical line to Union Station. On March 2, 1911, Houston's second downtown Union Station, rebuilt at a cost of $500,000, opened its doors for the first time. In the 104 years since, it has served as an epicenter of the city's population growth, been a catalyst for commercial evolution, and become an identifying landmark within the downtown skyline.

Houston was once described as "Where 17 Railroads Meet the Sea". An article in a 1913 issue of "The Rotarian" called Houston the "City of First Consideration" and "The Largest Manufacturing City in the Southwest." Union Station was at the center of it all, the hub of a strong industrial municipality that specialized in oil, rice, sugar and lumber. The historic landmark has also served as a shelter for hurricane refugees and has been visited by Presidents of the United States.

Trains with names such as Acadian, Argonaut, Katy Flyer, California Special, Lone Star, Orleanean and Pioneer made hundreds of stops at Union Station during its active period (1911-1974). Other trains with monikers such as Sam Houston Zephyr, Southerner, Sunset Limited, Sunshine Special, Texas Chief, Texas Eagle, Texas Rocket and Valley Eagle routinely picked up passengers there as well.

The first-floor Great Hall still includes much of Union Station's original architectural work. It currently serves as a general reception area for guests, functions as an event space, and houses the Astros Team Store. Each Astros fan who enters Minute Maid Park through Union Station retraces the steps of passengers who boarded trains in another era.

Today, the conference rooms and event spaces occupying the second and third floor of the renovated Union Station at Minute Maid Park (open 365 days a year) are named after some of the trains listed above. They are honored as both a tribute to hardworking rail personnel and in remembrance of Union Station's historic importance.

The Houston Astros executive offices occupy the fourth and fifth floors of the building. The sixth floor houses the Roof Deck and Club House at Union Station, where groups of up to 100 people can watch Astros baseball with scenic views of downtown Houston as a backdrop.

Though it sat vacant for a quarter century from 1974-1999, the former transit hub has re-taken its rightful place on the Houston skyline, now serving as the gateway to Astros baseball and remaining an important landmark in downtown Houston.

PLAYING FIELD: Featuring Platinum TE Paspalum grass, the playing surface covers 2.5 acres.

The drainage and irrigation systems include 6,682 linear feet of perforated pipe and 4,406 linear feet of PVC pipe, respectively. A total of 51 irrigation heads help make the job for Head Groundskeeper Izzy Hinojosa and his staff much easier.

All grassed areas of the playing field are also constructed to USGA golf green construction specifications, allowing for excellent drainage and a growing media which is ideal for maintaining high-performance turfgrass.

SOUNDS: More than 400 speaker cabinets are scattered throughout the seating areas and almost 1,000 are found along the concourses. The speakers are distributed throughout the ballpark to have cabinets as close to the fans as possible.

THE ROOF: Architects from the HOK Sports Facilities Group recommended early on that a retractable roof would be appropriate for the Texas climate. Since building the first retractable-roof ballpark – the Skydome in 1989 – designers have crafted several kinds of retractable roofs. Some, for instance, open only over a small central section. The roof at Minute Maid Park, however, retracts completely off the ballpark to reveal the largest open area of any retractable roofed baseball stadium in existence today. A total of 50,000 square feet of glass in the west wall of the retractable roof gives fans a view of the Houston skyline, even when the roof is in the closed position.

Uni-Systems provided the technical expertise to design the best roof structure for Minute Maid Park. Mechanized roof panels open and close in 14-20 minutes. The roof moves back and forth an estimated 160 times a year, a distance of 14.6 miles. To cover the ballpark, steel panels roll in sequence along tracks on the east and west sides of the stadium. When the roof is open, the southern and northern panels, each of which measures 537 by 120 feet and weighs 1,905 metric tons, rest at the north end below the large middle section with its dimension of 589 by 242 feet and a weight of 3,810 metric tons. Designers determined the roof's shape – lower side panels flanking the high center panel – by tracking a batted baseball's hyperbolic flight path. Forged steel wheels, 140 in total, measuring 35 inches in diameter transport the three roof panels.

CONCESSIONS: Prior to the 2014 season the Astros and their exclusive food and beverage partner, Aramark, unveiled a $1.8 million renovation to Minute Maid Park's main concourse, featuring eight new food and beverage concepts. As part of the transformation to enhance the dining experience, the Astros and Aramark completely overhauled the look and feel of the stands by re-branding each concept with a new name and menu, adding more vibrant signage and lighting, and introducing contemporary color schemes and decor. With the 2014 extension of the Astros and Aramark partnership, future enhancements will continue to incorporate fan feedback and market research into the development and design of new menu concepts and dining options throughout Minute Maid Park. In addition, they will explore new and unique ways to showcase Houston's cuisine and culinary talent, such as local top chef Jimmy Coatsworth who has partnered with Aramark to bring his signature menu items to Minute Maid Park.

TECHNOLOGY: Following the 2010 season, the Houston Astros installed two new, high-definition video boards and a large ribbon board at Minute Maid Park in time for the start of the 2011 Major League Baseball season. The new primary video board is located in right field and measures 54 feet high and 124 feet wide (approximately 6,695 square feet), making it the third-largest board of its kind in the Major Leagues when installed. The Astros previous video board that had been in the ballpark since its inception in 2000 was 26 feet high and 45 feet wide. Additionally, the Astros have the largest video board in the Major Leagues featuring 1080i display format. A smaller video board, measuring 24 feet high by 40 feet wide, was installed in left field, and a ribbon board, stretching from foul pole to foul pole and more than 1,000 feet long, was also added. A speed pitch board and an old-fashioned, manually-operated scoreboard keep fans on top of the action in the ballpark and in every other big league venue. When it opened in 2000, Minute Maid Park was the first major sports facility to feature a closed-captioning board for the hearing impaired. Daktronics, one of the world's largest suppliers of electronic boards, is the company responsible for the Astros new boards. The new state-of-the-art HD video board high atop Minute Maid Park provides fans with award-winning special video features and effects created by Astros Productions.

RENOVATIONS: Prior to the 2017 sesaon, the Astros made major renovations to the center field area. The center field area is now home to new concessions including fan-favorites Shake Shack, Torchy's Tacos and Pluckers, the Lexus Club, retail and more. Following the 2019 season, the Houston Astros renovated the suite level to create the Michelob Ultra Bar. In addition, a new club, The Texas and Crawford Club, was added down the left field line to hold up to120 people.

BOB FORD

ASTROS PA ANNOUNCER

- The 2021 season marks Bob's 28th as the Astros Public Address Announcer.
- Bob first joined the Astros in 1994 and has been with the organization ever since, announcing the final six seasons in the Astrodome as well as the MLB All-Star Game in 2004, the Astros World Series run in 2005 and the Astros World Series Championship in 2017.
- He began his career as a PA announcer at Galveston's Pony-Colt Stadium at the age of 13 where he played shortstop and first base two nights a week and served as PA the other three nights.
- Bob started in radio at the age of 15 at Galveston's KGBC and KILE stations. He spent more than 20 years on the radio in the Houston market on KXYZ, KAUM, KSRR 97 Rock, KLOL Rock 101 and KZFX Z107 where he worked with longtime Houston DJ Crash Collins on the "Bob & Crash" morning show.
- He also served as the backup PA announcer for the Dallas Cowboys at Texas Stadium, and was the image voice for the Cowboy's Silverstar Network.
- Bob currently owns and operates Bob Ford Productions, Inc. and has been doing voice-overs for radio and TV since 1986. He voiced award-winning projects for PBS, Showtime, Encore and Cartoon Network as well as TV and radio stations coast to coast.
- He has been the signature voice for five college conference channels on SiriusXM for the past three years: Big-10, Big 12, PAC-12, SEC, ACC.
- Bob has spent the last 35 years as an image voice for Fox Sports Net.
- The 2021 season also marks Bob's eighth as the PA Voice of TDECU Stadium for University of Houston football.
- Bob is married to the former Pamela Terry from Humble, Texas. He has three sons: Chris (30), Charlie (28) and Colton (26).
- He is a fifth-generation Galvestonian, and still lives on the island.

MLB GUIDELINES FOR THE MOVEMENT OF RETRACTABLE ROOFS

The decision as to whether a game begins with the roof open or closed rests solely with the home club.

If the game begins with the roof open: it shall be closed only in the event of impending rain or other adverse weather conditions. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the home club, after consultation with the Umpire Crew Chief.

The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.

Once the roof is closed during a game, it shall not be re-opened.

If the game begins with the roof closed: it may be opened when, in the opinion of the home club, the climatic environment has reached a level where fan comfort and enjoyment will be best served by opening the roof to the natural atmospheric conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following guidelines should be applied to opening the roof during a game.

> The roof may only open once during a game.

> The Umpire Crew Chief will be notified at the commencement of the inning that the roof will be opened at the inning's conclusion.

> The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.

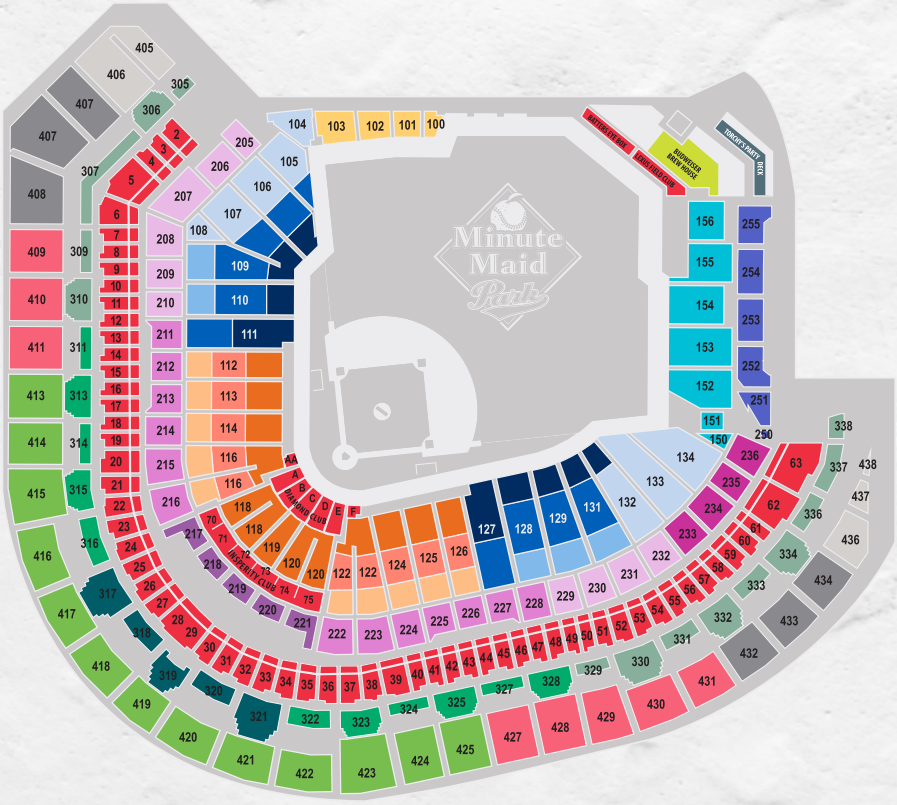

> The opening of the roof shall only commence between innings.
